Murdered Her Children.

Midale, Sask., Sept. 16.—On Saturday afternoon Mrs. John Anderson, wife of a farmer residing about a mile from Midale, on the Soo line, took her three children, all boys, to the potato patch and there knocked them on the head with a hammer, after which she cut them up in a horrible manner with a drawknife.

She had not shown any signs of insanity before, but had been ill, and it is supposed the murder was due to religious mania. She is probably thirty-five years old. The police of Weyburn were notified of what had taken place, and Constable Ing arrested the woman, who is insane.

The woman shows no remorse for what she has done and expects to be hanged. She believes it was some kind of a blood sacrifice.

Later reports give fuller particulars of the horrible tragedy. The three children murdered were a baby eighteen months old, and two boys, six and nine years old, respectively. She also made a desperate attempt to kill her eleven year-old daughter. She put a rope arc and the girl's neck, but the child struggled bravely and was assisted by a dog, which attacked the maddened mother.

Attack of Diarrhoea Cured by One Dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

I was so weak from an attack of diarrhoea that I could scarcely attend to my duties, when I took a dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It cured me entirely and I had been taking other medicine for nine days without relief.

I heartily recommend this remedy as being the best to my knowledge for bowel complaints.—K. G. STEWART, of the firm of Stewart & Bro., Greenville, Ala. For sale at Parker's Drug Store.

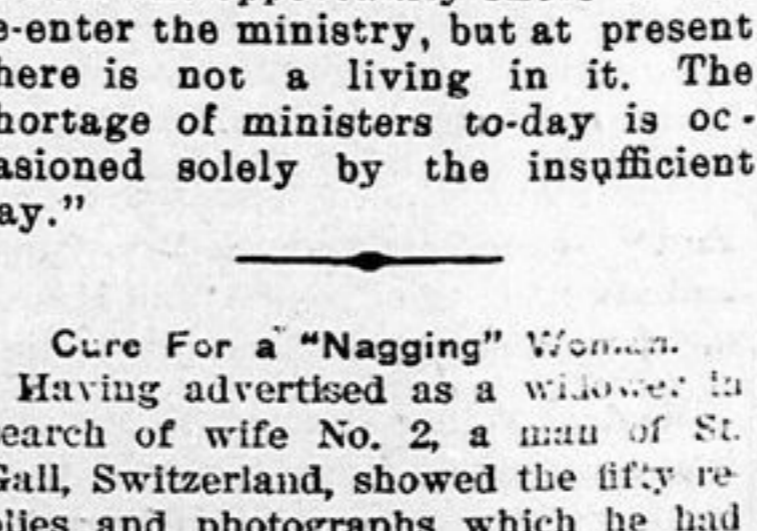

NO MONEY IN PREACHING. Pittsburg, Pa., Sept. 16.—Declaring there is more money in insuring lives than in saving souls, ministers of Pittsburg are forsaking the pulpit to engage in the life insurance business.

Within the last two years a score of Pittsburg clergymen have given up their charges for the life insurance business, and all are making more money, they say, than had they remained with their churches.

The latest Pittsburg preacher to lay aside the cloth for the life insurance business is the Rev. J. C. Carpenter, pastor of the Mount Washington Methodist Episcopal Church. He told his congregation to-day he had resigned and that his resignation had been accepted.

"I do not quit from choice, but from necessity," said Mr. Carpenter. "It is not altogether a matter of money consideration, but in consideration of the high cost of living. If ever the opportunity offers I will re-enter the ministry, but at present there is not a living in it. The shortage of ministers to-day is occasioned solely by the insufficient pay."

Cure For a "Nagging" Woman. Having advertised as a witness in search of wife No. 2, a man of St. Gall, Switzerland, showed the fifty replies and photographs which he had received to his wife, and stating that if she did not want him there were others who did, he effectively cured her of her "nagging" habits.
