COME to Mt. Forest's 1st Annual Dressed and Live Poultry Show Dec. 12th and 13th, 1907.

MACFARLANE'S babies' Cough Cure may be given to the youngest and most delicate child. It never fails.

A MEETING of the South Grey Temperance Alliance was held in the Methodist Church, on Tuesday night.

FOR Quality and Quantity ask your dealer for the new big plugs of "Bobs" "Stag" and "Currency" Chewing Tobacco.

CHRISTMAS BAKING.—At the House of Quality will be found the freshest and best in fruits, peels, nuts, etc. The finest raisins grown 3 lbs. for 25c.—H. H. Mockler.

YOUR Winter Overcoat, the important part of your winter outfit. We offer special inducements in both ready-made and made-to-order coats from now till Christmas.—The House of Quality, H. H. Mockler.

A PROGRAMME consisting of Temperance solos, readings and recitations will be rendered by the members of Durham Junior League on Monday, Dec. 2nd, commencing at 8 p. m., in the Methodist church. Doors open at 7.45. Admission silver collection.

MR. JOHN CLARK, auctioneer for the County of Grey, has decided to leave the fixing of all sale dates to this office. This does not interfere with sale bills being printed elsewhere, but before making arrangements we must invariably be consulted. The object is to avoid conflict of dates.

AN item appears elsewhere announcing the death of Robt. Braithwaite, who was shot near Grenfell, Sask. by a member of the mounted police. We are not sure if this is Robert Braithwaite who left here a few years ago. He went to Yellow Grass, apparently not far from Grenfell and Regina, and he had a brother out there somewhere.

PUBLIC MEETING—Rev. A. H. Ranton, Toronto, will lecture in the Town Hall, on Friday, to-morrow evening, subject, "From Bar-room to Pulpit." No admission fee, but a collection to defray expenses. Mr. Ranton is a very busy man which may be inferred from the fact that he has Sunday engaged up to next June. The subject on Friday evening, we understand, is based on the speaker's own experience.

A DESPATCH from Dundalk to the Toronto News says:—A number of the more serious damage claims, arising out of Caledon wreck, were settled during the past week. Some of the claims so settled, with the amounts were, it is understood:—Mr. David Madill, Ceylon, $2,700; Mrs. Wright, Flesherton, $3,100; Mrs. Goff, Markdale, $1,700; Mr. M. K. Richardson, Flesherton, $2,700; Mr. Brander, Pricerville, $3,000.

A VERY sensible article appears in this issue from the pen of Mr. Geo. E. Day, of the Agricultural College, Guelph. We commend it to our agricultural readers, some of whom may profit by a careful perusal of the article. We believe there is much truth in what Mr. Day says regarding the feed problem, and it may be that many farmers are to-day losing money by slaughtering their stock rather than keep them over on high-priced feed. Read the article and think about it.

A SERVICE OF SONG was held in the Baptist church on Sunday last, Mrs. Newton presiding at the organ. The choir took entire charge of the service and rendered anthems etc. as follows: Solo, by Mrs. Newton; Quartette by Misses L. B. Walker, D. Burnett, and Messrs. A. Bell and W. Search; Solo by Miss M. Davidson; Duett by W. Harding and F. Clemas; Male Quartette by Messrs. Search, Harding, Clemas and Bell; a trio by Mrs. Newton, W. Harding, F. Clemas; Chorus by Misses McKenzie, McLean, McDonald, McComb, Fallaise, and Messrs. Search, Harding, Clemas and Bell; Miss Ada Brown who usually contributes a good solo or two was unable to do so owing to her throat being out of order. A good congregation was in attendance and we think everyone thoroughly enjoyed the singing.

SEE the new Hanging Lamps at MacFarlane's Drug Store.

MR. ALEX MCLACHLAN has the agency for Flett, the Florist. See his ad.

ROBES—Before buying a robe, see T. Smith's Black Galloways. He can interest you in quality and price.

GIANT TRIPLETS "Currency" "Bobs" and "Stag" Chewing Tobaccos in big plugs. Quality always the same.

P. G. A. WEBSTER announces that his Jewellery Store will be opened every night during the month of December.

SNAPS in ladies' coats. Just arrived a choice lot of new coats, regular price $9 to $10. We are selling them for $7.50.—The House of Quality, H. H. Mockler.

RUBBERS and overshoes, pure gum goods, fresh from the factory. Every thing from the heavy lumberman's to the ladies' and children's feather weight rubbers at old prices.—H. H. Mockler.

WE are told that Auctioneer Clark had great success at Arnold Noble's sale on Tuesday last. Cows brought from $21 to $33 and a two-year-old colt was knocked down at $95. This doesn't look as if times were very bad.

WE regret to learn of the death of James Brown, son of Wm. Brown of Bentinck. A couple of weeks ago the boy, who was about fifteen years of age, shot himself in the foot by accident. After severe suffering he took lock-jaw which ended in death on Sunday last.

AT the close of the Ladies' Aid on Tuesday night the members were entertained very pleasantly by Mrs. Jamieson at the parsonage. Refreshments were served and the guests were made to feel perfectly at home by Mr. and Mrs. Jamieson who are quite popular with the congregation. All the church services are well attended.

SOME of our readers will remember a robe exhibited here and at Holstein by Mr. John Smith. It was made from curly cowhide, a cross between a Galloway and a Jersey, and was offered by Mr. Smith at Holstein for $18.00. He subsequently sold it to a traveller for $20.00. Last week the same robe was sold in Toronto for $165.00.

THE time is coming when the electors should be thinking of next year's council. The best men are none too good to handle the town affairs. If all the members of the present board are just the kind we want they should be re-elected by all means. If some are all right and others bad, weed out the poor ones. By all means let us have a council we'll not be ashamed of.

THE Walking fad seems to have reached Durham. On Sunday afternoon last Irene Latimer and Rita Irwin hoofed it to Varney and back, making the round trip of six miles in an hour and a half. Monday afternoon they set out again and covered the same ground in ten minutes less time than they took on Sunday. The exercise sharpened up their appetites and now they can eat anything from a side of sole leather to a boiled crow.

AFTER a year's trial as a twice-a-week, the Owen Sound Times has gone back to a weekly paper. By the words "gone back" we do not wish to convey the idea of a retrograde movement on the part of the Times. As a financial venture the Times is satisfied that it is not a success. As soon as circumstances will warrant the publication of a daily paper the Times will be in the field, but till further notice in the probably "dim and misty future" will continue as a weekly, giving eight, ten or twelve pages as required.

IT didn't take Harry Burnett long to graduate in the boot and shoe business. Only just a few weeks ago he bought out the stock of the late Fred Peel. He started in at once to sell the goods. During his spare moments he did a little cobbling that was fairly good for a greenhorn. It may be that Harry didn't like the smell of leather, but we can hardly think that's the reason he got out of the business so quick. An experienced man from Markdale, a Mr. Sewell, came along, and after some dicking he bought him out and Harry is retiring from business activities.

WANTED—A good general servant. Apply to Mrs. C. Keeler.

A FEW Ladies' Fur Coats at a bargain, at Grant's.

MACFARLANE'S are showing an elegant line of Christmas Novelties and fine china. Call and see.

MEN'S furnishings at the House of Quality. Always to the front in this department. This season we are showing goods which throw all previous displays in the shade, in gloves, neckwear, handkerchiefs, suspenders, fancy hosiery etc., for the holiday trade.—H. H. Mockler.

THE C. P. R. has the rails laid nearly to Ritchie's School House a mile and a half out. They would have been here some time ago, but they couldn't get the steel. They are engaged building a pumping station at the bank of the river near the Garafraxa Street bridge and the framework of the tank house is already up. They will make Durham this winter, but it depends on the weather how much farther they will go.

DEATH OF D. GREENWOOD.

In the early hours of Thursday morning, Nov. 14, death entered the home of the late Mr. Dan Greenwood, taking the husband and father. For over a year the deceased gentleman has been in failing health from heart trouble, and death came to him as a happy transition to a brighter, better world, where pain and suffering are no more.

He was born Oct. 13, 1855, on the farm now occupied by his brother Thos., and has always lived in this neighborhood. He was very industrious, a kind and obliging neighbor, ever ready to lend a helping hand. It was always a pleasure to meet him for he had always the welcome smile, the pleasant words, the glad hand, that bespoke the kind heartedness of the man. He was a consistent member of the Methodist church.

The funeral on Saturday to the English church cemetery was very largely attended. The services at the house and grave were conducted by his pastor, Rev. Mr. Jamieson. The pallbearers were, Messrs. Jos. Firth, J. H. McFayden, Wm. Edge, Dan Edge, Archie Ector and Wm. Ritchie, all near neighbors.

He was married Dec. 8, 1880, to Miss Mary A. Jasper, and the union was blessed with four children, all of whom survive.—Mrs. Chas. H. Moffat, Mrs. John Firth, and Arthur and Clara at home. Besides these he leaves three brothers, John and Wm., of Eborale, Thos., Edge Hill, and four sisters, Mrs. M. Cameron, Pakota; Mrs. Dunsmoor, Hamilton; Mrs. Davis, Northwest; and Mrs. A. Hooper, South Glenelg. To the sorrowing ones we tender our sympathy.—Com.
