DON'T DIE AT 45.

Cure the Indigestion Which is So Liable to Lead to Apoplexy.

Rush of business, eating too fast and too much, excesses of any kind, soon result in indigestion. Then when the digestive organs cannot care for the food properly the coats of the blood vessels in the brain get little nourishment, become brittle, and finally yield to the fierce blood pressure. One is then said to have a "shock," to be paralyzed, or die from apoplexy.

People suffering with headaches, giddiness, palpitation, sleeplessness, bad taste in the mouth, drowsiness, coated tongue, distress after eating, specks before the eyes, and any other of the many distressing results of a weakened stomach, should profit by the discovery of Mi-o-na stomach tablets

In recent years the greatest advance in medicine has been in the study of diseases of indigestion and nutrition and no other prescription has proven itself of as much value as Mi-o-na. It is relied upon as a certainty today in relieving the worst troubles of digestion and assimilation and making a complete cure.

We absolutely agree that your money will be refunded should you buy a 50 cent box of Mi-o-na stomach tablets and not be satisfied with the results. Mi-o-na is sold by druggists everywhere, or will be sent by mail on receipt of price, 50 cents. Booth's Miona Company, Buffalo, N. Y.

CLAIMS SHE IS BERESFORD'S WIDOW.

Toronto Evening Paper Publishes Remarkable Story Long Ago Romance.

Toronto, July 6.—The Star this evening publishes the following: "In an Ontario town, and now married to another man, lives the widow of the late Lord de Laval Beresford, whose estate of $2,000,000 has been under administration by his two brothers, Admiral Lord Charles Beresford and Lord Marcus Beresford. Flora Wolff, the negress with whom Beresford lived for nearly a score of years, has been given $15,000, but her claim to be his wife is unfounded if the story told by the Ontario woman is true. The latter was married to the titled Englishman over 20 years ago when she was a girl of about eighteen. She has all the papers to prove her marriage, and also to prove that the man she married was Beresford. The story goes back to a period over 20 years ago, when Beresford first came to this country. In St. Catharines and Ottawa and other places he cut a gay dash in society under an assumed name. She was a pretty lass in her teens and Beresford found her charming. They were married by a Methodist minister and for two weeks their life was apparently a happy one. But, it is said, that Beresford soon tired of his toy. He disappeared utterly. The girl wife was left to make her living as best she could. She took in sewing, and apparently succeeded fairly well in this line, for she finally owned a little property which, though not large, was a tribute to her industry. Years went by and the girl's early romance became more and more of a dream. Other interests came into her life and a new love. For years she felt that she could not marry, but as time went on she sought advice. She went to her pastor, as did the young man of her choice.

The case was a somewhat puzzling one. Beresford had been gone for half a dozen years. The man who is absent for seven years under certain circumstances may be legally supposed dead. The minister proceeded to make enquiries, for two years he searched for the missing man, finding traces of him all over the world. But the man himself he never found. He even employed Baptist missionaries in India to seek him in that far land, but it was in vain. When Beresford had been gone eight years the minister advised the two members of his flock that they had better marry. There was a possibility of the titled foreigner's return, but it seemed slim. The letter to his brother, the admiral had been unanswered. No one seemed to know of his whereabouts. Possibly he was dead. As a matter of fact, of course, Beresford died only last December, when he was killed in a railway wreck. That fact, however, does not in the least affect the Ontario woman's title. She is still his widow for all legal purposes. She is also the wife of a well-to-do railway man, for he missed a train, and failed to arrive and a Methodist minister tied the knot, and the couple have lived happily ever since. There was no child from the first marriage. Now comes the question as to whether or not the Ontario woman will press her claim, as heir to the estate of the man who married her. There seems to be no doubt that she can prove the marriage, and she claims to have papers which conclusively identify her husband. In fact he told her who he was after their marriage. The matter is still in doubt, but a decision must be reached shortly, as the estate is being distributed. In a town not a great distance from Toronto a woman is doing some very hard thinking and the pastor who so long assisted her in tracing her husband is also considering the problem which confronts her.

AN OLD FRIEND.

The Editor of The Arrow was delighted to have as his guest over Sunday an old and very dear friend in the person of Mr. M. K. Richardson, who is associated with Mr. J. J. Keelso, Toronto, in caring for neglected children. Mr. Richardson's tender, sympathetic nature and love for children, his high personal character, and his many estimable qualities of mind and heart peculiarly fit him for this noble work. He is a gentleman of culture and refinement, and a public speaker of rare ability and scholarly attainments. Mr. Richardson represented South Grey in the Parliament of Canada for five years, but declined renomination at the end of the term. His speeches in parliament were listened to with close attention by both sides of the House, and were remarkable for their freedom from partisan bitterness, and for their presentation of facts in a lucid, logical, and convincing manner. He was unquestionably the ablest M. P. ever sent to Ottawa by the electors of the important constituency of South Grey. Of this, the most beloved friend of "Auld Lang Syne," we may say that his noble, unselfish life is accurately portrayed in these lines of the poet—

"I live for those who love me,
For those who know me true,
For the Heaven that smiles above me,
And awaits my spirit too;
For the cause that lacks assistance,
For the wrongs that need resistance,
For the future in the distance,
And the good that I can do."

Mr. Richardson accompanied the Editor in a trip down the River on the Armour on Monday, and was enchanted with the beautiful scenery, which, he frankly admitted, was unsurpassed in Europe or America, in both of which he has travelled extensively.—Barks Falls Arrow.

IT IMPARTS STRENGTH.

Just think of the enormous strengthening power Ferrozone possesses,—consider what it did for H. V. Potter, well known in Kingston. "I was subject to spells of dizziness. For eight months I had intense pain in my right side between the shoulders. I was almost incurable with weakness and lack of vigor. Often I scarcely ate any breakfast and felt miserable all day. Nervous, easily excited, troubled with heart weakness, I was in bad shape. Ferrozone restored and nourished me back to health in short order." Whatever your weakness may be Ferrozone will cure. The Doctor Away from Home when Most Needed.

People are often very much disappointed to find that their family physician is away from home when they most need his services. Diseases like cramp colic and cholera morbus require prompt treatment, and have in many instances proven fatal before medicine could be procured or a physician summoned. The right way is to keep at hand a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. No physician can prescribe a better medicine for these diseases. By having it in the house you escape much pain and suffering and all risk. Buy it now; it may save life. For sale at Parker's Drug Store.

DAYS OF LONG AGO.

Durham Standard of Jan. 7, 1859.

TOWNSHIP ELECTIONS.

The annual township meeting of the corporation of the Township of Bentinck was held in the school-house, village of Durham, Jan. 3rd and 4th. It was moved and seconded and resolved, That Messrs. Jackson, Allan, Smith, Fletcher, Campbell, Hopkins, Miller and Samuel Legate, be candidates for the office of Councillor for the current year.

A poll having been demanded and kept open till four of the clock second day, the votes stood thus:

Mr. Jackson, 393. Mr. Campbell, 281. Mr. Allan, 236. Mr. Smith, 233. Mr. Hopkins, 229. Mr. Miller, 222. Mr. Fletcher, 171. Mr. Legate, 75.

The Returning Officer then declared the first named gentlemen were elected.

On the Gravel Road By-law No. 57, the votes stood thus: Yea 438, Nay 45. Three hearty cheers were then given for the elected and three more for the returning officer, when the poll closed. A. COCHRANE, Returning Officer.

The following are the candidates nominated as councillors for the Township of Glenelg and the votes they received:

James Edge, 193; N. McCannel, 171; James McGirr, 168; Mr. Bell, 156; D. Jackson, 154; W. Morrison, 152; A. Black, 148; J. Black, 98; H. Roswell, 94; Mr. McFadden, 78; T. Gray, 47.

The vote on the Gravel Road By-law stood much the same as in Bentinck.

We understand that a protest has been entered against the return of Mr. D. Jackson as Municipal Councillor for the Township of Glenelg, on the ground that several votes recorded in his favor were non-residents or illegal. The names of persons objected to are John Kelly, Wm. Henderson, Miller, Dr. Wood, Samson Bottrel and Archibald McCormack.

The Mechanics' Institute is now completely organized, and hope the public will avail themselves of its advantages, also lend their aid in its support. The want of a good library in this place has been much felt heretofore, but need not any longer, as the yearly subscription is only one dollar. (January 14, '59.)

On the evening of the 11th inst, six first class stores were destroyed by fire in St. Catharines. The loss has not been ascertained but must be immense. The origin of the fire is unknown.

The annual meeting of the Durham Agricultural Society took place on the 11th inst. The following officers were chosen for the present year:—George Jackson, President; Arch'd Parks, Vice-Pres.; John Dickie, Thos. Jones, Thos. Gray, Wm. McGirr and D. Jackson, Directors.

Wreck of the Grand Trunk.

A bad wreck occurred about midnight between Chesley and Dobbington on the Grand Trunk on Monday evening, which, though disastrous to the rolling stock, was fortunately unattended with any loss of life. A special freight, drawn by two engines, was preceding the regular night express from Palmerston, and was running at a prett, fair rate of speed, when from some unexplained cause one of the cars jumped the track as above stated and in a moment eight or nine cars were bumping along the ties and finally piled in a heap in the ditch. Some of them were turned upside down while others were carried half their length through the wire fencing dividing the railway from the farmer's land. The rails were twisted and wrenched from their fastenings and the track badly torn up for a considerable distance. None of the crew were injured. The up express was unable to get past and the passengers and baggage had to be transferred to another train sent down from this end of the line to meet them. Auxiliaries were sent up from Palmerston and Stratford and the wreckage cleared away and repairs made in time for traffic next day.—O. S. Times.

Shot in the Trough.

A serious shooting accident occurred at Brooke on Tuesday, the victim being the eight-year-old son of Mr. Ben Legault, who is employed with the Sun Portland Cement Company on the west side. Details of the accident are very meagre as no one appears to know exactly how it happened. From what has been learned, however, it appears that young Legault was playing in the water near the shore when a bullet from a 32 calibre rifle in the hands of a companion named E. Nabrstadt, of Brooke, struck him in the right thigh from behind and passed through to the front. The injured lad was assisted to his home by Mrs. Belrose, who saw the accident, and surgical aid quickly summoned. Though the wound is a serious and painful one, hopes are entertained for the young lad's recovery. Nabrstadt claims that he was aiming at a bird and that the shooting was purely accidental.—O. S. Times.
