EGGS AND BUTTER WANTED

ROBERT BURNETT

Flesherton

Very keenly felt bereavement came to the home of Mr and Mrs W. T. Pedlar, Collingwood Road, on Wednesday of last week, when after a very brief illness their eldest daughter, Eisie, passed away at the age of 21 years. The funeral, which was very largely attended, took place on Friday to Salem cemetery. Revs. T. Laidlaw, of Eugenia, and L. F. Kipp of this place, conducted a very impressive service. The whole community sympathizes deeply with the grief stricken family in their sorrow.

Rev. Mr. Fournier, ex Priest, who spoke in the Baptist church here on Tuesday evening of last week, was listened to with deepest interest by a good sized audience. After relating some of his experiences as a Priest in the Roman Catholic Church for eleven years and that which led to his conversion to the Protestant faith the speaker dealt most interestingly with the very successful evangelizing work being done in Quebec by the Baptist Grand Leigne mission.

Mr. Richard Bentham, near the village, and Mr. Robert Waller, west back line, have each had stone mansions for some time, who have completed fine large basements for new barns to be built next summer. Mr. John McDonald has the contract for framing both buildings.

The Bell Telephone Co.'s line men are at work here this week changing the central office to Mr. W. A. Armstrong's new block. The new office, we are informed, will be the finest on this line.

Born—At 568 Spadina avenue, Toronto, on the 9th inst., to Dr. E. W. and Mrs. Paul, a daughter.

By a chatty letter from Mr. R. N. Henderson, formerly of this place, but for some time a resident of Winnipeg and Inspector for the North of Scotland Canadian Mortgage Co. there, we learn he is doing well and enjoying the busy life of the west. We are pleased to learn that Newt, has been for some time a teetotaler and is, of course, thriving on cold water beverage. We wish him continued success. Mr. Henderson travels much throughout the entire West and receives warm hand-claps from many old friends from Ontario.

By the Neepawa (Man.) Press we learn that Mr. C. J. Leitch, formerly of this place, but for the past two years merchant tailor at Neepawa, is prospering in that local option town. Mr. Leitch has recently added to his business that of one of his rivals who had an old established business which doubtless carried with it a large share of patronage. We are pleased to learn of the prosperity of our former highly esteemed citizen.

A private letter received by your Cor. last week from Mr. W. F. Doll contained some interesting news concerning our former townsman, and we take the liberty of imparting some of it to our readers, many of whom have done business with him. Mr. Doll, who for the past few years conducted a manufacturing and wholesale jewelry business in New York, feeling the strain of overwork sold out a few months ago and has since been revelling in the comforts of his delightful country home, enjoying out door life until he says he is now "brown as an Indian and young as a colt." Mr. Doll's palatial residence, containing thirty five rooms is situated on a 300 acre farm near the town of Liberty, 100 miles from New York. On the farm there is a 35 acre lake stocked with pickerel, and a fine trout stream runs through a beautiful grove of maples and pines. At this healthful situation, 1800 feet above the sea, Mr. Doll purposes having a little city of his own where summer visitors may find the recreation and rest desired. A number of cottages and tents on the grounds have been occupied this season by visitors, among whom we learn was our old friends, Mr. D. E. Wright and family, of Bloomfield, N. J. We congratulate Mr. Doll on his success in business and the delightful country seat he now owns where he and his family may enjoy rest and comfort. Mr. D. E. Wright, formerly of this place, is, we are pleased to learn, also prospering in business in New York, and recently purchased a very fine residence in Bloomfield, where he has, with his family, been living for some years.

Rev. Mr. Hewitt, of Orangeville, supplied Dr. Caldwell's pulpit here on Sunday. Rev. Mr. Chantler, of Owen Sound, will preach next Sabbath and conduct anniversary services.

The Claims agent of the C. P. R. was here on Friday and Saturday last, and we learn effected a settlement with some in this vicinity who were injured in the recent wreck.

Mr. Thos. McQuay, of Meaford, was over with a load of fruit on Friday last which he readily disposed of afterwards visiting old friends till Saturday.

Mr. Wesley Duncan, who has been on an extended holiday at his home on the west back line, left on Monday to enter the police force at Hamilton.

Mr. Fred LeGard, of Toronto, who is holidaying with his family in this vicinity, assisted at his old chair in the barber shop here on Saturday. The proprietor, Andy Wilson, and little son are slowly recovering from their painful injuries received in the recent wreck.

Mrs. W. L. Wright, who returned home early last week, is doing nicely. Mrs. Wright was among the unfortunate ones who lost personal belongings, her purse containing a considerable sum of money disappearing. Henry Holman and Charley Bel-

The Song of the Hair

There are four verses. Verse 1. Ayer's Hair Vigor stops falling hair. Verse 2. Ayer's Hair Vigor makes the hair grow. Verse 3. Ayer's Hair Vigor cures dandruff. Verse 4. Ayer's Hair Vigor makes the scalp healthy, and keeps it so. It is a regular hair-food; this is the real secret of its wonderful success.

lady, both much injured but improving, returned from the hospital on Friday. The latter was accompanied home by his brother Emerson, who is holidaying for a few days at home.

Mrs. W. J. Stewart, who went through the wreck with slight injuries, has returned from the hospital where her sister, Mrs. Hanley, much injured, is still confined, but recovering.

Mr. M. K. Richardson and Dr. and Mrs. Caldwell are improving and expect to return home this week.

Mr. Geo. Lighthouse, of Vancouver, on his way home from a visit to Scotland, visited his uncle, Mr. Robert Skitt, near Rockvale, last week.

Mr. Dixon Wilson, of Creosote, is visiting his daughter, Mrs. Wilson McMullen, near Ceylon. Mr. Wilson and little grand daughter, Mary McMullen, returned some days ago from visiting his daughter near Montreal.

Mr. George Blackburn left some days ago to spend the harvest in Manitoba and visit relatives at Stonewall and Dauphin.

Mrs. Geo. Best visited her daughter at Owen Sound last week.

Miss Edith Knight, of the Soo, is visiting her cousin, Miss Christine Richardson, who returned last week from visiting at the Soo.

Miss Clemina Armstrong, of Toronto, is visiting her cousin, Mr. Fred Hickling.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Stewart and children, of Teeswater, are visiting relatives here.

Messrs. Robert and Harry Thistlethwaite are spending a few days with relatives at Stayner.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Stewart visited over Sunday with the latter's parents at Thorubury.

Mr. and Mrs. Cook, of Green Bay, Wisconsin, are visiting the latter's sister, Mrs. Andy Wilson.

Mr. James Carse, who spent the past few months prospecting about Port Arthur, has returned to again assist R. J. Sproule in office work.

Mrs. J. W. Henderson, who has been on an extended visit here, left for her home in Toronto on Tuesday accompanied by her sister, Miss Kate Bellamy, who will visit in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bant, of Collingwood, visited over Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Bant, here.

Sent up for Four Months

A vagrant, who says his name is John Cushion, was arrested Monday by Constable Clark while he was washing his undershirt in the creek near Dodds' mill, below Orchard. John had been tramping round the neighborhood for the past three or four weeks begging his meals and asking for work but praying not to find any. The farmers didn't like the idea of a gentleman of Mr. Cushion's cloth sleeping in their barns and asked Clark to make the arrest, which was done as above stated. On the pretext of finding him a job, Cushion immediately bundled up his soaking duds into a superannate telescope and got into the buggy with Clark, who told him he was under arrest and took him to town. He remained in the cooler over night, and on Tuesday morning appeared before Magistrate Telford, who committed him to Owen Sound jail for four months. Cushion didn't seem to be very bright but gave intelligent and apparently honest answers, admitting that he had been previously arrested "more than three times." A strap he had tied round his bundle was claimed by Richard Barber as his property, and as Cushion admitted having "taken" it from some barn it was ordered to be returned to Barber. It's a pity there are such men, but characters of this kind have always been in existence.

Another vagrant was arrested in the same vicinity by Constable Myers, of Orchardville. Mr. Tramp objected to being arrested and struck the Constable a heavy blow in the face. He appeared before Magistrate Telford here and got six months in Jail, two for vagrancy and four for assault.
