WE regret to learn that Mrs. Joseph Firth is seriously ill and grave doubts are entertained as to her chances for recovery.

JUST arrived at "The House of Quality" the prettiest silk waists ever shown in town. We will be pleased to show them to you.—H. H. Mockler.

THE Sunny South Show of twenty-five colored people is coming on Monday evening next. They have painted the town red with their lithographs.

THE South Grey Teachers will hold their convention here on Thursday and Friday next, Oct. 17th and 18th. What's the matter with the Secretary that he hasn't sent us a program? Every teacher in the Inspectorate should be present.

THE large number of capital letters required for prize lists and school reports have exhausted our supply of some and we are obliged to use small ones instead. This will give our newspaper critic a happy chance to make corrections.

MR. JOHN CLARK, auctioneer for the County of Grey, has decided to leave the fixing of all sale dates to this office. This does not interfere with sale bills being printed elsewhere, but before making arrangements we must invariably be consulted. The object is to avoid conflict of dates.

A BALLOON was operated in England on Saturday being under proper control from Farnborough to London, a distance of thirty-five miles and back again. It did considerable manoeuvring over London where it was watched with interest by thousands of spectators. It was better than the air ship advertised for Toronto Exhibition.

THE Band has arranged with the celebrated Firth Co. for an entertainment here on Saturday evening the 19th inst. These people hold a high position among the travelling show men and as they have been here before they need no special introduction. We bespeak for the Band a bumper house. Remember the date, Saturday evening October 19th.

THE anniversary services of the Methodist Church, Varney, will be held Sunday, October 20th, at 10.30 a. m. and 7 p. m. A supper and entertainment will be provided Monday evening. The Durham Methodist choir will assist the local talent with the program, which will be seasoned with good addresses. Everybody come and have a good time.

On Wednesday of last week our esteemed townsman, Mr. R. MacFarlane entered the band of benedict when he united heart and hand with Miss Annie L. MacMillan, of Antigonish, Nova Scotia, at the residence of the bride's mother. Mr. MacFarlane did not advise us before going but we presume it was a pure oversight on his part, and to show that we entertain no hard feelings on this account we extend to him and the happy bride our heartiest congratulations for a prosperous and happy future. We have no particulars to hand more than the mere announcement of his marriage, and we are therefore, unable to give as full an account as we might otherwise desire. Mr. MacFarlane is a man of sterling qualities, good business ability, and in good circumstances financially. The lady of his choice is a stranger to us and we believe to this town. Mr. and Mrs. MacFarlane were in Toronto when last we heard of them, but before coming home they intend going to the Pacific coast. From Antigonish in the extreme east to Vancouver in the extreme west of our fair Dominion is a delightful honeymoon trip which we trust Mr. and Mrs. MacFarlane will fully enjoy.

WE must congratulate Mr. and Mrs. Robert Burnett on the arrival of a girl. They have one of each kind now.

THE Orangeville Woollen Mills were destroyed by fire on Friday last, loss $12,000, insurance $6,000. Will be rebuilt.

WE invite you to inspect our stock of new fall dress goods, also our mantles, which are of the newest styles and shades.—H. H. Mockler, "The House of Quality."

C. J. WESTERN, Eye Specialist, of Toronto, intends visiting Durham once a month and will make Darlings' Drug Store his headquarters for examination of eyes and fitting of glasses. Look out for his ad.

WE saw hay sold here this week at $19.00 a ton. That's nearly a cent a pound. Think of it, and see if it wouldn't pay better to sell a horse than keep him for an ornament till he eats his head off. Only the rich can afford such a luxury.

THE Town Hall at Meaford was burned last Saturday morning. It was about fifty years old, was not considered safe and condemned last week by the Government Inspector. No alarm could be given as the bell rope was burned about the first. It was insured for $1,500.

UNDER the auspices of South Grey Teacher's Association, Mr. J. H. Cameron and Miss Mabel Manly Pickard will give a concert in the town hall on Thursday evening, the 17th inst. Mr. Cameron is the most versatile of entertainers, while Miss Pickard is a very accomplished soprano singer. Plan of hall at Darlings' Drug Store. Tickets 25c. Reserved seats 35c.

A REPORT from Mr. C. Firth, secretary of the South Grey Agricultural Society, states that some person carried away a valuable lace handkerchief from the Agricultural Hall on Fair Day either by mistake or otherwise, and the person having done so is asked to return the same to Mrs. McClinton, Varney, or to leave it at this office. We understand that other valuable pieces of lacework are missing also.

HARVEST HOME SERVICE.

On Monday night a Harvest Home supper was served in the basement of the Methodist church. Notwithstanding the very unfavorable nature of the afternoon and evening there was a good attendance, and all present seemed to enjoy themselves very nicely. An abundance of good things were furnished by the ladies, and participants in the festivities rejoiced in good things to eat and good appetites to eat them. This should be regarded as a real source of Thanksgiving, and no doubt many of them felt that way. After eight o'clock all repaired to the body of the church where a short program was rendered consisting of solos, choruses, vocal and instrumental selections and a number of short addresses.

The choir was in good form and seemed to outdo themselves in the spirited rendering of a number of choruses. Messrs. Davison, McCrae and Glass gave a much appreciated rendering of "Steal Away to Jesus." Mrs. Newton favored the audience with a solo in her usual style, and Mr. Yiirs gave a masterly exhibition of his skill on the violin to an accompaniment by the organist Miss Rita Irwin.

Short addresses were sandwiched in by Rev. Rogers, of Varney, Rev. Newton and the pastor, of Durham, and Mr. Chas. Ramage, Editor of the Review.

Thanksgiving sermons were preached on Sunday by Rev. Jameson, for which occasion the church was tastefully decorated with grains and fruits. The services were a social and financial success.

Mr. Joseph Gamey, father of Mr. R. R. Gamey, M. P. P., died suddenly at his home in Gore Bay at 11.30 on Saturday night. Mr. Gamey had called several times during the day at his son's store, and went to bed at about 11 o'clock, apparently in good health. Half an hour later his wife heard him breathe heavily. Before a physician arrived he had expired.

Mr. Gamey had been for 30 years a resident of Manitoulin Island, where he was for a long time a farmer. He was about seventy years of age. Last year he and his wife celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of their marriage. He is survived by Mrs. Gamey, four sons and four daughters. EVIDENTLY A FAKE.

We warn our readers against a trap into which some of them may be led. What seems to be a fake letter comes from New York, from a supposed Attorney at Law announcing that certain shares of C. P. R. stock have been left by a relative of that city, now deceased, and that said stock will be handed over on payment of a fee of $5. We give a copy of letter received by Mr. Thomas Smith of this town which will explain matters.

It is headed Leonard B. Drummond, Attorney at Law, 608 Sixth Avenue, New York, U. S. A., and dated Sept. 28th, 1907. The body of the letter reads as follows:

MR. THOMAS SMITH: DEAR SIR,—In accordance with the will of the late Mr. J. Smith, I beg to announce that I have in my care five shares of Canadian Pacific R. R. stock, value $800.00.

These shares were left to you by the late Mr. J. Smith, of this city, at his decease.

The forementioned shares are to be forwarded to you on receipt of my fee of $5.00 as counsel in this matter.

Hoping that I may be of assistance to you at some future time, I am Respectfully yours

(Sd.) L. B. DRUMMOND.

On receipt of the above letter Mr. Smith, the postmaster here, wrote to Mr. Henderson, Post Office Inspector, and received the following reply dated at Toronto, Oct. 7, 1907.

J. J. SMITH, Esq., DURHAM, ONT.,

DEAR SIR,—In reply to your letter of the 4th instant re enclosed letter from L. B. Drummond, I beg to state that the operations of this man have been reported to the Department at Ottawa and enquiries are now being made as to the bona fides of the same. It certainly has all the appearance of being a fake and I think you for bringing the matter to my attention.

Yours truly, J. HENDERSON.

Mr. John A. Darling received a similar letter about another five shares that were left to him by a deceased relative. We understand that others had relatives die recently making similar bequests. Our readers are warned to have nothing to do with such a fake proposition, as we are firmly convinced that the payment of the fee will be the last of it. The letters were posted at Montreal.
