McGirr, of Durham, the former on " Woman's Place in the World" and the latter on "Children in the Home," Dr. McMurchy again spoke, her sub ject being "Twentieth century health problems" and in the course of her very practical and intensely interesting address gave a store of information on proper living which must prove beneficial to the large number of homes represented. Dr. McMurchy, who was heartily thanked for her addresses, is a fluent and easy speaker and will meet with a hearty reception should she again favor Grey County Convention. Miss Gardner, of Kemble, entertained the Convention with very pleasingly rendered solos. The ladies of Flesherton were given a hearty vote of thanks for the royal manner in which they entertained the delegttes and the newspapers in the county which had rensembled in front of the town hall. The residence of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Badgerow, near Boyd's Mill, here, was the scene of a pretty wedding on Wednesday afternoon of last week when Miss Annie Josephine Saun ders, third daughter of the late Mr. John Saunders, was joined in marriage to Mr. John Little a prosperous young farmer, of Osprey. Rev. G. C. Little, B A., of Flesherton, performed the marriage in the presence of about thirty guests. Miss Hannah Lyons played the Wedding March. The bride, who was attended by the groom's sister, Miss Mary Little, looked very pretty in a dainty gown of white silk trimmed with lace and chiffon. She also wore the conventional bridal veil with white IN er, Conveyancer, &c. Insurance roses. The bridesmaid was becom-Agent. Money to Loan.
