C. L. GRANT

DURHAM.

DAYS OF LONG AGO.

Durham Standard March 11, 1859.

A meeting of the members of the Volunteer Fire Company met on Wednesday evening. Several names were added to the list, making in all twenty-five. Mr. John Miller was chosen captain; Messrs. T. Gray and J. Jones, first and second lieutenants; W. Boyle, treasurer, and J. M. Sutherland, secretary. The next meeting will take place at the schoolhouse on Saturday evening, the 12th inst., when the subject of the incorporation of the village will be introduced.

A Card—The subscriber returns his sincere thanks to his friends for their timely aid and exertion on the 4th inst. in preventing the further spread of fire through his premises.—J. W. Scott.

The last issue of the Owen Sound Times makes an effort to confute a statement we made in a former issue relative to the County printing; thus far his belaborings have materially strengthened our assertions, by now acknowledging we give the lowest tender. Our friend very unjustly insinuates that we cast aspersions on all the members of the printing committee, which can be proven a falsehood by reference to the article alluded to; but the object evidently is to lessen the guilt of Mr. Gale by affixing a share of the odium on the other members of the committee, or at least to show that the other members were participators in the transaction, which is not so, as will be shown at the proper time. We are too well aware of the moral integrity of Mr. Wyllie's character, to harbor such an opinion, much less express it; and from our slight knowledge of Mr. Deavitt, we hope better things; further, we are satisfied of his non-connection with the transaction. To identify either Messrs. Wyllie or Deavitt; with that of Gale, in reference to the shuffling, is extremely unjust to the character of the two former gentlemen, and serves a specimen of the shallow devices to which the Times resorts in an emergency.

Mr. Gale stands too perspicuous in the article to leave any doubt of its author, and did we not consider him too insignificantly small we might honor him with a castigation.

WEAK WOMEN READ BELOW.

One woman in three is struggling against weakness.

Are you one of the weak ones?

Not exactly sick, but oh, how miserable!

You discharge your daily duties, but who can measure the burden, the trial?

Talk of bravery, where find a finer spirit than among half-sick women, fighting, struggling to do their duty against terrible odds—and they never give up until they drop.

If you could put a drop of blood under the microscope the cause would be revealed.

You would find the blood thin and watery, red cells far too few, the carrier of life very greatly reduced in vitality and this means slow death.

Ferrozone cures weakness by fortifying both appetite and digestion, and making plenty of blood.

Ferrozone cures weakness by supplying nutriment and building material, by giving the body the constituents it requires for restoring tired organs.

It gives vim, vigor and endurance. Ferrozone is a tissue builder.

It adds force to all the vital functions—the stomach, liver, kidneys. Ferrozone gives sound sleep, sound digestion, promotes perfect removal of all body wastes.

Ferrozone makes the body glow with health.

Any weak, pale or sickly woman that Ferrozone won't cure—why she must be hopeless. Wonderful power in Ferrozone, wonderful cures it makes, and this you can prove by trying it. Sold everywhere in 50c. boxes.

VACATION PLUNDER.

I have a little chum of mine, He's summering on the farm; I let him go where'er he will, He cannot come to harm. To day he went exploring, Returning proud and glad; His pocket, hat, and shirt were full, And this is what he had

A tree toad and a dragon fly, A rusty clevis pin, Half a dozen puffballs dry, A snake's discarded skin, The tale of some poor little lamb (He lost in shearing time), A crawfish from the sawmill dam That crawfished all the time.

A groundhog's skeleton complete, A nest, a crippled crow, A worm with quite a thousand feet, A hundred bugs or so, A toad whose epidermis tough Showed many a bulging wart, A pinchin' beetle large enough To draw a little cart.

And something else—twas evidence He'd met in with a skunk. These treasures with a fervor tense He's packed into his trunk. For love in childhood's happy days Much happiness doth draw From little things; and now he says He'll send them to his Maw! The Khan.

Mark Twain on Advertising.

In addressing a banquet given by advertising men, Mark Twain, using for his text, "It pays to advertise," told the following story:

"When I was editing the 'Virginia City Enterprise,' writing copy one day and minding the next, I tried to drive this truth home in many ways. One day I received a letter from a subscriber, saying he had found a spider pressed between the pages of his paper. He wanted to know whether this signified good or bad luck. I replied to him in our 'Answer to Correspondents' columns as follows:

"Old Subscriber—The finding of a spider in your copy of the 'Enterprise' was neither good or bad luck. The spider was merely looking over our pages to find out what merchant was not advertising in them, so that it could spin its web across his door and lead a free and undisturbed existence forever after."

FOUR KILLED AT CROSSING.

Crowd of Summer Visitors Witness Terrible Accident.

Allenhurst, N. J., Aug 7.—Four persons, employees of the Norwood House, were instantly killed to-night when their carriage was run down by a Pennsylvania passenger flyer.

They were Thomas Edwards, a driver, and Loretta Grace, Jennie McDonald and Hannah Murphy, waitresses. The station platform was crowded with summer visitors, who witnessed the accident. As an excursion train drew out Edwards started his horses and the carriage was directly on the rails when the flyer came rushing along.

Horses, carriage and the occupants were ground to bits.—Toronto World.

Regained Nerve and Vital Energy.

From Wilton P. Q., Que., comes the following from Mr. Nazaire Begin—"If anyone had told me any remedy could build up my nervous system so well, I would not have believed them. Before using Ferrozone I was run down in nerve and vital energy, and in very weak health. I didn't get enough sleep at night, felt poorly in the day time. Ferrozone has filled me with energy and vim, increased my weight and made a new man of me."

Hundreds tell the same story—Weak and dispirited, everything going wrong, unable to catch up. They took Ferrozone and all was changed to health and serenity. Price 50c per box at all dealers.

The little local option town of Neepawa, Manitoba, is seething with excitement over an attempt at the revision of the voters' list to add 249 names to the list. D. Hamilton, who has been proprietor of the hotel, presented the names stating that the hotel had been sold to a stock company of 249 persons residing in Winnipeg, who, he claimed, had purchased his hotel and block of land adjoining in shares of $100 each and were entitled to vote upon it. The names were entered, but the matter will be keenly contested before Judge Ryan on Monday. The temperance people claim that the names consist principally of hotelkeepers and bartenders of Winnipeg. Citizens claim that the temperance question is but a small matter in the issue, and that if these outsiders can vote they can rule the town from Winnipeg, defeat any by-law, incur any expense, or elect any council or school board they desire. Later—The Judge gave his decision in favor of the citizens.

William Cleveland's Fall Off Trestle—Supposed Horse-thief

St. Catharines, Aug. 8.—At midnight the main line trolley was running over the long trestle when William Cleveland of Thorold was noticed by Motorman Purser to be standing against the pumping station. As the motorman quickly applied the brakes Cleveland disappeared, and upon the car being stopped was found unconscious in the mill race twelve feet below. In falling Cleveland struck his head against a sunken pile and received an ugly bruise. The car crew took the injured man on board and hurried him to the city hospital, where he is now slowly recovering.

A suspicious stranger was taken in charge by the police to-day owing to his endeavors to sell a good horse and carriage for $20. The man gave the name of Edward Honbush of Guelph, and upon promising to remain at Power Glen Hotel while the police communicated with Guelph was released. At the hotel the man was joined by a woman, and, together, they made a rapid flight.—Globe.
