THE DURHAM CHRONICLE

W. IRWIN, Editor and Proprietor.

DURHAM, AUGUST 1, 1907

SANCTUM SIFTINGS.

The By-election in Dufferin resulted in a victory last week for Mr. McKeown, of Orangeville, who defeated Mr. Woods by a majority of 73. Both candidates were Conservatives, but Mr. Woods was brought out by the Temperance party, who evidently forgot their temperance principles when they got to the polling booth. It's all very well to talk of a third party in parliament, but it isn't often a new innovation is productive of much influence. Party politics is so firmly grounded that there seems to be very little room for more than the "ins" and the "outs."

Some time ago a boat which landed at Meaford on a Saturday night was prevented from unloading on Sunday morning. The Meaford Express, if we may judge from last issue, offered some opposition to the action of the authorities who forbade the work at the request of the Lord's Day Alliance. Last issue of the Express contains two letters, one signed W. F. Campbell, favoring the prevention of Sunday labor and in a measure condemning the editor for the part he took. The other, signed "A Lover of Justice," felt like clapping the editor on the back and thanking him for the independent stand he had taken, etc." He condemned the other papers of the town for "being dumb as oysters," and then began to unravel himself on the power and influence of the press, which should be a leader and an educative force, and then in a concluding paragraph advises the editor not to be afraid to stand up valiantly in its defence. He then misquotes the Golden Rule in order that his article may have the appearance of being religious, and shows how the captain, who was detained because he was forced to fulfil the law, would go away with unkindly feelings towards the town of Meaford.

If "A Lover of Justice" is fighting in the right why hasn't he back-bone enough in him and come out under his own signature and let all the readers of the Express know exactly who the good and brave man is? No, he wouldn't do that, the poor modest soul. He prefers to act like a snake in the grass; to conceal his identity, and to cover up his real self by misquoting scripture to pull the wool over the eyes of well-meaning people.

The Editor of the Express will do well to stand up valiantly for the right, but he must be sure first that he is right, and not be governed by advisers who conceal their identity under a fanciful nom de plume and quote scripture during their concealment.

An injustice might some times be done in delaying the unloading of perishable goods, but a shipload of coal or a cargo of grain would not suffer much by being held over for a few hours.

The very sad accident which led to the drowning of nine young men of Toronto Junction has been so widely published that most of our readers will know of it before this paper reaches their homes. How often we read of such awful calamities and how lightly we pass them over when they occur at a distance. The nearer they occur to home the more fully we can realize the awful situation and the awful gloom that falls over the home of those who have to mourn. These ten young men were like many others of their age. They were out for enjoyment, and never thought for a moment of the dangers to which they were exposed, nor the short step between them and their watery graves. Nine perished, two from one home, which leaves eight sad households, whose bereavement we can hardly conceive of. The nine bodies were all discovered and a very solemn public funeral was held on Monday last. Six were given a public funeral from the Victoria Presbyterian Church: two others were taken out of town for burial Monday morning, and La Roque, a Roman Catholic, was buried from his own Church the same morning. Dawson Niehgang's parents live near Palmerston and the remains were sent home Monday.

FOR THOSE WHO CANNOT SEE.

In making his annual appeal to the readers of Ontario newspapers for information which will enable him to locate the children and youths of both sexes who are eligible for admission as pupils of the School for the Blind at Brantford, Principal Gardiner asks the Chronicle to call public attention to the need for some institution where the adult blind may be instructed and employed. General experience has demonstrated the inadvisability of combining a workshop for adults with a school for children under one management, yet the blind adults, who far outnumber the children of school age, should be no longer neglected. In New York State, it has been ascertained by careful inquiry that out of 6,008 blind persons only 584, or 9.72 per cent. of the total number, are under 21 years of age; 3,193, or 53.14 per cent., are over 60 years of age; while 1,375, or 22.88 per cent., are between the ages of twenty-one and fifty—in the prime of life and capable of being rendered in whole or in part self-supporting. It is probable that the percentages in Ontario are similar to those in New York. Many lose their sight by accident after passing school age, and many who have been blind from birth or childhood need help and direction in order to work profitably. In California, Connecticut, the District of Columbia, Illinois, Indiana, Massachusetts, Michigan, New Jersey, New York, Ohio, Pennsylvania and Wisconsin workshops or "homes" have been provided, and in Washington, Colorado and other States the matter has been taken up by Women's Clubs and other associations of philanthropic ladies, whose influence upon public opinion and the Legislatures will certainly effect the desired result.

The first necessity is to get an accurate knowledge of the facts, and to this end Mr. Gardiner will gladly receive information relating to blind residents of Ontario of all ages (names and post office addresses). Those under twenty-one years of age, not deficient in intellect, and free from disease and physical infirmity, who are blind, or whose sight is so defective that they are unable to read ordinary type and attend a school for the seeing without serious injury to the sight, should attend the school at Brantford, which is maintained by the Provincial government for their benefit. A letter or post card addressed to the Principal will receive immediate attention.

CHAMPIONSHIP LACROSSE.

Durham Won the District. Score 11 to 4.

The first real game played in Durham this season was pulled off on Tuesday afternoon last when Hanover and Durham crossed sticks in the game that was to decide the District Championship. Score 11-4 in favor of the home team.

The same two teams played in Hanover a short time ago and the contest was so even that a really better game was expected than the one given here Tuesday. The players on the visiting team were somewhat changed since they met on the Hanover grounds, and this may in some measure have accounted for the weakness of the visitors, who showed from the very first that they were out classed by the Durham boys.

The game was a good clean exhibition of Lacrosse. There was comparatively little slugging, and though some were sent to the fence it was not so frequently adorned as on many former occasions. Only one man was laid, out and he only for a short time with no serious injuries.

The stores were closed from four till six o'clock and the exhibitions in Durham never before witnessed so large a crowd turn out to a lacrosse match. The whole hill side was lined with spectators, many of whom were from Hanover who came to see the boys go down to an honorable defeat. The gate receipts amounted to over $156.00 which we think was a record breaker in returns on a sporting line.

A number of special constables were on duty and kept sentry at the foot of the hill to intercept any one who might be bold enough to venture beyond the limits. In this respect the order was good, and apart from the brain-storm effusions that came from the hill side there was no interference from the crowd of spectators.

Though they were defeated by a large score against them, it must not be inferred that Hanover boys are not good players. On the contrary they gave some excellent exhibitions of field-work, and at times the ball passed like clock-work from one end of the field to the other, only to be stopped by a strong defence or to be returned by the doughty little Goal Keeper, Charlie Lavelle, who enjoys a run when he gets a chance to handle the rubber at his end of the field. The Hanover boys showed some good combinations and they had a good active goal keeper, who saved them from a much worse defeat.

The following is the line up, the Durham team being shown from the goal down:—

Durham—C. Lavelle, Kearns, Calbeck, Matheson, McDonald, Smith, McGiffin, McIntyre, Cowan, W. Lavelle, McKinstry, McCartie. Hanover—S. Wendorf, W. Wendorf, H. Wendorf, C. Briggs, C. Devlin, A. Patterson, C. Kirchner, C. Henning, W. Henning, Wingham, McKenzie.

The game started out well, and no sooner had the ball left the centre of the field than it passed towards the enemy's goal and swung round with a few scientific combinations and the net was bulged for Durham amid uproarious cheers from the hill-side. The visitors felt surprised and buckled on their armour determined that such a trick should not be repeated. They fought well, especially the defence, which had apparently all the work to do till the quarter ended almost as it had begun with the score 1-0 in favor of Durham.

In the second quarter the visitors had the luck to get one goal while the home team added three more to the score, ending up with 4-1.

The visitors made a strong effort in the third quarter to keep down the score of the Durhams as low as possible, feeling, no doubt, that the game was against them, and the longed for penance was nowhere in sight for them. They won two goals and the Durhams won four during the quarter, which closed at 8-3.

The opening up of the last quarter showed a determination on the part of the visitors to reduce the difference, and for a time they made a bold brilliant fight but bulged the net only once while Durham managed to get in three more goals and finished with a score of 11-4, with Durham as Champions of the District.

NOTES.

Jimmy Darling, the Manager of the home team, was ubiquitous. That's a good word.

"Matheson is the cleanest player on the field" said a visiting stranger who said he was uninterested only he knew a couple of the boys.

Charlie Lavelle is an "artful dodger" when he gets a hold of the ball.

Billy Lavelle is a hard coon to corner, and he always seemed a safe man to pass to.

Mulvey Cowan knows how to handle the stick all right, and when McIntyre gets the rubber there's little use running after him. His heels will never stand to see his head knocked to pieces.

Briggs, of Hanover, is an artist in playing to the gallery, but he can handle the stick just the same.

Hanover has decided not to enter the semi finals.

How far will Durham go on the onward march to victory? They have to run up against the Elora Rocks next.

Eleven to four leaves no room for protest.

Gilbert McKechnie has turned sport. He was an interested spectator.

HYMENEAL.

COLERIDGE—ISAAC.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. James Isaac, Church Street, Mt. Forest, on Wednesday, 24th inst., at high noon, was the scene of a most happy event, when their daughter Mary A. was united in marriage to Mr. James Coleridge, of Dromore. The ceremony was performed under an arch of vines and flowers in the presence of a number of invited guests, by the Rev. A. G. Hanna, pastor of the bride. They were unattended. Mr. Bert Gibson, Mt. Forest, played the wedding march.

The bride, who was given away by her brother Robert, was gowned in cream colored voile with all-over lace bodice. She wore a veil of embroidered tulle caught with a small bunch of white buds and carried a bouquet of pink roses intermixed with ferns and wore a solid gold guard, her only ornament, the gift of the groom. Her travelling suit was of brown silk with applique trimming and hat to match.

Congratulations over, the guests sat down to a dainty luncheon, at the close of which Rev. Mr. Hanna proposed a toast to the bride, to which the groom responded. A toast was also offered to the host and hostess for their welcome and good cheer.

Mr. and Mrs. Coleridge left on the 3:15 train to spend a short honeymoon in Galt and other places amid good wishes and showers of confetti.

The number of beautiful and useful presents given them bore testimony to the high esteem in which both bride and groom are held. A handsome marble pillared mantle clock, with bronze statue surmounting, a gift to the groom by the pupils of S. S. No. 13, Egremont, where he has taught for a number of years, was much appreciated.

There were a number of guests from a distance, including Dr. and Mrs. Dixon and Miss Maud Burrows, Chicago; Miss S. A. Coleridge, Rainham Centre; Mr. Wm. Isaac, Owen Sound; Mr. and Mrs. C. Ramage, Durham; Mr. and Mrs. H. Baird, Markdale; Miss Viola Ferguson, Attwood; and other relatives from Holstein and Dromore.

John Bailey Dead.

The pioneers are passing away one by one. This week we have to chronicle the death of Mr. John Bailey of Lamplash who died Tuesday last at the home of his daughter-in-law, Mrs. Wm. C. Bailey.

Deceased who was 83 years 5 months and 6 days old was born in Somersetshire, England on the 24th of February 1824. About sixty years ago he married Miss Fanny Watson who predeceased him four years next October. Subsequent to his marriage, Mr. Bailey lived in England and worked at his trade as a blacksmith. In 1851 he came to Canada and settled in Nassagawey where he continued his trade for a time at Campbellville. In 1855 he moved to Bentinck and settled on Lot 21, Concession 5, where he remained till after his wife's death when he moved to the home of his son William C. who died last week and whose obituary notice appears in this issue.

Though he started as a farmer without experience his plodding energies and careful management helped him in the accumulation of property and he became fairly well off and leaves his family in comfortable circumstances.

He had in all a family of seven children four sons and three daughters,—George who died five years ago, Tom in Hanover, James in Wisconsin, William C. who died on the 24th of this month, Mary Hannah (Mrs. Pratt) Hamilton, Mrs. Robert Trafford, deceased, and Charlotte, (Mrs. Adlam) Toronto.

The deceased was an industrious man and a good neighbor, a Conservative in politics and a Methodist in religion. For about four months before his death he had been confined constantly to his bed and the end was not unexpected.
