WE TELL NO LIES

About selling below cost and other such nonsense. What we say, we do, and we believe we are giving as good value for the money as in any house in town.

What we do

In Blankets, Tweeds, underwear, Prints, Cottons, Flannels Flannellettes, and groceries of all kinds is to sell at a very low margin of profit for cash or trade.

At Actual Cost

Saturday next commencing at noon we will continue to sell at cost our stock of Men's and Boy's Pants and Overalls. This is positively the last opportunity to get such bargains. Come and get a snap Saturday afternoon.

Varney.
(Received too late for last week.)
Miss Eva Burnett, of your town, spent a few days visiting her cousin, Eva Blyth, since we last wrote.
Miss Irene Trotter, from Toronto, is visiting with her aunt, Mrs. Zenus Clark, for a few weeks.
Billy Linnell says that if the Corner Gander doesn't keep his tongue off him he will get the feathers plucked out of him before Xmas. Say, wont the feathers fly if Billy gets a hold of the Gander.
There has been a large acreage of wheat put in this fall because it turned out so good this year.
A large number from around here attended the re-opening of Knox church a week ago last Sunday and had a splendid time.
Mr. David McCrie, who has been in the West nearly all summer, returned home since our last budget, looking as if the trip agreed with him. We hear that he prefers living in this country to that of the West.
Miss Edith Allen, teacher from Gowantown, spent from Friday night until Monday morning week before last with her friends in Varney.
Mrs. Quentin Pettigrew and her daughter Lizzie, left for the West a week ago Tuesday morning to spend two or three months with the former's sons and daughters. We wish them a pleasant visit and a safe return.
Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Long, on Thursday, the 26th, a son still born.
There has been a good bit of moving in Varney last week and this. Alf McCabe moved out of the old hotel into his own house and George Pollock and family moved into the house that McCabe vacated. We welcome Mr. and Mrs. Pollock and family to our hamlet. And then on Monday last Mrs. Wm. Crawford moved the last of her household effects from Varney to Durham. We can assure her the good wishes of the people of Varney go with her to her new home.
Those who attended the Epworth League Convention held in Mount Forest last week from Varney League were as follows: Rev. Mr. Rogers, Mrs. Robt. Pettigrew, Mrs. R. J. Allen, Mrs. Wm Morrison, Mrs. Con. Creller, Misses Lena Allen, Nellie McAnulty, Eva Blyth, Winnie Lander, Maggie McCalmon and J. W. Blyth. They all had a pleasant and profitable time. They gave the Mt. Forest people great praise for their hospitality.
The people of the Varney Methodist Church will have a meeting on Thursday night to make arrangements for their anniversary. Look out for the date farther on.
Mr. Clark took charge of the League services on Sunday night. He spoke from the command "Go ye into all the world and preach the Gospel to every creature." He did well was the expression of many.
Rev. Mr. Rogers was down to Orchard Harvest Home Anniversary on Monday night and took part in the program.
There was a good many from around here took in the World's Fair in Holstein on Tuesday. It is a great show, you bet.

Top Cliff.
Rainy weather generally during the last few weeks. Shows are pretty near all over now, and we expect the weather to be finer for some time yet. Priceville Exhibition on Friday last was quite a success, as the Editor can tell without us making any further comment. The concert at night was also quite a success; lots of people there and some had to be turned away on account of no room.
Threshing is pretty well done on this line. The yield is fair according to the quality of straw, but below the average. Fall wheat looks good. Arch. McCraig has twelve acres which looks fine, and if it will come out as good looking next spring he may look for an abundant yield.
Railroading is getting pretty well cornered up, a few more weeks will finish the main part of the work. The engine and a number of box and flat cars come down as far as Tom Nichol's west of Priceville. A large number are boarding at Mrs. Butters' Priceville.
Not much done by way of fall plowing yet, but we saw Abraham Hooper with a gang of three teams plowing, and will soon get over his farm of some three hundred acres.
John McLeod has been under the weather during the past week, but we hope to see him around, able to attend his business again as usual.
Monday morning, the 7th October, has a fine appearance and good, dry weather would be very acceptable to take up the potatoes.
Gaelic communion held in the Presbyterian church, Priceville, last Sunday. The old language is dying away with the old people. The venerable John Campbell of Swinton Park comes regularly every month in spite of his ninety years, and comes seven miles. The old gentleman is hale and hearty yet; he never knew a day's sickness in these long years, he is blessed with health. All his teeth are yet as firm as ever and he looks more like a man of 50 or 60 than four score and ten.
We are pleased to see Mr. Brander home again after his severe experience of the horse shoe wreck. He is pretty frail looking yet but is going about.
The Rev. Mr. Berry of the Methodist church, preached for Rev. Mr. Matheson in the Presbyterian church last Sunday night and Mr. Matheson took Mr. Berry's pulpit at Bethel, Proton.
Miss McCosh, teacher, of Top Cliff school, tenders her resignation as she has secured a school near her home at Owen Sound. Pupils and parents feel sorry that Miss McCosh is leaving. She made a favorable impression on both during the year.
Died, at her residence on Monday evening the 30th September Margaret Black, beloved wife of John McPhail, of south Glenelg, at the age of 80 years. Mrs. McPhail was one of the pioneers of Glenelg, being a resident for fifty-seven years. She lived fifty-three years on the farm where she ended her life. Mrs. McPhail leaves an aged husband, six daughters and two sons and one sister, Mrs. McDonald, of Walkerton, to mourn her loss. In religion she was Presbyterian. Rev. Mr. Matheson conducted the funeral obsequies. The funeral to Priceville cemetery on Wednesday, Oct. 2nd, was largely attended.

Quinsy, Sprains and Swellings Cured
In November, 1901, I caught cold and had the quinsy. My throat was swollen so I could hardly breathe. I applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm and it gave me relief in a short time. In two days I was all right," says Mrs. L. Cousins, Otterburn, Mich. Chamberlain's Pain Balm is a liniment and is especially valuable for sprains and swellings. For sale at Parker's Drug Store.

J. C. Rockwell's Sunny South Co
When "The Sunny South" Company comes to the Town Hall, Durham, Monday evening, Oct. 14th, local amusement seekers will have an opportunity to judge for themselves just what a high-class colored organization really is. This troupe is one of the most remarkable of its kind. It is thoroughly up to date and original, which is a broad assertion to make in view of the fact that this is a progressive theatrical era. James Turner, one of the highest salaried colored performers on the stage is at the head of this sterling company. It is acknowledged that although there are musical comedies without number on the road, that there are very few that have enjoyed the unprecedented success that this one has, nothing better in the line of musical comedy has ever been presented, and certainly nothing has a stronger hold on the public fancy. The high-class silver cornet band which accompanies the organization will head the "Coon" town parade at noon. Seats are now on sale at McFarlane's Drug Store. Prices 25, 35 and 50 cents.

D & A CORSETS

STORY TOLD ALL IN ESSES.
Alliterative Composition That Won Prize of Fifty Dollars.
The Glasgow Weekly Record recently awarded a prize of ten pounds to the author of the following story in alliteration:
Simeon Sykes, silver seller, strayed slowly southward, steadily seeking satisfactory sales, soberly sauntered swinging satchel, systematically showing solid silver spoons, sugar shovels, small sized saivers, superior spectacles, scissors, sewing shields. Somber skies sent soft showers, soaking Simeon's satchel, shoes, stockings shirt, skin.
Suddenly something seemed softly saying:
"Sweet Sally Slater Simeon soon shall see."
So Simeon straightway strode stupendous strides seeking Sally's sunny shelter.
Simeon soon saw sundry stately svcmores spacious shelter; soiled Sally, sitting solus sewing silk stockinette, slyly snuffing sweet scented Scotch snuff. Sudden surprise seized Sally's soul, seeing Simeon's swift strides; Sally's sanctity soon sked added shamefully.
She, somewhat sensitive suspiciously started, suddenly spilled some snuff, soiled stockinette, stammered, stutted, said "S-seat, s sir."
Simeon shivered, shook, said, "Smart shower"
Sally said, "Slightly so."
Simeon's shins seemed sore; so Sally sought some soothing salve (Sawyer's) supplied some soft soled slippers.
Square shouldered, slab sided, spirde shanked Simeon seemed satisfied.
Sally said: "Sold some silver since Sunday, Simeon?"
Simeon scolded savagely.
Sally suggested supper.
"Sartin, Sally!" said Simeon: "something sufficiently strengthening. Some strong stimulant."
So Sally sent some sausage, sirloin steak, savoury stew, some soothin-sangaree.
Simeon's stomach seemed satisfied; so Simeon smoked several "Spanish segars," stupefied, soon slept, snored sonorously.
Sally, sitting, solemnly stitching stockinette, suddenly sneezed! Simeon started—seemed scared—suspiciously surveyed surrounding space, shutters shaded; seamed secure.
Sally stopped sewing, said she saw something slyly sneaking, stealing Simeon's silver.
Simeon, slightly susceptible, seemed suddenly smitten, sought Sally's side, sacrilegiously surrounded sanctimonious Sally Slater's smooth symmetry. Simeon said: "Sweet, est, surely such solitary souls should sympathize"
Sally stopped Simeon.
Simeon seemed snubbed.
She seemed sorry, showed some softening symptoms, supinely sought Simeon's sturdy shoulder, sh! sh! sh! Sim smacked Sally! So straightway surrendering she smacked Sim!
Simeon said: "Set some suitable season." Sally said "September." Simeon shrugged Sim's shoulder, said: "Sooner! Surely Scripture sanctions such strong sympathy; say Sunday."
So Sally succumbed.
Seven supernal seasons softly, silently slipped somewhere. Seven small seasons sprung, successively, shedding sunshine, singing, shouting seldom sick, squalling sometimes, still sweetening Sally's solitude. So, succeeding summers serenely spent, Simeon's seven stalwart sons seized soldiers' awards.
Simeon still sells silver, supplying substantial substances.
