Flesherton

The annual meeting of the East Grey Liberal Association was held in Clayton's hall here on Tuesday of last week when officers were elected as follows:—Pres. A. McDonald; Vice Pres. A. C. Patterson; Sec. R. D. Carruthers; Executive Dr. McCullough, Chatsworth; W. McLean, Holland Centre; T. McMitchell Sullivan; W. W. Trimble, Artemesia; P. McCullough, Markdale; W. C. Harris, Euphrasia; Jas. Foster, Collingwood; N. Hurlburt, Thornbury; E. W. Norman, Osprey; Jos. McLean, Proton; D. Sinclair, Dundalk. Resolutions of confidence in the leaders of the Liberal Party were passed, but the selection of a candidate for the Riding was left over for a future Convention.

June weddings have been numerous and among those reported at a distance of interest to many here are the following:

Blackburn—Asling—The marriage of Miss Millie Asling, daughter of Mrs. R. Asling and Mr. John J. Blackburn, son of Mr. Jas. Blackburn of Mt. Forest, formerly of Flesherton, took place at 93 Bleeker street Toronto, on Wednesday evening of last week, the ceremony being performed by Rev. R. W. Woodworth. The bride, who was given away by her uncle, Mr. James Richmond, wore a gown of white pointed d'esprit over silk, trimmed with lace and ribbon, with coronet of lily of the valley supporting the bridal veil. Her bouquet was of white roses. Miss Ethel Asling, sister of the bride wearing champagne voile with touches of pale blue, medallions of lace, acted as bridesmaid, and the groom was supported by his cousin, Mr. Robt. Blackburn. The little flower girl Miss Jessie Richmond, cousin of the bride, wore a dainty frock of Swiss dotted muslin with blue bows and sash and carried a basket of sweet peas and lily of the valley. Later in the evening Mr. and Mrs. Blackburn left for their new home on Gladstone Avenue.

Elliott—Northmore—A quiet wedding took place on June 1st, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Carter, Ossington, Avenue, Toronto, when the latter's sister, Mrs. Frances Northmore, and Mr. J. F. Elliott, were joined in wedlock. The bride, who was unattended, wore a gown of gray eolienne, and carried a bouquet of roses. Mr. and Mrs. Elliott will reside at Port Elgin. The bride who formerly resided in Artemesia, is a sister of Mr. Joseph Watson, Mt. Zion neighborhood.

Frier—Thompson—A pretty wedding took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Jeremiah Thompson, Collingwood, on Wednesday, of last week when their youngest daughter, Solina, was joined in marriage with Mr. Leonard Frier, also of Collingwood. The young bride formerly resided with her parents at Rockvale. Mrs. T. W. McKee of this place, aunt of the bride, and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Blackburn, of the 4th attended the wedding.

Barron—Joy—In Toronto on Wednesday the 5th inst, Mr. J. Barron was joined in marriage to Miss Minnie Joy, daughter of Mrs. R. B. Joy formerly of this place. The bride was very popular during her residence here and numerous friends here wish her much happiness.

McGruther—Furber—Mr. George McGruther, of New York, formerly of this place, was on Wednesday of last week joined in marriage to Miss Bella Turner, nee Eugenia. The marriage took place at the home of the bride and the young couple left the same day for New York.

Walker Bros have a strong gang on and are now rushing their contract—the Boyce bridge and new cement sidewalks. Engineer Mc Dowall was here on Friday last laying out the work.

Mr. John Nuhn is making good headway on rebuilding the woolen dam, washed away last winter.

The Methodist parsonage grounds have been greatly improved with a very neat lawn wire fence, the expense of which has been borne by the Ladies' Aid.

By one of the daily papers of Hammond, Indiana, we learn that Mr. W. J. McSleer, an old Artemesia and Osprey boy, was chosen to give the annual address a few days ago to the students of Valparaiso University. Mr. McSleer who is now an Attorney, is we learn exceedingly clever, and one of the leading members of his profession in Hammond city.

The Detroit Journal of the 4th inst reports the appointment of Dr. Edward Strain, to the position of senior house physician in Grace Hospital, of that city. Dr. Strain is the second of Mr. William Strain's sons in the medical profession, and we are pleased to learn he is meeting with marked success.

The Methodist married ladies who recently gave a successful concert here, repeated the program for the Methodist Church, at Meaford Road, on Friday evening last, and we learn they had an enjoyable outing meeting with pleasing success.

The Presbyterian Ladies' Aid, has announced for a garden party on the Manse Grounds, on Tuesday evening of next week. On the following Friday evening, the Women's Institute are giving a garden party at the residence of Mr. William Wilcox, on the back line.

At the monthly meeting of the Sunday School Teachers' Union, held in the Presbyterian Church on Friday evening last, Principal Mill taught a model lesson; the most instructing and helpful address yet given the Union, on how best to prepare and present the lesson.

Our Citizens Band rendered a pleasing program on the street, on Friday evening last. The Band has two engagements for next week, on Tuesday evening the Presbyterian garden party here, and on Friday evening, the Foresters garden party at Maxwell.

The Standard Bank had a handsome gold lettered sign hung on the Bank on Saturday, and a very neat sign has also been placed in the window.

Under command of Capt. C. N. Richardson, No. 6 Company here, left on Tuesday morning for their annual twelve days drill at Niagara Camp.

Mr. Bert Jamieson, operator, has a good position at Deux Rievires, on the C. P. R.

Mr. W. H. Bunt was in Toronto last week, a delegate to the Grand Council of Chosen Friends.

Mr. W. R. Simmons, 4th line, is at Woodstock this week, attending the marriage of his niece.

Mrs. W. J. Boyd, Mrs. J. A. Boyd and daughter Miss Lily, are at Tillsonburg this week attending the marriage of Mr. Andrew Boyd. Mrs. Boyd and daughter will attend the closing exercises at Alma College, St. Thomas, before returning home, and Mrs. W. Boyd will visit in Toronto.

Mr. M. K. Richardson is in Owen Sound this week, a crown witness in the charge against Hugh Thompson, of Collingwood Township, who was committed for trial by magistrate Van Dusen, in April last.

Mr. W. H. Brown, of Stayner, visited his parents here on Monday.

Mr. W. Livingstone was over from Durham on Sunday.

Mrs. Wickens, of Kimberley, is on a short visit with her niece, Mrs. John Thistlethwaite.

Rev. L. F. Kipp and his assistant Mr. Wilkes, are at Paisley this week attending the annual meeting of the Owen Sound Association of Baptist Church's.

Miss Katie LeGard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry LeGard, of this place, underwent a successful operation for appendicitis in Toronto, on Wednesday of last week, and we learn is progressing favorably.

At the service held in the Baptist Church, on Sunday morning last, a young woman received Baptism by immersion at the hands of the pastor, Rev. L. F. Kipp. A young lady from the sister congregation at Priceville, was Baptised a few evenings before. In the Presbyterian Church on Sunday, the interim moderator, Rev. J. A. Matheson, of Priceville, preached an excellent sermon and dispensed the quarterly Communion.

Rev. Dr. Caldwell is in Toronto attending conference. Mrs. Caldwell is also in the city visiting friends.

Mrs. W. G. Hacking left last week for Emo, Rainy River, where Mr. Hacking, operator, has a good position on the C. N. R.

Every Man His Own Doctor.

The average man cannot afford to employ a physician for every slight ailment or injury that may occur in his family, nor can he afford to neglect them, as so slight an injury as the scratch of a pin has been known to cause the loss of a limb. Hence every man must from necessity be his own doctor for this class of ailments. Success often depends upon prompt treatment, which can only be had when suitable medicines are kept at hand. Chamberlain's Remedies have been in the market for many years and enjoy a good reputation.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for bowel complaints.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough.

Chamberlain's Pain Balm (an antiseptic liniment) for cuts, bruises, burns, sprains, swellings, lame back and rheumatic pains.

Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets for constipation, biliousness and stomach troubles.

Chamberlain's Salve for diseases of the skin.

One bottle of each five preparations costs but $1.25. For sale at Parker's Drug Store.

FIRST OF JULY DEMONSTRATION

The Amusement Committee of Ben Nevis Camp have pleasure in announcing that they have secured the renowned 48th Highlanders Band, of Toronto, for their Fourth Annual Dominion Day Demonstration, as one of the chief features of the day and evening. Numbering about twenty-five they are much more than a band, for the aggregation includes vocalists, dancers, fantasias, and humorous selections as well. All loyal citizens will enjoy for instance one of the afternoon items, a Grand Patriotic Fantasia, entitled "The Death of Nelson," while the humorous piece "The Alabama Minstrels," with vocal, tambourine, bones, dancing and chorus effects will gratify the lighter vein. Other features will be arranged for and of course the usual athletic sports. Watch for further announcements and plan to spend the Big Day in Durham. Long Live Canada.—By order, The Committee.
