Abraham Fair and Square

The last three days of Abraham's Nine Day Sale will be a "Hummer"

THESE are the last three days of the Greatest Sale ever attempted in Durham. It takes more than stormy weather to keep the people at home when we put on a sale like this. This big store has been crowded with eager buyers all day and every day since the big sale opened, and the end is not yet. For the last three days we have planned to give greater Bargains than ever. We intend to keep the kettle boiling right up to the very last hour on Saturday. It may be years before you'll have an opportunity like this again. Hundreds of Special Bargains that have not been advertised in posters will be offered. People from the North, East, South and West have driven many miles to attend this Big Sale, and the last three days will eclipse all others. Come with the crowd and get your share.

This has been the greatest sale ever held in Durham. It closes on SATURDAY with the Biggest bunch of Bargains ever offered.

BLYTH'S CORNERS.
The fierce storm which has been raging since Friday noon up to this Monday night has somewhat shaken our confidence in our latest attempt at weather predicting. The concession roads running north and south are pretty badly filled up in places, making it impossible, for the first time, for our faithful mail courier to make his daily trip. Just at this point we are somewhat puzzled to know why those rural routers on the gravel road apparently are making little or no attempt to have their mail delivered through the Durham post office. As it is at present it certainly greatly inconveniences the mail man to have to stop to sort out the mail there, more so on cold stormy days. We think it would be much better to have the mail on his route all come through Durham.

The Knox Corner cor. was badly out when he or she (which is it?) says our late beloved pastor labored 14 years in the Knox and Amos stations. Just cut it in two, and you have the truth in a nutshell. —The error may be ours. —Ed. Chronicle.

On account of the stormy weather comparatively few were out on Sunday to hear moderator Rev. Mr. Marsh of Holstein preach the Knox church vacant. In fact, Mr. Editor, we believe even your Knox cor. could have done that part, so very few were present. We have every confidence the rev. gentleman will make an efficient moderator. Strange to say, that in a period of 25 years as preacher of the gospel he has been nearly 20 years as moderator for various churches in the Province. Certainly he should have experience. He strongly urged full churches every Sunday, in order that the very best satisfaction for both preacher and people might be obtained.

ANDERSON-WHITMORE.
A quiet wedding was solemnized at St. Luke's church, Fort Rouge, Winnipeg, on December 29, at 3.30 p.m. The contracting parties were Miss Adeline Whitmore of Portage La Prairie and William Victor Anderson of Oakville. Rev. W. B. Heeney performed the ceremony in the presence of a small number of friends and relatives. The bride, who was unattended, and entered the church leaning on the arm of her brother, Mr. J. D. Whitmore, wore a dress of cream charmeuse trimmed with seed pearls and allover lace, and bridal veil fastened with orange blossoms, with the bridegroom's gift a pearl necklace, and carried a white prayer book. An informal reception at the home of Mrs. H.G. Alton, 482 Gertrude avenue, followed the church ceremonial. The young couple left on the Soo train for Minneapolis.—Portage La Prairie Graphic of January 26, 1914.
