LEARN DRESSMAKING BY MAIL

In Your Spare Time at Home, Or Take a Personal Course at School.

To enable all to learn, we teach on cash or installment plan. We also teach a personal class at school once a month—class commencing last Tuesday of each month. These lessons teach how to cut, fit and put together any garment, from the plainest shirt waist suit to the most elaborate dress. The whole family can learn from one course. We have taught over 7,000 dress-makers and guarantee to give $500 to anyone who cannot learn between the ages of 14 and 40. You cannot learn dressmaking as thoroughly as this course teaches it if you work in shops for years. Beware of imitations, as we employ no one outside the school. This is the only one in Dress Cutting School in Canada, and excelled by none in any other country. Write at once for particulars, as we have cut our rate one-third for a short time. Address

Destruction by Second Fire.

(Meaford Mirror.)

On Monday night a rough-cast house occupied by Mr. A. E. Cowl, on the north western outskirts of the town, was completely demolished by fire at about nine o'clock.

It is thought that the fire originated some place around the chimney and was not discovered till it had gained considerable headway. Mr. Cowl was, at the time, busy waiting upon his wife, who had not been up since the birth of their few days' old child, and when he discovered the flames, fled with his wife in his arms and his children following across a large field to the home of Mr. Wm. Johnston. By the time he had returned to the house it was so far gone that he was only able to rescue a box of tools and one or two other minor articles.

Neighbors, who are scarce in that section of the town, gathered around to lend assistance, and Master Frank Mitchell, who was on his way in from Centreville, hurried to the public school and rang the temporary fire alarm, which brought the townsfolk out in the cold drizzling rain by the hundreds, but there was little could be done, as the house was practically destroyed by the time the alarm was given. A number of willing workers, however, succeeded in pulling down a woodshed which connected the house with the stable and thus prevented the flames from spreading till the fireman ran a string of hose across a number of fields and back yards, and prevented further danger.

The house was owned by Mr. John York and was insured for $400 in the Owen Sound Company, while Mr. Cowl had about $300 insurance on the contents.

Mrs. Cowl, who was on Tuesday removed to the home of her husband's brother in Kent, is little the worse for her hasty and untimely removal, which is greatly to be wondered at, when one considers the inclemency of the weather on Monday night.

Varney.

Maggie McCrie arrived home a week ago Saturday night after spending a couple of weeks very pleasantly visiting her uncle in Sarnia.

Oscar Best, from Palmerston, visited his aunt, Mrs R. J. Allen, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Leeson were 50 years married on Sunday 6th and celebrated their golden wedding on Monday the 7th at their son Mansfield's, when all their children were present excepting Frank, who lives at Rainy River. We wish Mr. and Mrs. Leeson may yet be spared for many years to enjoy life together.

Rev. and Mrs. Charles Leeson and daughter, from Indiana, visited for a week with friends around Varney and Mt. Forest. He preached to a large congregation in the Varney church a week ago Sunday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Leeson and their son and daughter, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Leeson visited around Varney and Mt. Forest with friends for a week.

Miss Andrew, of New York, was present at the golden wedding and visited for a week with her cousins, the Leesons.

Miss Grant, a professional nurse from Albany, was also present at the golden wedding and remained for a week visiting Varney and Mt. Forest friends.

We were sorry to hear of Mrs. Thos. Allen being so very sick, but we are glad to report that she is some better and hope that she will still improve until she is in good health again.

Mrs. Wilder and her youngest son, who were present at her father and mother's golden wedding, we hear intend to remain for some time before returning to their home in Indiana. Mrs. Wilder was formerly Miss Edith Leeson.

Rev. Mr. Rogers drove to Holstein, Hanover and Walkerton last week making arrangements for the anniversaries at Varney and Ebenezer.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Blyth visited friends in Dundalk a few days last week and took in the show in that place.

The trustees have engaged Miss Edith Allen as teacher for 1908.

The Rev. Mr. McLachlin, from Hanover, will preach the anniversary sermons on Sunday next at 10.30 a. m. and 7 o'clock p. m. Be sure and come to hear him.

Rev. Mr. Rogers will take charge of Rev. Mr. McLachlin's work on Sunday next, morning and evening.

Mansfield Leeson and family Sunday with his father and mother in Mt. Forest.

Inspector Campbell paid his official visit to our school on Wednesday, the 9th, and reports the school in first class shape.

Mr. and Mrs. McClinton visited Mrs. McClinton's parents in Mt. Forest on Sunday last.

The Varney post office has changed hands. Mr. Geo. Pollock is now the postmaster and the old hotel the post office. We wish the new official success in his undertaking.

I don't know anything that would be more appreciated just now than a little dry weather to let us get our potatoes up.

Be sure and don't forget the great treat that will be on hand for all those who are present on Sunday and Monday in Varney. Good sermons on Sunday and big supper and program on Monday. Come one, come all.

The Women's Institute meeting held at Mr. Z. Clark's on the 3rd was a grand success as about 40 were present and a profitable time spent. A paper on The best books to read by Mrs. D. McCrie, also one on How to prepare the Thanksgiving dinner by Mrs. Chas. Gray, Sr., and another on The duties of girls in the home by Mrs. Wm. Morrison. The papers were all well discussed. After luncheon they all returned to their homes saying that they had a good time.

Miss Ethel Morrison left on the 3rd to take charge of a school at Sleeman, in the Rainy River district. We wish her the best of success.

Quite a number from around here attended the funeral of Mr. Riley which took place in Maplewood cemetery on Sunday last. We extend heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved friends, and commend them to Him who can bind up the broken hearts and heal the wounded spirits.

Corner Concerns.

Most of the threshing is done around here now and many very much disappointed farmers in not having as good a yield as they expected. The few that are left intend getting Dave Smith's cutting thrasher to put the straw in good shape for feeding.

Mr. and Mrs. George Pollock have moved from our midst to the Crawford House, Varney, where they will keep the post office. Mrs. Long, the present Post Mrs., is forced to retire through illness.

Mr. Zenas Clark knows as much about threshing machines and mills as the average mortal man, and can guard his tongue and temper with all those spiritually inclined, and he had trying experiences last week. It would make most threshers cuss a little to have a horse balk on a busy move at noon hour, but to cause an upset of the engine over a bank upon a large stone breaking the driving apparatus to scrap iron was certainly provoking, and when he reached home to prepare to go to the Mt. Forest foundry he found the chopping mill had also quit work, but he had both going as usual next morning by seven o'clock. He has threshed out nearly every barn within a distance of nine miles.

Mr. Jas. Gordon has veneered his dwelling house with rustic siding adding to its appearance as well as making it more cosy.

The S. S. concert committee have added to the home talent the services of Revs. Bice, Rogers, Kendall and Janieson, also Dr. Brown, for Friday night, Oct. 25th

We hear reports of other weddings having occurred in our division last week but are not certain enough to chronicle them. We would prefer to let such matter become somewhat stale rather than report too prematurely, but quiet weddings without notice to the neighbors are customary this fall.

Mr. Sam Chapman returned home from Regina on Saturday looking strong and hearty. Although he liked the place fairly well he says Ontario is good enough for him as he has a good farm here with comfortable home.

We notice by last week's Varney news that Billy Linnel had taken the compliment we gave him in a wrong way. Now that he has gone into business he will have to get used to newspaper puff just as he is getting used to shoeing cross horses, although he was scared of his very life of horses that look'd cross before he started.

The Rev. Longford, of Brussels, comes the nearest filling Rev. Bice's place in the pulpit of any man that comes to the schoolhouse. He was here a week ago Sunday.

The Rev. Bice preached a vigorous temperance sermon on Sunday.

We extend the best wishes of all in this part to Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Black, for such they will be before this item appears in print. The happy event takes place on Tuesday in the Methodist church, Durham. As the marriage belongs to your town we leave it for you Mr. Editor to report, but the groom has been an esteemed young man of this part.

The new church is nearing completion. The furnace is being put in this week, and C. Elvidge has the contract of painting, which means speedy work and a good job. In all probability it will be opened by Bishop Williams on Nov. 17th or 24th but further notice will be given. Such an event will not be allowed to slip through without proper notice.

Miss Bella Grierson, of Mt. Forest, visited friends in this part at the beginning of the week. She has the appearance of being in very pleasant surroundings.

It's an old saying that experience teaches, and it seems to give knowledge of how to do a job up quietly when it is a case of matrimony. The marriage last Friday night of Mr. Frank G. Asby and Mrs. Elizabeth Crittenden was a great surprise to us all and caused a thrill of sensation to run through the neighborhood not but what they are both in every way eligible for matrimony and carry the very best wishes of everybody for a happy life, but simply there had been no straws blowing to show how the wind was. Both had been very guarded not to use any love terms of the other in public, and none of those sweet little come and kiss me looks that most couples contemplating matrimony seem so powerless to suppress was ever seen to flicker across their countenances. The very best of good wishes go with them to their home on Mr. Grasby's farm, which he vacated last spring owing to the lonely life of batching. All those who intended giving the esteemed little widow a load of wood to help her through the winter would now do well to give the price of it in some nice present to the happy bride.

Our school teacher Miss Clara Al-joe, has been re engaged for 1908 at a salary of $400.

Mr. Jas. Ritchie is brick veneering Joe Lennox's kitchen.

Mr. Jas. Finnigan has leased Mrs. Dennett's farm for a couple of years.
