SUNDAY SCHOOL.

Lesson II.—Second Quarter, For April 12, 1914.

THE INTERNATIONAL SERIES.

Text of the Lesson, Luke xxiv, 13-35. Memory Verses, 31, 32—Golden Text, Rom. viii, 34—Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

This study might bear the title of the one for March 22, "Lessons by the Way," and it is also a good introduction to next week's lesson on "The Cost of Discipleship," for nothing helps one to be a disciple like the power of His resurrection (Phil. iii, 10). There were five appearances of the risen Christ on that first resurrection day, to Mary Magdalene, to the other women, to Peter, to these two men and in the evening to the ten (Thomas being absent). That which Jesus was and did during the forty days between His resurrection and ascension speaks to me of that which the saints will be and do in our resurrection bodies, for we shall be like Him.

As they talked of Him and of the things which had happened Jesus Himself drew near and went with them (verses 13-15). Many have been refreshed by the fact that He keeps a record of those who think upon Him (Mal. iii, 16). I like the words "Jesus Himself," "I myself," "Jesus shewed Himself," "He gave Himself," "His own self bare our sins" (verses 36, 39); John xxi, 1, 14; Acts i, 3; Gal. ii, 20; 1 Pet. ii, 24. No one can fill or satisfy the heart like "Himself," and we do not wonder that the psalmist said, "My meditation of Him shall be sweet; I will be glad in the Lord" (Ps. civ, 34).

The men asked if He was a stranger because He did not seem to know the great events of the past few days, and they told Him all (verses 19-24), evidently with much sadness and disappointment. They talked as if they had never heard that He was to die and rise from the dead on the third day, though He had repeatedly told them that it would be even so (Luke ix, 22; xviii, 31-34). It is written concerning John, whom Jesus loved, who leaned upon His bosom, that even he, as well as Peter knew not that Jesus must rise again from the dead (John xx, 9). This should lead us to ask ourselves in all sincerity if we are really believing all that is written concerning His present ministry, His coming again and His kingdom, and our share by grace in it all.

He told them that their difficulty was that they did not believe all that the prophets had spoken and were therefore foolish men (verses 25, 26), and that evening He said to the eleven and those gathered with them, that all things must be fulfilled, which were written in the law of Moses, and in the prophets, and in the Psalms concerning Him (verses 33, 44).

Many of these still unfulfilled prophecies are today wholly neglected or spiritualized into mere nothings. Take for example Israel becoming a righteous nation, Jerusalem the throne of the Lord, His feet standing again upon the Mount of Olives, the nations ceasing from war, Israel filling the earth with fruit, the whole earth filled with His glory (Isa. li, 4; xi, 9; xxvii, 6).

The whole topic of all Scripture may be summed up in "the sufferings of Christ and the glory that shall follow" (verse 26 and 1 Pet. i, 11), of which He spoke to them as He walked, opening to them the Scriptures, and expounding to them in all the Scriptures the things concerning Himself (verses 7, 32). I think we may be certain that He did not fail to expound Gen. iii, 15, 21, 24; xxii, 8; Ex. xii; Lev. xvi; Num. xix; Deut. xviii; Ps. xxii; Isa. liii; and who can tell how many more. Is it your custom when you read your Bible to pray, Lord, by Thy Spirit, open to me this Scripture?

He made as though He would have gone further when they reached the end of their journey, for He does not intrude unless desired. It was not difficult to constrain Him to abide, for He is glad to enter every door that is opened to Him (verses 28, 29; Rev. iii, 20). As He sat at meat with them He took bread and blessed and broke and gave to them, and He was known of them in breaking of bread (verses 30, 31, 35). My own conviction is that they saw in His hands, as He broke the bread, the marks of the nails and thus recognized Him, even as the same evening He convinced the disciples that it was Himself by showing them His hands and feet (verse 39). As they knew Him He vanished out of their sight, so shall we do when we shall have obtained our resurrection bodies.

They rose up the same hour and started back to Jerusalem with such a heartburn as they probably had not known before. Compare the inward burning of Ps. xxxix, 3; Jer. xx, 9; Job xxxii, 18-20. The eight mile walk back to the city did not seem long to them, as they no doubt rehearsed all that He had told them. They found the disciples and others gathered together, talking of His resurrection, and of how He had appeared to Simon; so they told their wonderful story, and as they spoke Jesus Himself stood in the midst of them and saith unto them, "Peace be unto you" (verse 36). The two men were sad as He joined them in their walk, and He cared and spent several hours comforting them by the Scriptures. The disciples are terrified and affrighted and troubled, and He quieted them by the revelation of Himself.

Nothing more is needed in all our troubles than Himself and His word. That our resurrection bodies of flesh and bones can be handled, and that in them we can eat and drink, is clear from verses 39-43, and chapter xxii, 29.

LAKELET BREEZES.

Mr. Austin Hann has returned home to help with the summer's work, after spending the winter at the furniture factory in Durham.

Mr. Samuel Patterson, jr. lost a fine yearling colt a few days ago. Death was caused by bots, the stomach being punctured in many places. Mr. Patterson has been very unfortunate lately, as last spring he lost two of his best, and very valuable, horses by blood poisoning.

Mr. Tom Cook of Zion is at present helping Mr. Wm. McFadden of the Lake, cut wood. Tom does not always keep his eye on the saw, and we notice him taking a sly glance over the neighborhood now and again.

A lively dispute arose in this locality a short time ago between two of our citizens, which developed into quite an exciting display of fists. J. declares he hit B. a very heavy blow, but B. on account of his excitement is not sure whether J. hit him or not. But B. remembers picking up his cap after his antagonist had disappeared over a snow bank, from the effects of a savage poke delivered straight from the shoulder of B. We have no doubt the battle would have waged long and fierce, but reinforcements for B. arriving upon the scene in the shape of a woman with a crowbar, the enemy beat a hasty retreat. Casualties are, 0 dead, 2 slightly wounded.

OUR HOME WOMEN HAVE BEAUTIFUL HAIR.

Next time you go to the theatre or to the "movies" just notice, if you please, how many of our home ladies have beautiful hair—glossy, lustrous, and well-dressed. Then, if you will pick out five or ten of those whose hair seems to be particularly pretty and will ask them what they use on it, we feel sure that at least more than half of them will say "Harmony Hair Beautifier." It is fast becoming the rage with both men and women who are particular about the appearance of their hair.

Sprinkle a little Harmony Hair Beautifier on your hair each time before brushing it. Contains no oil; will not change color of hair, nor darken gray hair.

To keep hair and scalp dandruff-free and clean, use Harmony Shampoo. This pure liquid shampoo gives an instantaneous rich lather that immediately penetrates to every part of hair and scalp, insuring a quick, thorough cleansing. Washed off just as quickly, the entire operation takes only a few moments. Contains nothing that can harm the hair; leaves no harshness or stickiness—just a sweet cleanliness.

Both preparations come in odd-shaped, very ornamental bottles, with sprinkler tops. Harmony Hair Beautifier, $1.00. Harmony Shampoo, 50c. Both guaranteed to satisfy you in every way, or your money back. Sold only at the more than 7,000 Rexall Stores, and in this town only by us. Macfarlane & Co.

A special meeting of Prince Arthur Lodge, A.F.&A.M. was held on Thursday evening last to receive the annual official visit of the D.D.G.M., Rt. Wor. Bro. C. D. Taylor, of Owen Sound. The Master Wor. Bro. Herb Smith and his officers conferred the Fellow Craft degree on a candidate, and were highly complimented by the D.D.G.M., who expressed himself well pleased with the correctness of the work done, and also with the prosperous condition in which he found the lodge. There was a large attendance of members, and among the visitors, Bro. A. C. Morris of Toronto, and Wor. Bros. J. A. Armour and W. C. Pitts, Past Masters of St. George's Lodge, Owen Sound, Markdale, Priceville and Ceylon were also represented. After the meeting, adjournment was made to the dining hall, where a beautiful spread was laid by the wives of the local members. The usual toasts were responded to in a happy manner and with song and story a pleasant time was spent before leaving the festive board.

After a prolonged illness borne with Christian resignation, Mr. Jas. Chard passed peacefully away on Wednesday, April 1, at the home of his son-in-law, Mr. Alex. McMullen, east back line, Artemesia, from where the funeral took place to Flesherton cemetery on Friday afternoon. Service was conducted by Rev. A. McVicar, pastor of Chalmers' church, of which the deceased had been for many years a faithful member. He was a man of sterling integrity and highly esteemed in the community. Mr. Chard was born in Devonshire, England, on December 20, 1855, and was therefore in his 59th year. At 18 years of age he came to Canada and for eight years lived in Scarborough township, at the end of which time he was married to Miss Elizabeth Gollop of Toronto, who also came from Devonshire. With his bride, he came to Artemesia 32 years ago and settled on the 4th line, where he was successful in farming. About three years ago he sold his farm to his son-in-law, and retired in this village. In politics, Mr. Chard was a Conservative, and fraternally he was for some time a member of the A.O.U.W. here, and No. 1132 L.O.L., 4th line. Besides his widow, one daughter, Mrs. Alex. McMullen, three sons, Thos., teacher at Dundalk, Ed. and Geo. at Graveburg, Sask., survive; also three brothers, John, at Markdale, Frank, at Flesherton and Thos., Toronto. Chard, son and daughter, Toronto, Mrs. Dart and son, Todmorden, Mr. W. Gollop and Mrs. W. Graham, Stayner. Among the floral offerings were, a pillow, from the family, and sprays from Mr. and Mrs. Westlake and T. Chard and family, Toronto, Miss J. M. Blackburn, Mt. Forest, and Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Fisher, Flesherton.
