Wedding Presents

This store is noted for its high-class display of Wedding Presents—everything up to date.

Remember our Silverware is made by the "Standard Silver company," of Toronto, and we are authorized to replace Free of Charge any piece that leaves this store that is not satisfactory.

For the Bride or Bridesmaid the following would make very suitable presents: Solid 14kt. Crescent's, Solid Gold Locket's & Necklet's, also some very handsome Bracelets.

For the Groomsman Solid 14kt. Pearl Stick Pin or Cuff Links in plush or leather cases.

Of course it is simply impossible for us to attempt to give a full account of our large display, the only way to satisfy yourself is to give us a call.

The "Wedding Ring" Question

Is very easily solved by coming into Webster's, while in town.
 EVERYTHING CONFIDENTIAL.

J. C. TELFORD, DURHAM

Flesherton

The residence of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Hanley, Con. 8, Artemesia, was the scene of a pretty wedding on Wednesday evening of last week when their daughter Jennie was joined in marriage to Mr. Ben Wilson of Toronto, eldest son of the late T. W. Wilson of this place. About one hundred guests witnessed the ceremony which was conducted by Rev. Dr. Caldwell of this place, the bridal party standing beneath a prettily decorated arch on the spacious lawn. The bride looked pretty in her dainty wedding gown and was conducted to the altar by her father meanwhile the strains of the wedding march lent impressions to the occasion. The groom's sister, Miss Annie Wilson, was bridesmaid and Mr. W. J. Elliott of Markdale, was best man. After the ceremony a sumptuous wedding supper was served and wedding mirth was continued till after midnight. The bride received a large number of beautiful wedding presents.

A quiet wedding was solemnized at the Methodist Parsonage here on Wednesday evening of last week when Rev. D. Caldwell joined in wedding Mr. Oscar Phillips and Miss Mary Thompson daughter of the late Jane Thompson of this place. Mr. and Mrs. Phillips are settled in their new home here and we join in the congratulations extended to them.

At the residence of her son Wm. east of the village, there passed away on Sunday morning last an old and highly respected resident in the person of Jane Sharp, relict of the late Mr. John Sharp, who had reached the ripe age of 86 years. The deceased was born in the County of Fermanagh, Ireland, when over 65 years ago she was married to her late husband with whom in 1848, she came to Canada and settled at Bowmanville. In 1860 they came to Artemesia and settled on the farm where she spent her last days in the affectionate care of her son and daughter-in-law. Three sons and five daughters survive as follows:—John, at Sault Ste Marie, Andrew at Crystal City, Man, and William on the homestead; Mrs. Geo. Wilson Singhampton, Mrs. Andrew Rowe and Mrs. E. Ellison near Crystal City, Man.; Mrs. Geo. Johnson and Mrs. Jos. Blakely near this village. Mr. Gilchrist, of Ceylon and one sister, Mrs. Weir, of Singhampton, also survive. The funeral took place to the Flesherton cemetery on Tuesday the deceased's pastor, Rev. Dr. Caldwell well conducting the services.

Mr. Walker's cement gang continued work on the streets, but otherwise Dominion Day was quiet here. The band went to Orangeville and many of our citizens to outside points, Vaudeleur getting a good share. We learn the unveiling of the school section monument and the sports provided proved interesting. There was a big crowd.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. White are the happy parents of a son born to them on the 22nd ult.

The Farmers' excursion to Guelph was well patronized here last week, and the visit to the farm much enjoyed.

A team of horses belonging to Mr. J. Boyce, of the west back line, indulged in a runaway in the village one day last week colliding with a telephone pole near D. McTavish's shop where they were captured. Some damage was done to the democrat to which they were hitched.

Flesherton and Priceville base-ball teams played a match on Friday evening last resulting in a score of 25 to 5 in favor of Flesherton. Mr. Geo. Mitchell refereed the game.

Varney.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wilkinson on the 26th ult. only 13½ lbs.

The trustees of our school had a bee on the 29th and did a lot of fixing up around the school but didn't complete the job so will have another on the 8th July. When the teacher returns after her vacation she will find things in a nifty shape.

The Knox picnic was well patronized from around here, and we think that all enjoyed the afternoon well. We did at least.

Alf. McCabe is busy this week moving his house that he bought from Geo. M. Leeson down to Varney. A Mr. McCray is doing the engineering of the job.

There were a good many took in the big sports in Durham on the 1st, but as far as we can hear did not think them up to former years.

The prospects for a good haying and a bountiful harvest are good and the talk of a famine is a thing of the past, and talk is now, how things are growing.

James Petty while going home from Varney one day last week with the horse and buggy the horse started to kick by some means and landed its heels into the rig and hit Jim on the leg leaving quite a wound. The buggy suffered the worst, being smashed up pretty badly, but it was lucky that it was no worse.

The Rev. Mr. Saunderson preached his farewell sermon on Sunday last, and all being well the Rev. Mr. Rogers will preach his introductory sermon, on Sunday next.

Mr. and Mrs. Furnell, from Toronto, are visiting at Mrs. Furnell's parental home, Mr. Walter Dunn's.

Miss Agnes Dunn is also home from the city for a visit.

Miss Skelton, from Toronto, is visiting with her chum, Miss Gladys Dunn, at the present time.

Mr. Trotter and his son Dawson and a cham of Dawson's, a Mr. Wilson, all from Toronto, are visiting at Mr. Zenus Clark's. Mr. Trotter is a brother-in-law of Mrs. Clark.

Miss Edith Allan, teacher at Gowans town, came home to spend the vacation around Varney. Her mother will be glad as she has been a good bit alone lately.

Don't forget the picnic on the 9th of July under the auspices of the Varney S. S.

Wm. Bryans has the stone work of his barn completed. No more threshing out doors for Billy.

Olive McCalmon, the youngest daughter of Alex. McCalmon, is visiting with her aunt, Mrs. James Hoy.

Miss Maggie Aldred, who came last week from the West, is this week at Fergus hospital undergoing an operation for appendicitis, and at time of writing we have not heard the results but sincerely hope that it may prove successful and that she may soon be back in good health again. Henry Wilkinson accompanied her down.
