

TRAVESTION.

Too late for last week. The Storm King has held high revel for the past three days, and north and south roads are filled to fence level. Jack Frost has accompanied His Majesty and sketched artistic designs on every window pane. In the woods and swamps everything is clothed in bewildering white; but when the axe strikes the sapling, the beauty side disappears, as the crystal masses come tumbling down on the inner side of the collar-band. It makes a woodsman wriggle as it melts and follows the curves of the vertebrae. Mr. O. Heffernan took away a carload of fine springer cows on Friday of last week. Prices ruled high. Mr. T. Cook, Mrs. John Love and Master Cecil drove out to the Cook homestead on Sunday. Mrs. Love is remaining to visit among the friends and schoolmates of bygone days. Mr. Cook begins to run the rural mail route on concessions 10 and 12 of Glenelg. Monday was a rough day for his maiden trip. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Raylor gave a most successful party to over three score of young folk on Thursday evening of last week. It was a beautiful moonlit night and as home, yard and stables are illuminated by electric light, 'twas like fairyland. The council fathers never fail to have a rousing snow storm for their February meeting. They forget on Saturday, but its discomforts are forgotten as the big stove roars red hot and the gather around the big dinner table to indulge in the delicious tea brewed by the genial clerk, and witty sallies and repartee help for a brief hour to lighten the burden of a big day's work. Rev. W. W. Prudham braved Sunday's storm and bad roads to find his congregation were more faint-hearted than he. We just learned on Friday last that Mr. Will Sweeney had returned from Saskatchewan some days ago. Mr. Tom Glencross is being heartily congratulated on his purchase of Mr. Wm. Ritchie's fine old homestead. It is well situated, has good buildings, has been well cultivated and never fails to yield good crops. Mr. Glencross was unfortunate to lose a most valuable Clyde four-year-old on Saturday night from acute indigestion. For some two weeks we practiced repeating your Top Cliff scribe's Gaelic behind the barn before trying it on that Heilan' horse. At last we thought we had it perfect and hooked on to the bobsleighs, clambered into the seat, swung a 10-foot poplar goad and yelled that phrase. Then, strange things occurred. 'Twas like the combat betwixt Roderick Dhu and Prince James in Scott's "Lady of the Lake." "Like adder, darting from his coil, Like wolf, that dashes on his foil, Like mountain-cat that guards her young." Full into mid-air Charlie sprang And badly warped the old sleigh-tongue. Up flew erect his short rat-tail As down the road he set full sail. His coltish mate, with impish glee Was galloping as wild as he. The teams ahead, with heavy load, Drew quickly off the icy road To let the thing pass on; They deemed it the new parcel post Delivering a juicy roast To the dwellers in the town. As along Lambton Street we sped, We spied George Buckingham ahead. In his quaint, old-fashioned sleigh, As they flew by, with clatter and clack, He yelled excited, "Old Jack! Old Jack!" And then a strange change came. At sound of that familiar name, Senses returned, with sudden shame And he stopped with trembling limb. But me'er we'll say that Gaelic phrase, We've passed our youthful, reckless days, And the I.O.F. our dues might raise, And class us "hazardous."

AFTER SICKNESS OR OPERATION

It is a pathetic mistake to accept drugs or alcoholic mixtures when nature craves nourishment to repair the wasted body and restore the vigor of health. For forty years the best physicians have relied on the wholesome predigestion in Scott's Emulsion which is totally free from alcohol or opiates. Scott's Emulsion sharpens the appetite—renews blood—nourishes nerves—strengthens bones and restores the courage of health to make life bright. Scott's Emulsion sets in action the very forces that promote health; it is pure, rich strength.

KNOX CORNERS.

Mr. Adam Pettigrew bought a cow at Reid's sale in Holstein last Thursday. Cows are expensive this winter. Rev. Mr. Peckover of Toronto ably filled the pulpit at Knox on Sunday. He is a good speaker and kept the attention of every one. Mr. Thos. McNeice delivered to cattle king, Brown, Holstein, seven hogs last Thursday that tipped the scales at 1,720. The price paid was nine cents a pound. Tom always has some good hogs. If advertising and posters would do it, the J. D. Abraham Company of Durham must have had a gigantic sale these last nine days. The Y. P. S. C. E. social was a grand success considering the severe cold last Wednesday night. Knox reek without a pastor. Inspector Allan took the chair and after passing several remarks and jokes disposed of a long program, consisting of speeches by Rev. Mr. Seipel, Methodist minister, Mr. Damm, proprietor of the satisfactory store, both of Ayton, and ex-deputy reeve, Mr. Lothian of Dromore. The Dromore choir sang several selections, also the Ayton trio. Messrs. Seipel, Damm and councillor Filsinger, accompanied by Mrs. Damm. Music on the violin was supplied by Mr. Seipel, and was enjoyed by all. Recitations were given by Miss Scott and Miss Mary McAllister. Lunch was served at intermission.

The London Times Pekin correspondent says the Standard Oil Company has given the Chinese Government 3 1/2 per cent. of the stock in the new company being formed to develop Chinese resources. Niagara district fruit growers are already predicting a shortage in the peach crop.

PERSONAL

Inspector Campbell is in Toronto attending the Motor Show. Mr. Allie McIntyre was home from Toronto over Sunday to see his mother, who is ill. Miss Rita Irwin visited Mrs. C. Rudolph in Hanover for a couple of days this week. Miss B. Morton is spending a few months in Toronto with Mrs. George Wright. Mr. Thos. Morton, sr., left Monday morning for Guelph to attend the funeral of his niece, Mrs. Judson Hyde. Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton Allen were in Hopeville yesterday attending the funeral of her mother, Mrs. Neil McKechnie. Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Brown returned home Friday after visiting for the past month or so with their daughter in Hamilton. Miss Gertrude Prudham, of Cambridge, Mass., is visiting her brother, Rev. W. W. Prudham, at the parsonage. Mrs. J. D. Abraham will receive for the first time in her new home, Garafraza street, on Monday, February 23 from four to six o'clock, and afterwards on the first Friday of each month. The following from a distance were present Sunday at the funeral of the late Mrs. Warner: Two brothers, Thomas and Arthur, from Toronto and St. Catharines respectively, a sister, Mrs. Batty, and her husband, from Toronto. Wilfrid Martin, a nephew, from Toronto, a son, Frank, wife and daughter, from Blenheim, and her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Burnett, of Detroit.

EDGE HILL.

Miss Mortley visited over the week end with friends near Dromore. Miss Maggie Firth of Lloydtown was home for a short visit. Mrs. Thos. Turnbull and her mother, Mrs. Ector, spent a few days with friends in Dundalk. Mr. H. C. Moffat was in Chatsworth a couple of days last week, curling with the Durham team. Mr. Herb Edge and sister, Miss Valeria, visited friends in Egremont the beginning of the week. Miss Emma Ritchie who is teaching near Dundalk, was home from Friday till Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Fisher of Fleming, Sask., are visiting Mrs. Fisher's grandmother, Mrs. Jas. Edge and other relatives in this vicinity. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Ritchie entertained a large number of young people at a dancing party on Friday evening. They all had a very enjoyable time. Mr. Edgar Ritchie has bought a couple of horses to take west with him in the spring. Mr. McGillivray of Paisley returned home on Friday, after a pleasant visit at Mr. D. McFayden's.

BLYTH'S CORNERS.

Mr. Victor Caisley of Toronto spent from Thursday to Wednesday at the old home near the corners, renewing old friendships. The monthly meeting of the Varney grange was held on Friday evening last, a large representative number being present. G. M. Leeson occupied the chair. Mr. Hughes, banker, of Durham, and Mr. Duff of Markdale, were invited to be present. Mr. Duff could not attend but sent a very good substitute, who gave a very good talk on cooperation. Mr. Ball and Mr. Jamieson are to be invited some night soon to get posted for action in the House. Rev. Mr. Peckover of Toronto, occupied Knox pulpit on Sunday and preached a very able and inspiring sermon. The Rev. gentleman is a gifted and exceedingly able speaker. We hope Mr. editor, in the future you will have more respect for our budgets than to consign them to the waste basket, as a budget we wrote week before last, giving a full account of the special meeting of the grange held in Norsey, did not appear. [We never saw it or it would have appeared all right.—Ed.] Rev. G. Gorm of Danganon, will occupy the pulpit in Knox church on Sunday next, Feb. 22nd. Every one in the congregation should make a special effort to hear him. The entertainment held in Knox church on Wednesday evening last was a very pleasing affair. Mr. Wm. Allan occupied the chair in his usual taking and off handed manner and dished out an excellent and varied programme. The Dromore choir was present in full force and under the able and up-to-date leadership of Mr. Wm. Ramage, rendered a number of excellent anthems, which were exceedingly charming and inspiring and very much enjoyed by all. Rev. Mr. Seipel, the evangelical minister of Ayton, Mr. and Mrs. Damm, Mrs. (Rev.) Seipel and Mr. and Andrew Filsinger were present and assisted much with the programme. Rev. Mr. Seipel, accompanied by Mrs. Damm on the organ, rendered a few selections on the violin and fairly carried the audience into wonder land, so exceedingly charming were the selections rendered. The Rev. gentlemen in company with Mr. Damm and Mr. Filsinger, also sang a number of selections which were greatly pleasing and appreciated. Miss Scott, ever willing to help, gave a couple of recitations in good style, also Miss Mary McAllister gave a couple of recitations which called forth hearty applause. Mr. Geo. Lothian rendered a good recitation which he neatly and appropriately prefaced by a brief reminiscence of bygone days, which he urged the young people and those who once were members not to become discouraged or careless in keeping up the services of the Christian Endeavor, and concluded by wishing them all God speed. The address of the evening was given by Rev. Mr. Seipel, which was quite in advance of most addresses usually given at such gatherings. He is an earnest, clever,

CORNER CONCERNS.

A very pleasant evening in the home of Mr. James Matthews was spent a week ago Friday when a large circle of friends of the surrounding neighborhood had gathered to spend a parting evening as neighbors. At an appropriate time a well worded address expressive of the way we have all appreciated the citizenship of Mr. and Mrs. Matthews and family during their life in our midst was read by Mrs. Samuel Patterson, and a fancy chair each for the good couple was presented. Mr. Matthews made a feeling reply for himself and family, after which a good program of speeches, songs and instrumental music was rendered, and the remainder of the night spent in games and dancing. Although we generally get a good share of cold weather during winter months here, we were not expecting to hear of so many frozen noses and cheeks as we heard of last week. In fact there is a story going the rounds of a man dying from cold between Holstein and Mt. Forest, but we trust it may prove incorrect. Auction sales are very numerous at present. Among the number is our township treasurer, who has his on Friday preparatory to going west. Everybody has their ups and downs to contend with, but more especially the young people of Cresent Lake and Ebdorale. Mr. Ben. Sharp has commenced on his contract of building Mr. R. T. Mead's barn, and is at present hewing the timber. Mr. James Matthews' sale last Tuesday was a decided success. Auctioneer Brigham is being complimented on all sides for his work, even the implements and old truck selling well. Horses, too brought fairly good prices. One mare going as high as $180. But cattle are what is wanted at present. Cows brought $80 and young stock proportionately.

VALUE OF RHEUMA FROM THE COURT.

Judge Barhorst was Relieved of Rheumatism After Doctors Failed. If you have tried many other remedies and doctors' treatments for Rheumatism and found they failed, do not feel skeptical about trying RHEUMA. Read the testimony of Judge John Barhorst of Fort Laramie, Ohio. "After treatment by three doctors without result, I have been of a very bad case of Rheumatism by using two bottles of RHEUMA. It is now two years since I used the remedy, and I am still as well as ever. Previously I was a cripple, walking with crutches." Such testimony should be convincing. 50 cents of Macfarlane & Co. guaranteed.

HAMPDEN.

Too late for last week. There was no service in the Hampden church on Sunday last on account of the rough day, which blocked the roads. Again the wedding bells have ceased ringing in our burg. A wedding of unexcelled beauty took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Anderson on February 4, when Miss Florence Marietta joined heart and hand with Mr. James Byers. At the hour of six o'clock about twenty invited guests assembled in the parlor, when the bridegroom entered, followed by the bride, leaning on the arm of her father, while Miss Bessie Park played the bridal chorus. After a short ceremony, they were pronounced husband and wife. The bride was tastefully gowned in a dress of cream silk with pearl trimmings. After the ceremony the guests partook of a most excellent dinner, which had been prepared by the bride's mother. The evening was spent in games and music. This Week's Budget. Mrs. Albert Six (nee Margaret Mearns) of Stettler, Alberta, left on Tuesday for her home, after spending a couple of months with her mother and friends here. Mr. and Mrs. Byers left last week for an extended visit with their daughters in Ayer, Toronto and Dundas. Mr. and Mrs. Walden and Miss Mary of Neustadt, spent the week end with Mr. Wm. Marshall. The box social held on Friday evening under the auspices of the Hampden baseball team was a great success. Being favored with fine weather, the school house was comfortably filled. Two prizes were given for the most prettily decorated boxes. The first was won by Miss Isabel Park, being a china cup and saucer. The second won by Miss Isabel Mearns, a china plate. The judges were Messrs. Riesberry and Milburn of Hanover. Mr. John Whiteford made a very efficient auctioneer. The highest box sold for five dollars. The boxes were distributed and enjoyed by all. The program was proceeded with and proved second to none for the occasion, consisting of a number of comic songs by Messrs. James Park and Wm. Lowe; instrumental selections by Messrs. N. J. Kerr and Derby, Misses M. Derby and J. Kerr. Spicy and humorous speeches were given by Messrs. Riesberry and Derby of Hanover. One of the outstanding features was a duet by Miss M. Derby and J. Park, entitled Matrimonial Sweet. Two very interesting dialogues were given by the young ladies, Uncle Sam and In Want of a Servant. A chorus by Katie, John and Walter Kerr. When Rubeen Comes to Town, also recitations were given by Miss L. Marshall and J. Whiteford, which brought the evening to a close, being enjoyed by one and all.

TWO HOME WOMEN TALKED ABOUT HAIR.

Two women met in our store the other day, when one of them said: "My, how pretty your hair looks! What have you been doing to it?" "Why I have been using Harmony Hair Beautifier for the past two weeks," was the reply. "Why, indeed!" replied the first woman, "that is just what I am using. Isn't it great, and don't you think my hair shows a lot of improvement?" Harmony Hair Beautifier is becoming all the rage among both men and women who are particular in the care of their hair. It is just what it is named—a hair beautifier. It seems to polish and burnish the hair, making it glossy silky-soft, and more easy to put up in graceful, wavy folds, that will not change color of hair nor darken it. Simply sprinkle a little on your hair each time before brushing it. To keep your hair and scalp dandruff-free and clean, use Harmony Shampoo. This liquid shampoo gives an instantaneous rich, foaming lather that immediately penetrates to every part of the hair and scalp, insuring a quick and thorough cleansing. It is washed off just as quickly, the entire operation taking only a few moments. Harmony Hair Beautifier, $1.00. Harmony Shampoo, 50c. Both guaranteed to satisfy you in every way, or your money back. Sold only at the more than 7,000 Rexall Stores and in this town only by us, Macfarlane & Co.

J. Ferguson, a cripple, is dead.

DON'T GROW BALD. Use Parisian Sage. If your hair is getting thin, losing its natural color, or has that matted lifeless, and scraggy appearance, the reason is evident—dandruff and failure to keep the hair roots properly nourished. Parisian Sage applied daily for a week and then occasionally, is all that is needed. It removes dandruff with one application; almost immediately stops falling hair and itching head; invigorates the scalp and makes dull, stringy hair soft, abundant and radiant with life. Equally good for men, women or children—everyone needs it. A large bottle of this delightful hair tonic can be had from Macfarlane & Co. or any drug counter for 50 cents. You will surely like Parisian Sage. There is no other "Just-as good"—Try it now. X1
