ROBERT BURNETT

itors assisting the choir. Dr's. F. W. Murray and Dr. E. C. Murray and Mrs. Blackburn, of this place gave a beautifully rendered quartette and Dr. F. W. Murray rendered a solo in his usual pleasing and effective style. In the Methodist church the pastor as usual occupied the pulpit speaking in the evening on "The Influence of Music and Song." Mr. Ed. Bentham sang a solo with good effect. A male quartette was expected, but the absence of one of the singers caused disappointment. At the morning service Mr. W. Barnhouse, of Toronto, occupied his old place in the choir and rendered a pleasing solo.

Mr. W. J. White has improved his residence by reshingling and adding a new gothic window in front.

A meeting of the directors of East Grey Agricultural Society was held in the town hall on Friday last when a careful revision of the prize list was made. It was resolved that, at the Fall Fair two contests of speeding in the ring be held, the prizes to be respectively $50 and $40. September 26th and 27th are the dates of the fair.

Our base-ball team are not discouraged because of the little Waterloo handed out to them by the Durham team on Thursday last. The one-sided score no doubt due to the lack of practice on the part of some of the boys here who expect to give a better account of themselves when the return match is played. Jimmie Defoe, one of the players on returning home gave the palm of his hand a nasty cut in which Dr. Carter inserted several stitches in dressing. Jimmie left on Friday on a holiday to Toronto.

Judge Widdifield was at the town hall here on Saturday forenoon last hearing the appeal of A. Munshaw & Son, against the assessment of $3000, on their property as sustained by the Court of Revision. Mr. C. H. Munshaw appeared for the complainants, but the Judge decided that the assessment was not too high and that it remain as it was.

Mr. W. H. Thurston has taken a splendid photograph of the "Shirley M" as she gracefully sits on the bosom of the Munshaw Lake occupied by Dr. Murray and W. Summers. The little craft and scene in the background make a pretty picture.

The Band was at Proton Station on Friday evening last entertaining at the Presbyterian Garden-Party which we learn was very successful.

In the churches here on Sunday Rev. Dr. Brown, Baptist Foreign Mission Supt., preached an able sermon in the Baptist church. In the Presbyterian church Rev. H. F. Thomas, of Toronto, a fluent and pleasing speaker preached an excellent sermon and the congregation also enjoyed a musical treat by vis-
