THANKSGIVING services will be held in Trinity church on Friday, Oct. 4th. Rev. C. Miles, B. A., R. D., of Kincardine, will preach in the evening at eight o'clock. Everybody welcome.

PROF. PEMBER, Canada's Hair King and Scalp Specialist will be at the Knapp House on Friday, Oct. 11th, one day only. Ladies or Gentlemen who are bald will do well to consult him. Remember the date Friday Oct. 11th.

ABOUT fifty joined the Methodist church on Sunday last, and it is said that a larger number will identify themselves with the Presbyterians. The Baptists will also be considerably increased in membership as a result of the Crossley and Hunter meetings.

THE Priceville Fair to-morrow, Friday, will be the last of the season in this locality. It seems at time of writing that the weather will be favorable, and if so they are almost sure to have a good attendance.

CAPT. SCOTT of the Salvation Army, Palmerston, will lecture in the Town Hall, on Tuesday evening, Oct. 8th, at 8 o'clock. Subject, "Scenes in Prison Life," being a description of the prison work of the S. A. Silver collection will be taken at this service. All welcome. Special songs for the occasion.

We are in receipt of a letter from Dr. A. V. Park, of Cochrane, Alberta, enclosing renewal subscription and a kind word in appreciation of the weekly visits of the Chronicle. He says "crops there have suffered badly from frost, but the people are not discouraged as they expect such things once in a while."

MR. THOS. GRAY, a well-known resident of this town many years ago is visiting friends in the vicinity of Varney at present. His present home is somewhere in the States, but we know not where. He came unawares, and before making himself known, he purchased the old homestead for the sum of $5000. The deal was closed so easily that the present owner felt sorry at not having asked more money. It was a huge joke for Tom, but the deed hasn't yet been executed. It is said to be 35 years since Mr. Gray left here, and no one knew him when he returned. Of course he didn't buy it.

AFTER a painful illness from cancer Mr. John McArthur, of Aberdeen, was relieved from his suffering by death on Wednesday morning. The awful character of such a dreadful disease, and the usual manner in which it eats its way leads one almost to rejoice that his troubles are at an end, though the family and bereaved ones have our sincere sympathy in their affliction. From our earliest boyhood we have always had a horror of cancer, and when it reaches the incurable stage it seems a relief to learn that the patient's trials have been brought to an end. We assure our readers it is through no unkind spirit that we write thus. The deceased was fifty-four years of age and seemed to us to be a man of kindly disposition, but we knew very little of him personally. We shall give an obituary next week if some of the friends will be kind enough to furnish a few particulars.

A COUPLE of weeks ago we informed our readers that Mrs. Beggs had gone to Merlin, County of Kent, to see her aged father who was seriously ill and not expected to recover. At the same time two of her brothers went there on the same mission, but they left shortly after when the old gentleman showed signs of improvement, since then one of the brothers died, and Mrs. Beggs mother became ill and required the attention of her daughter. Now as a climax to her great trouble, Mrs. Beggs is called home to wait on one of her daughters who has been taken down with typhoid. Surely Mrs. Beggs has to bear an overflowing cup of sorrow. Her first husband died of pneumonia a number of years ago; her second husband, Mr. Beggs died from a similar cause, and about three years ago she lost a son just growing into manhood and now she is again called upon to endure another measure of sorrow. Her troubles have been many, but we hope that everything may now go smoothly.

THERE was a large number of Durhams in attendance at the Holstein Fair on Tuesday last. The Durham Band was also present.

J. A. Jamieson, of Minneapolis, Minn. is visiting his parents at the Methodist Parsonage for a few days this week.

MEMBERS of Durham Lodge are requested to be present on Tuesday evening Oct. 15th at the visit of the District Deputy, Mr. John Rutherford, of Owen Sound.

HARVEST HOME Supper will be served in the S. S. Room, of the Methodist Church, on Monday evening Oct. 7th from 7 o'clock sharp. Admission 25c. A good program provided.

HARVEST HOME Anniversary Services will be held in the Methodist Church on next Sabbath morning and evening. The church will be decorated with grain, flowers etc. Sermons suitable to the occasion will be preached by the pastor.

THE Tiverton Watchman, Archie McDougall's paper had a narrow escape from fire last week. That will give Archie some idea of the responsibilities and anxieties of an owner of a newspaper. It's different from working in another shop. We hope you will always escape as well as you did the last time Archie.

A LARGE plate glass in front of Keelers' Jewellery Store was broken a few nights ago, evidently by a stone thrown carelessly. One of those large plates cost forty or fifty dollars or more, and strict measures should be adopted to prevent such destruction. Mr. Morlock has just replaced a similar plate that was broken only a short time ago.

ONE of the most contemptible mortals on earth is the man who writes an anonymous letter and sends it through the post to express dislike or hatred. When you have anything to say about a person you will be a thousand times more respected to tell it to him right out. You may be laboring under a false impression which can be righted more easily and more surely by a face to face discussion. The other fellow will have more respect for you, and if you have any sense left you will have more respect for yourself. If you haven't the courage to come out like a man chase yourself off into some back field and hide yourself from civilization.

A SAD affliction has fallen upon Mr. Alex. McDonald of this town in the loss of his little daughter, Martha, who died on Friday night last, at the age of eight years, nine months and twenty-eight days. It is only a few months since the little girl was bereft of her mother and since then she has been living with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. McClocklin. She was only ill a couple of days from something of the nature of paralysis. The father who was engaged on the railway as an engineer near Priceville started home on Friday night as soon as he heard of the child's illness only to find on arrival here that his dear little daughter had closed her eyes in death. The funeral was arranged for Sunday afternoon, but subsequently postponed till Monday to await the arrival of a brother from Flint, Michigan. We all have our troubles some time, but some seem to get more than their share.

Mr. Midford, who has been in town and vicinity for a little over a year, left for Toronto on Wednesday afternoon in company with his friend, Mr. Thos. Hislop, who spent a few days in town combining business and pleasure. During Mr. Midford's stay here he conducted himself in a very becoming manner, and he leaves with kindly feelings of his intimate associates as well as pleasant recollections of those who enjoyed his fine musical ability. We understand he is about to enter the employ of a new smelting concern to be soon put in operation at Sturgeon Falls. We wish him success and trust he may make himself so useful that the business can not afford to do without him. He is only a boy yet, but will develop into a good man some day. We are not aware that he has any bad habits, and hope he will not contract any after leaving our fatherly care.

The World's Fair

Egremont Agricultural Society Score Another Victory.

Fair Weather and a Large Crowd.

The World's Fair at Holstein was held on Tuesday last, and the elements were all that could be desired. Like all its predecessors the fair was honored with a large attendance and a fine class of exhibits. In horses and cattle and sheep the residents of Egremont take an interest always. This year was no exception to the general rule, and the many exhibitors brought out the very best of the year's productions.

The ladies have still an interest in ladies' work, and the big exhibit for a country fair speaks well for the fair sex, who are evidently experts in fancy work and cooking. The floral exhibit was good indeed for a country show, and a purely agricultural affair at that. This is one of the few township shows where an effort has always been made to have an agricultural exhibition along agricultural lines only. The attendance is always good though no special racing events or other attractions have ever been engaged in.

In years gone by there used to be some boisterous times in the afternoon, evening and night of fair day, but Holstein is now a local option village, which may to a large extent account for the quietness of the annual fair day. However it may be in other places the "dry" character of the town does not seem to have the effect of keeping the crowd at home. The hungry crowds were served at the Hotel where good clean hot meals were served up by Mr. O'Neill, his estimable helpmate and his courteous assistants, and in addition to this the churches as usual served refreshments on their own premises. No one had any need to go hungry where everything was served up so plentifully and at a very nominal charge.

The directors and society officers were extremely courteous in the discharge of their duties, and distinguished visitors to the Fair, such as the judges and newspaper editors, were well looked after. Being located as it is, Holstein is always well attended by representatives of the press from Mt. Forest, Ayton and Durham.

The fair coming so soon before press days gives us a poor chance to furnish many points of information that would be of interest to many, but we'll do the best we can.
