Edward Kress, Durham

bridesmaid looked charming in a gown of lilac marquisette over silk and white picture hat and carried lilacs and roses. The wedding was a quiet one, only the relatives and a few intimate friends being present. Immediately after the ceremony the wedding party repaired to the residence of the bride's parents, where an elaborate wedding lunch was served. The parlor and dining room were prettily decorated with roses, ferns and potted plants. The wedding gifts were numerous and costly. The happy couple left on the afternoon train for Montreal, New York and other eastern cities. The bride is an exceptionally bright and accomplished young lady, and has held the position of official stenographer in the government offices for some time and by her charming personality has made herself a general favorite in social circles. The groom is an employe of the C. P. R., and by his ability and strict attention to business has worked his way up, until for the past three years, he has had complete charge of the vast freight business in this city and his affable and courteous conduct has won him a host of friends in South East Kootenay. On their return to Cranbrook, they will reside in the Hoskins cottage on Baker Hill

The Doctor Away from Home when Most Needed.

People are often very much disappointed to find that their family physician is away from home when they most need his services. Diseases like cramp colic and cholera morbus require prompt treatment, and have in many instances proven fatal before medicine could be procured or a physician summoned. The right way is to keep at hand a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. No physician can prescribe a better medicine for these diseases. By having it in the house you escape much pain and suffering and all risk. Buy it now; it may save life. For sale at Parker's Drug Store.

Stinson, Crawford, and Howard F. Tyreman, Toronto Medical College.

Mr. Campbell Dunsmoor attends the Rocky Presbyterian Church instead of attending his home church in town. We hear there is a fair lady living in that direction.

Mrs. David Donnelly spent a day with her sister, Mrs. Bell, Glenelg. Sorry to hear that Mr. Bell is on the sick list.

We were pleased to see Miss M. McDonald, of Vickers. It is seldom she visits our burg since she left our neighborhood. She is a highly respected lady and we miss her very much.

We hear that Messrs. Alf Mountain and Otto Bauer attended the camp meetings in Neustadt.

Sorry to chronicle that Mrs. Wm. Langrill is ailing, hope to hear of her speedy recovery.

Mr. W. Ritchie and his bride from Actou, visited at Mr. Tom Ritchie's last week.

Edge Hill S. S. held their picnic on Saturday last in Mr. Wm. Edge's bush. It was a lovely day for a picnic as the shower in the forenoon had the dust and cooled the atmosphere sufficiently to make it pleasant. The afternoon was very pleasantly spent in swinging, playing ball, pitching horse shoes, etc. Tea was served about 4:30 when all did justice to the abundance of dainties supplied by the ladies. Messrs. Herb Greenwood and Jas. Edge deserve credit for the excellent tea they made as we never tasted better at a picnic. After tea came the baseball match between the married and single men. This has been a feature of our picnic for several years and the single men have always been the winners. This year it was agreed to play six innings but as the score was a tie at end of sixth innings, another was played, which resulted in the single men winning by two runs. Mr. Alex. Firth acted as umpire and gave general satisfaction. Following are the two teams:

MARRIED	SINGLE
C. H. Moffat	Pitcher
W. J. Ritchie	Catcher
Geo. Ritchie	1st Base
Tom Ritchie	2nd Base
Wm. Ritchie	3rd Base
John Moffat	Short Stop
John Firth	Right Field
Wm. Weir	Left Field

STAPLES-TANNHAUSER.
(Cranbrook Herald, B.C.)

One of the social events of the season and perhaps the prettiest ever held in Fort Steele, was the wedding of Miss Francis Amalia Tannhauser, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Tannhauser, to Mr. George Arthur Staples, which took place at Christ Church, Fort Steele, on Wednesday morning, June 19th, at 11 o'clock. The church was beautifully decorated with roses, lilac and ferns. As Mrs. Miller, who presided at the organ, played Lohengrin's wedding march, Rev. Flewelling took his place at the altar, followed by the groom and his best man, Mr. J. J. McDonnell, of Cranbrook. Then entered the lovely bride on the arm of her father, followed by her bridesmaid Miss Lillian Tannhauser. The bride was beautifully attired in an imported white lace robe, over white duchess satin, and chiffon, and wore a filmy veil held in place by lilies of the valley. She carried a bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley. The
