Flesherton

After an illness of some weeks, borne with christian resignation, there passed peacefully away at his late home here early on Tuesday morning, Mr. A. S. Vandusen, a prominent and very highly respected citizen of this place. The deceased, who was 66 years and 11 months of age, was born at Picton, Prince Edward County, and was of the good old U.E.L. stock. At twelve years of age he came with his parents to Grey County and settled near Owen Sound. He received a liberal education and in his early days engaged in school teaching, from which he took to book-keeping for a time in Owen Sound. Later he engaged in general business for himself at Arnott. Receiving the appointment of bailiff, which position he filled for thirty years and subsequently moved to this place, where he has lived for about twenty five years. Twelve years ago he was appointed Division Court Clerk, which office he has filled with marked ability. He was also a Justice of the Peace and in this capacity he has exerted a great influence for good in this township. His judicial mind enabled him to weigh evidence well and his rulings were without fear or favor. He was a Past Master of Prince Arthur Lodge A. F. & A. M., and has for a number of years been treasurer of the Lodge. He was also a member of the Ancient Order of United Workmen. In religion the deceased was a Presbyterian, being for the past ten years an elder and active worker in Chalmer's church here. His talents well used and consistent christian life made him a great service to the church, which will deeply feel his loss.

The funeral took place on Thursday afternoon under the auspices of Prince Arthur Lodge, and a large attendance of members, with visiting brethren from Owen Sound and Dundalk lodges, were present to pay the last office of respect to the departed brother. The beautiful burial service of the Order was conducted by Wor. Bro. W. A. Armstrong, Master of Prince Arthur Lodge, and the pallbearers were Bros. T. A. Blakely, W. J. Bella, M. K. Richardson, Dr. Carter, Dr. Ottewill and W. H. Wright, past D.D.G.M., Owen Sound. Beautiful floral offerings covered the casket. Preceding interment, a largely attended and impressive service was held in the Presbyterian church, which was appropriately draped in mourning. On the platform with the pastor, Rev. G. C. Little, were Rev. L. W. Thom, of Waldemar, Rev. J. A. Robinson, of Markdale, Rev. L. F. Kipp and Rev. Dr. Caldwell, of this place. From 1 Cor. 13:14 Mr. Little preached a short sermon, concluding with fitting reference to the deceased by whose removal the church had lost a very highly esteemed elder and a warm friend. Short addresses were also given by Mr. Thom and Dr. Caldwell, both of whom paid fitting tributes to the memory of the deceased. Mr. Thom, as his pastor for ten years, knew him to be a deep student of the word of God and found in him a wise counsellor and willing helper in all Christian work. His consecrated talents and exemplary Christian life made him a pillar of strength in the church and a power for good in the community. Very appropriate music was rendered by the choir. At the close of the service an opportunity was given to view the remains which were then borne to the public cemetery and laid at rest. Forty-seven years ago Mr. Vandusen was married to Miss Elizabeth Grimby, of Owen Sound, who survives him with two sons, Clarence E., of the police force, Chicago, and Frank, jeweller, Dundalk, and two daughters, Mrs. W. J. Douglas, of Collingwood, and Miss Celia at home, all of whom were present at the funeral; also a brother of the deceased, Mr. Henry Vandusen, of Brookholm, and grandson, Master Frank Vandusen, of Detroit. A large circle of friends deeply sympathize with the family in their bereavement.

The two hunting parties from here to Maskoka returned home on Saturday and report a very enjoyable time. The compliment of deer allowed by law was secured. Mr. Herb Smith to day favored us with a fine cut of the venison.

At the regular meeting of the Masonic Lodge here on Friday evening a committee was appointed to draft a letter of condolence to the widow of the late Wor. Bro. A. S. Vandusen. A large congregation in the Presbyterian church on Sunday listened attentively to Rev. Harvey Grant, returned missionary from China, who spoke for one hour with deep interest on missionary work among the Chinese of Honan.

The Toronto News "Around the World" competition is creating much interest here. "Billy" Colville, the popular Comfort Soap man, is the favorite here.

Mr. W. J. Bellamy, of this place, has received the appointment of Division Court Clerk in the place of Mr. A. S. Vandusen, deceased. We congratulate Mr. Bellamy on his appointment, which is a popular one. His experience of twenty-seven years clerk of Artemesia township fits him for filling well the office so ably filled by his predecessor, who had the honored distinction of being the best Division Court Clerk in the County.

A number here went to Markdale last week to see "Pinofore," and were highly pleased with the splendid manner in which the young folk of that place played the popular opera.

Mr. P. Loucks received word last week that his son Walter was ill with typhoid fever in the hospital at Saskatoon. Later reports are that his condition is favorable.

Mr. and Mrs. John Johnson, of Dundalk, and Mr. R. Henderson and Miss Mina Henderson, of Rob Roy, were visitors at Dr. Murray's last week.

Miss H. Breeze, of Chatsworth, attended the funeral of the late A. S. Vandusen last week.

Mrs. Fred Hickling spent part of last week with friends in Toronto.

Miss Egan and Miss Murphy, of Dundalk, are visiting Mrs. John Runstadler.

Mrs. R. Smith and daughter, Miss Ina, visited Mrs. Albert Stewart on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Frost, of Owen Sound, are visiting the latter's uncle, Mr. W. W. Trimble, at the Park House.

Rev. L. W. Thom, of Waldemar, spent Thursday and Friday among old friends here, and Mrs. Thom and Mrs. Christoe are spending part of this week with their numerous old friends.

Miss Badgerow, 4th line, left on Monday to spend some time in the city.

THE BRIDGE

I stood on the bridge at midnight
As the clocks were striking the hour
And the moon rose o'er the city
Behind the dark church tower

Among the long, black rafters
The wavering shadows lay,
And the current that came from the ocean
Seemed to lift and bear them away,

As, sweeping and eddying through them,
Rose the belated tide
And streaming into the moonlight
The seaweed floated wide.

And, like those waters rushing
Among those wooden piers,
A flood of thought came o'er me
That filled my eyes with tears.

How often, oh, how often
In the days that have gone by,
I have stood on the bridge at midnight
And gazed on the wave and the sky.

How often, oh, how often
I have wished that the ebbing tide
Would bear me away on its bosom
O'er the ocean, wild and wide.

For my heart was hot and restless
And my life was full of care,
And the burden laid upon me
Seemed greater than I could bear.

But now it has fallen from me,
And lies buried in the sea,
And only the sorrows of others
Throws a shadow over me

And I think how many thousands
Of care incumbered men,
Each bearing his burden of sorrows,
Have crossed the bridge since then.

Forever and forever,
As long as the river flows,
As long as the heart has passions,
As long as the life has woes.

The moon and its broken reflection
And its shadows shall appear
As the symbol of love from heaven
And its wavering image here.

—Henry Wadsworth Longfellow.

The following from the Chesley Enterprise may admit of a local application: A boy practising with a rifle nearly shot one of the brick yard men last week. Had the shot been fatal the boy's regret would not have brought back the man to life. The use of air guns and rifles in this municipality is becoming quite frequent this fall. It must be stopped before there is an accident and some body gets the full benefit of the law. The revised criminal code, a copy of which lies before us, points out that civilians, other than justices of the Peace, found carrying a pistol or air gun are liable to a fine not exceeding $25. Any dealer selling a pistol, air gun or ammunition to a minor under 16 years is liable to a penalty of $50 and a further penalty of $25 may be inflicted on any one who sells pistols or air guns and does not keep a record of such sales. Anyone pointing any fire-arm or air gun, whether loaded or not, at another person may be fined from $10 to $100 or be imprisoned for 30 days.

Veterinary Remedies

These are articles which are in great demand at this season and in view of the number of different makes on the market purchasers should be careful, what, and from whom they buy these goods

Most of these are manufactured by persons who have absolutely no knowledge of the medicinal properties of the ingredients—and retailed by others, who, if possible, know less about it.
