NEWS AROUND TOWN

Twenty tons of good bran for sale. Mrs. A. Beggs & Son.

Dainty crepe waists, all white, with either high or low collars. Only $1.25 at Abraham's.

Mr. W. J. McFadden has enlarged his musical show rooms, which have now a much improved appearance.

Lost.—On Garafraxa street, a key ring containing three keys. The finder will be rewarded by leaving them at The Chronicle office.

Easter Sunday was not one of the brightest of days, but not so unfavorable as to prevent the ladies from donning their new Easter millinery.

The Standard Fashion Book for April tells us that Bedford cords, crepe, ratine and crinkle are the most popular materials for spring. You will find a particularly large range of these at Abraham's, "the store that sets the pace."

Mr. Robt Aljoe, jr., though able to be about, is not yet sufficiently recovered to resume his work in the blacksmith shop. He was injured some time ago while shoeing a horse, and was forced to remain idle.

The weather this week has a spring-like appearance, though it still keeps cool. Very often hot weather, late in March or early in April is followed by a cold May. The present season seems to be ideal.

Mr. Ed. Burnett, jr., is advertising his brick residence for sale, and if he disposes of it will build a smaller one. It is a good building, in a desirable location and should find a ready purchaser on the price and terms.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Petrie of Hamilton, arrived in town Tuesday, and as they intend to remain, we extend them a hearty welcome as citizens. They have just been recently married, and Mr. Petrie, who, by the way, is a nephew of the late W. T. Petrie, of Holstein, will represent the Renfrew Machinery Company in this town and vicinity.

Three more new autos were received Tuesday at Smith Bros. garage. This makes six this season so far. They are the Ford 1914 model and are going fast. The purchasers to whom deliveries have been made are J. D. Abraham, Guy Kearney and G. Gagnon. The Smith Bros. are keeping one for themselves. For the two that remain, there are prospective purchasers, but the deals are not yet closed.

The A. Y. P. A. Players of Trinity church will, on Friday evening of this week present the domestic comedy drama "Old Boots." This drama is of an entirely new order, has never before been staged in Canada, and is interesting from the first to the last acts. The admission, 15c. for children, 25c. for adults, and a reserved seat charge of 35c. should prove a popular one, and, with the success attained last year by the same company in "Valley Farm," we feel safe in predicting a bumper house.

The annual vestry meeting of Trinity church was held on Monday evening in the basement of the church, with the Rev. W. H. Hartley, rector of the church, presiding. The finances of the congregation were found to be in a much better condition than a year ago. There was a deficit in the general fund, but steps were taken whereby it is hoped the deficiency will be made up by April 27, when an adjourned vestry meeting is to be held, and a complete statement rendered for printing. The following staff of officers were elected: Rector's Warden, Mr. J. Knisley; People's Warden, Mr. J. Atkinson; Sidesmen, Benfick, Messrs. A. Alexander, and W. Scarf; Glenelg, T. Scarf and D. Davis; Durham, J. Lloyd and E. Kress; Ushers, John Lloyd and R. Abraham; Vestry Clerk, James Lloyd; Delegate to Annual Synod, Jos. Atkinson or Chris. Firth.

Men's kip boots, bluchers, $2.60 for $2.00. At Grant's.

On Sunday last the choirs in the different churches gave appropriate Easter music that has evidently been much appreciated.

Bungalow nets in white and ecru are very popular for curtains. Abraham is showing half a dozen patterns at 19 cents and 25 cents that will surprise you.

The marriage of Miss Jessie Allan, Mt. Forest, to Mr. Godfrey Morrow Brown, Halifax, took place last Saturday afternoon. They will reside in Ottawa.

On Tuesday afternoon, Mr. Campbell Dunsmoor received a telegram announcing the death by drowning of his brother, Neil, at Calgary. We have no particulars.

Mrs. Blackburn will dispose of her household goods by public auction, at her residence, Saturday April 18. See bills for items. R. Bringham, Auctioneer. Sale at 2 o'clock.

We have a lot that we don't need and if some one comes along with the money we'll sell it to him cheap. It is a good location, either for some kinds of business or a private residence. If you want it, say so quick.

Particular people when looking for corsets should remember that at Abraham's you will find a style to fit every figure. We give special attention to this department. If you want real corset satisfaction, try this store.

John Quinn, 106 years old, of Toronto, arrived in Detroit Monday intending to spend the summer with his son. He was born in Tipperary, Ireland, and came with his parents to Toronto when a child.

The Sons of Scotland have decided on a monster celebration here on the 1st of July. The program will consist of horse racing, and all kinds of Caledonian games. We are not in a position to give full particulars at present, but have no doubt the celebration will be on a large scale, and thousands will be in attendance. All roads will lead to Durham on Dominion Day.

To meet the revenue for good roads, a bill proposing a tax on motor vehicles is now before the Ontario Legislature. This will increase the cost to autoists considerably, but will probably make them less odious in the eyes of their opponents. The new rates recommended are: On automobiles up to 20 h.p., $10 per car, 21 to 30 h.p., 50c. per h.p., 31 to 40 h.p., 60c. per h.p., 41 to 56 h.p. 75c. per h.p., over 56 h.p., $1 per h.p.; motorcycles $4 each, chauffeurs $4 each.

Miss Lulu Smith, 21 years of age, second year student in Arts at Queen's University, Kingston, was fatally burned on Friday night last. Just before retiring, her light started to flicker, and giving it a light shake, some of the oil was thrown out, setting fire to her clothing. Though other girls in the building came to her assistance at once, and rendered what help they could, she was badly burned, and died a few hours later. She was a daughter of Rev. Dr. Smith of Glencoe, where the remains were taken on Saturday. Dr. Fraser Smith, the father of the unfortunate girl, was born at Dornoch, and after graduating in the theology at Queen's University in 1888 he spent a number of years as a missionary in China, where Miss Smith was born 21 years ago. It was the young woman's intention, on completing her university course, to return to China and engage in missionary work, which she evidently regarded as her great aim in life. Besides her parents, she leaves a brother, Dr. Smith, at Cochrane, and a younger brother at home. Though unacquainted with either the unfortunate young woman or any of the family, we greatly regret to chronicle the untimely and tragic death of so promising a member of the community.

Wanted.—Small house to rent, conveniently located. Apply at The Chronicle office.

Spring reminds us that we should buy that new floor oilcloth. Speaking of floor oilcloth reminds me that I saw a dozen pretty new designs at Abraham's this week. He has all widths.

A measure has been passed through the Ontario Legislature making it unlawful for an Oriental to employ a female, white person in any factory, restaurant or laundry. This takes effect on a date to be fixed by the lieutenant-governor-in-council.

A quiet wedding took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. John Collier, Glenelg, on Wednesday April 8, when their second daughter, Annie, was married to Mr. Geo. Hargrave, of Egremont. The ceremony was conducted by the Rev. W.H. Hartley, in the presence of a few immediate friends of the contracting parties. The young couple will take up house-keeping at once on the farm of the groom in Egremont. We wish them a long and happy wedded life.

We have felt for a long time that Durham is a good opening for a tinsmith and plumber. Judging from the busy move of Mr. Harding since he came here last fall, and the large number of furnaces he has installed, we evidently made no mistake. The general opinion here is that he understands his business, and his unhesitating opinions about how things should be done is inspiring confidence in the people. He's a hustler and if he's all right in other ways he is sure to get along. He didn't ask us to say anything about him, and this may be taken as an unsolicited testimonial.
