ALL DRUGGISTS: 50c. AND $1.00.

WE TELL NO LIES

About selling below cost and other such nonsense. What we say, we do, and we believe we are giving as good value for the money as in any house in town.

What we do

In Blankets, Tweeds, underwear, Prints, Cottons, Flannels, Flannelettes, and groceries of all kinds is to sell at a very low margin of profit for cash or trade.

Look! Look!

Saturday next commencing at noon we will continue to sell Prints and Shirting at great reductions dont miss this opportunity.

Varney.

The Anniversary of the Varney church was a great success. The sermons on Sunday were grand, and supper and program on Monday were also good and well patronized. There was also a social on Tuesday night to eat up the fragments. The proceeds, all told, amounted to the neat little sum of $52.

Mrs. Fred Leeson and Mrs. Wilder and her little son left Varney on the 22nd for Mt. Forest, where they were to remain until Friday, the 25th, when they would proceed to their homes in Chicago and Indiana.

Mrs. J. M. Hunter presented the Varney L. O. L. with ten more fine pictures for their hall. These with the ones she gave before make the hall look fine. The members, on hearing that Mrs. Hunter was going to leave for the west on the 23rd, gathered together as many as possible with their wives and had Mrs. Hunter and her daughter, Mrs. Smith, from Brandon, down at their hall where they spent a very pleasant evening together, and after partaking of some refreshments the Master, in behalf of the brethren of 689, thanked Mrs. Hunter for her very great kindness to our Lodge and expressed their best wishes for her future welfare, and after singing God be With you till we Meet Again a most enjoyable meeting broke up.

A good number from around here attended the entertainment in Allan's school on Friday night, and had a pleasant time. The Rev. Mr. Rogers took part in the program.

Miss A. McKenzie visited one night last week at J. W. Blyth's.

Rev. Rogers took the Rev. Mr. Jamieson's work on Sunday, and preached at Zion in the afternoon and at Durham at night.

Thos. Renwick visited around Varney on Sunday last. Tom is fireman on the G. T. R. now.

Threshing is about all wound up in this section, and the taking up of roots is the order of the day now. The crop is not a very large one this year.

The Rev. Mr. Rogers held a reception service on Sunday last, when five new members united with the church.

Thos. Gray's new house is getting along fine. The brick work is completed. It was done by the Ritchie Bros., who are hustlers. The carpenters are at work, and it looks as if it would be ready for living in by the time the winter sets in. It will be a fine little home for some fine girl. Who will it be?

Miss Ella Pettigrew, from Mt. Forest spent a few days visiting her friends the McNulty's and took in the anniversary.

Mr. Geo. Pollock took a business trip to Hanover last week.

A good number from around here attended the sale of Mrs. Peel, of your town, and helped along the sale by doing some buying.

Rev. Mr. Rodgers, drove over to Hanover on Monday and met his sister Eva and brought her back with him, where she will spend a week with the home of J. W. Blyth's.

The Varney L. O. L. Brethren with their families and a few invited friends will have a social evening at their Hall on the 5th of Nov. All the members are urged to be present and bring a basket with some good things to eat in it.

Traverston.

Mrs. Henry Firth attended the funeral of her niece on Monday and is remaining as the guest of Mrs. Mrs. Jas Nelson.

Mrs. John Hudson, of Hanover suburbs accompanied by Master Emerson and a friend Miss Lizzie Laidlaw of Milwaukee, visited the Peart families from Saturday till Monday.

Most of the people of the vicinity, are not in fear of the air balloons bumping them, but they are dread ing the near approach of winter and the tax collector.

As Mr. McLean of Egremont had sickness in his family, Will Ryan of the 4th has secured the services of Mr. Rogers to move the big Jardine house down to the centre of his farm a distance of nearly 70 rods. They began operations on Friday last.

Rev. Mr. Rogers, of Varney, ably filled Zion's pulpit on Sunday and gives promise of becoming a clever and earnest divine.

The committee appointed some time ago, by Zion's League and Sunday School, recently purchased a Bell, chapel organ from Messrs. McQueen & Morice. 'Tis giving good satisfaction and should last for a quarter of a century.

Roots are mostly housed Potatoes have yielded well, mangels fair; but turnips are mostly "poor trash"

Just as the sunset glow was fading away on Friday evening of last week, the bright spirit of Mrs. Joe Firth Jr., peacefully passed into the spirit land, after some weeks of failing health from the dreaded disease, anaemia. Her maiden name, was Miss Annie Davis, third daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Davis, of the 7th con. Born and reared in the neighborhood until her marriage five years and five months ago. She was ever a general favorite with young and old and her union with "Joe," who has ever been one of our most popular youths, was regarded by all as a singularly happy one. To them were born three children.—Davis, a most handsome and promising boy, who was laid to rest in Zion's Acre over a year ago, Hazel, two years old and baby Gladys of a couple of months. The young mother grieved sorely over the loss of her boy and his death was largely the cause of the fatal disease getting a foothold. Some six or seven weeks ago, she left Durham, expecting to rapidly recruit under the old roof-tree, but despite the most tender and assiduous of nursing by her husband, sisters and mother, in spite of skilled medical aid she gradually weakened until the end. The Sunday night previous to her death she heard angel voices singing and hastily bade the members of the family good-bye, but rallied again until Friday. Bright, cheery, loving, little Annie, heart-broken husband, grief-stricken parents, sisters and brothers and saddest of all, little baby girls calling "mamma!" 'Tis a deep sorrow that prevails this neighborhood, where they were reared, Edge Hill, where the first two years of their wedded life was spent and in town, where they made many friends. The funeral took place on Monday afternoon to Zion cemetery, and was one of the largest ever seen in the neighborhood, many friends and acquaintances coming from Markdale, Durham, Edge Hill and other points. The casket selected by her husband was considered to be the loveliest ever laid away in the hal lowed earth here and schoolmates had draped the grave in white and festooned it with autumn leaves and evergreen twig. Rev. Mr. Farquharson, her pastor, held an appropriate service at the home and fittingly and feelingly officiated at the open grave. The pallbearers were life long comrades of the bereaved husband, namely—Messrs. Tom Gleucross, Will Jack, John O Green wood, W. J Greenwood, Tom Timmins and J. H. Robson. The different neighborhoods are united in tendering their sympathy.

HAWES—In Durham, on Saturday, Oct. 26th, to Mr. and Mrs. H. Hawes a son.

Violent Deaths.

In New York city occur ten violent deaths a day as a direct result of daily activities. In Chicago the number falls to six a day, according to Dr. Thomas Grant Allen. But the storm center of the country is Allegheny county, Pa. In which the city of Pittsburgh is situated, combining steel, iron and coal industries, mills, mines, railroads and building industries. Over 17,000 deaths and injuries a year in all industries is the record for this single county.

"Conditions are such that the life of a foreigner employed in the mills is given less consideration than is the life of a horse or mule," says the corner of Allegheny county. "During my first month in office I was astounded to find that within the thirty days twelve men were killed in one plant alone of the United States Steel corporation." "If even the present laws were enforced," the Hungarian consul has protested, "conditions would not be so bad."—Everybody's Magazine.

Quinsy, Sprains and Swellings Cured

In November, 1901, I caught cold and had the quinsy. My throat was swollen so I could hardly breathe. I applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm and it gave me relief in a short time. In two days I was all right," says Mrs. L Cousins, Otterburn, Mich. Chamberlain's Pain Balm is a liniment and is especially valuable for sprains and swellings. For sale at Parker's Drug Store.
