THE NEWSPAPER MAN.

He seldom is handsome or natty. And has none of the charms of the dude; Is oft more abstracted than chatty And sometimes unbearably rude. He courts us, then slights us and grieves us, As much as he possibly can; He kisses us, loves us and leaves us, This perfidious newspaper man. Our mother won't have him come calling. He's no earthly good as a 'catch. His morals (they say) are appalling. His finances usually match. He's rollicking, reckless, uncaring. Lives but for the hour, the day; He's dangerous, dubious, daring, Not fit for a husband, they say. But somehow we girls are forgiving. Perhaps he but needs us the more. Because he goes wrong in the living. And knows the old world to the core. So we pass up the dude and the schemer, Who lead in society's van, And cherish the thinker and dreamer, Enshrined in the newspaper man.

MEN YOU SHOULD KNOW.

Have you ever seen the Minister of Railways and Canals; the Minister of Finance; the Minister of Customs or the Postmaster-General? How many of the Ministers of the Ottawa Cabinet do you know? Don't you think it would be interesting to at least know the faces of the men who are governing Canada? The Chronicle offers you an opportunity, under an arrangement recently closed with The Toronto News, in which by subscribing to both papers for 12 months at a cost to you of $2.50, you will be sent, tubed and postage prepaid, a splendid photogravure of the Borden Cabinet, 17 1/2" x 22 1/2". Send in your subscription to this office and we will see that the picture is sent you at once. Wm. Hampton, ex-reeve of Holland, was recently presented with a gold-headed cane by his former colleagues. Wm. Sheldon, an industrious young Englishman at Owen Sound, found a dynamite cap, and after bringing it home started picking it with a hat pin, when it exploded, blowing off the thumb and first and second fingers of his left hand and the first finger of his right hand.

VICKERS.

Ploughing is the order of the day in this vicinity. Miss Mary Smith of Durham spent a few days with her grandparents here. Mr. Harry Reay is under the doctor's care, but we hope he will soon be able to be out again. Mr. Charlie Lawrence has returned to Toronto, after spending a few days with his parents. Miss Joy Hopkins, of Owen Sound Collegiate was the guest of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Vickers. Mr. Stanley Livingston of Hanover spent a couple of weeks with his parents. Miss Hattie Lawrence, teacher near Markdale, spent the Easter holidays at her home here. Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Hunt, and Miss Ella Cuff, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Hunt, Allan Park. Mr. Charlie Reay lost a valuable cow last week. Mr. W. A. Livingston lost a valuable 6-year-old horse recently. Mrs. Marshall and daughter Marion, of Durham, spent a few days with relatives in this neighborhood. Mr. David Adlam has the material on the ground for a new kitchen, which he intends to build this summer.

A pretty, but quiet wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Hunt on Wednesday, April 15, at four o'clock, when Miss Alberta Cuff was married to Mr. McGillivray, of Glenelg. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. W. Prudham, of Durham, in the presence of only the immediate relatives of the contracting parties. The bridal chorus was played by the bride's sister, Miss Ella Cuff. The bride, who was given away by her father, was prettily gowned in cream cashmere trimmed with silk lace, over lace, and wore a silk sash with corsage bouquet of pink carnations and maidenhair fern. The bride travelled in a tailored suit of navy serge, with hat of black satin. After the ceremony the bridal party sat down to a dainty supper, after which Mr. and Mrs. McGillivray left for their home in Glenelg. We wish them a happy wedded life.

HOW TO TAKE GOOD CARE OF YOUR HAIR.

Nothing spoils your good looks so much as homely hair—stringy, dull-colored, harsh. Nothing adds to good looks so much as beautiful hair—soft, silky, wavy and glossy. No matter how beautiful your hair is now, you can improve its good looks by using Harmony Hair Beautifier. If your hair is homely and ugly now, Harmony Hair Beautifier will make it softer, silkier, glossier, more beautiful in every way, and easier to put up and "stay put." Its rich rose odor hides the unpleasant oily smell of the hair. It is rightly named; it beautifies the hair. Very easy to apply—simply sprinkle a little on your hair each time before brushing it. It contains no oil, and will not change the color of the hair, nor darken gray hair. To keep hair and scalp dandruff-free and clean, use Harmony Shampoo. This pure liquid shampoo gives an instantaneous rich lather that immediately penetrates to every part of hair and scalp, insuring a quick and thorough cleansing. Washed off just as quickly, the entire operation takes only a few moments. Contains nothing that can harm the hair; leaves no harshness or stickiness. Both preparations come in odd-shaped, very ornamental bottles, with sprinkler tops. Harmony Hair Beautifier, $1. Harmony Shampoo, 50c. Both guaranteed to satisfy you in every way or your money back. Sold only at the more than 7,000 Rexall Stores and in this town only by us, Macfarlane & Co.

TRAVERTON.

Too late for last week. Easter of 1914 would have left more pleasant memories if the bitter northern winds had remained in their Arctic homes. Mrs. J. J. Peart spent the holidays with kindred in Owen Sound. Mrs. Geo. Blair left on Friday to visit her daughter, Mrs. L. Frook, of Proton. Miss Jennett Gray was a visitor with former schoolmates at Varney over the week end. After a few pleasant weeks' visit to the Robson homestead, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. May and baby left last Wednesday for Toronto, and will journey on later to Saskatoon. The Traverston bridge has been made passable for the travelling public, and when the days grow warmer, will be completed. 'Tis going to be a superior structure to the ordinary rural bridges. Miss Mary Peters took a trip down to the Queen City to visit her sister and other friends. Mr. Theodore Fallaise of town enjoyed Easter with Mr. and Mrs. John O. Greenwood. Messrs. John and Alf O'Neill did some quick sawing with their steam engine and buzz-saw outfit last week. Teacher W. R. Wallace has put in a good deal of faithful study and work during the long term since New Year's, but is "playing the boy" again at the old home in Normanby. Mr. Jacob Cook left on Wednesday of last week for Toronto, where he will spend a few days after which he'll return to his fine homestead and pre-emption adjoining the village of Chaplain, Sask. He has spent a most enjoyable winter with relatives here. Mr. Lorne McNally left the same day, and after a few days' visit with his sister in the city, will go to Winnipeg, and if good opportunity presents itself for railway position will readily avail himself of it. Lorne is a lusk, clever fellow, with an inclination to railway life.

Recently, to Mr. and Mrs. David E. Davis, of Bruce, Sask., the stork left a little baby girl. The cup-reading is proving true. On Thursday of this week, Mr. Mal. Black makes his final trip as mail carrier on the Eborale-Traverston route. Free rural delivery begins on Friday, after that the patrons of those two offices will be R. R. No. 1, Markdale. Mr. Black has proved a most obliging, faithful courier, more than once carrying that heavy mail-bag on his shoulders when the roads were impassable for a horse.

"IS ABSOLUTELY MARVELLOUS AS A PAINKILLER"

Mrs. Beatrice Cassey of Swale-cliff, England, knows what it is to be bedridden with pain. She also knows now how easily the tortures of Rheumatism and Lumbago may be overcome. She says, "My experience with KEPHALDOL as a pain-killer is absolutely marvellous. I had a fearfully acute attack last year of Neuritis, Sciatica and Lumbago, and suffered in bed for many days. Finally I heard of KEPHALDOL, which did wonders for me. I shall always feel most grateful for what it has done, and I am most happy to let others know of its wonderful effects as a pain destroyer." KEPHALDOL is the only pain reliever that does not affect the heart. It acts directly on the nerve centres, easing and quieting the pain. KEPHALDOL is the favorite combination of nerve stimulants and tonics prescribed by the famous Dr. Stohr, of Vienna, the great nerve specialist. KEPHALDOL is now sold in Canada by druggists in 50c tubes or may be had by sending 50c direct to Kephaldol, Limited, 31 Latour Street, Montreal.

Mr. J. A. McMullen of Mt. Forest has sold his residence to Mr. A. Gibson, and is said to have purchased a residence in Toronto with a view to moving to the city.

work out a position as well as any book taught navigator, and I had been a great reader too. My private cabin was ever crowded with books. Much of my earnings were spent that way. I had wit enough to choose good books, too, and perseverance enough to study them well. I knew more than she—oh, much more!—about everything but the usages of good society, and I had at least learned something of good manners in her company since her father's death. My shipmates used to laugh at me for being a book deliverer—a worm, they would call it. Well, they didn't laugh very long. There was nothing physical for which I need stand aside for any man. I was over six feet high and built in proportion. I could, unaided and alone, hold the wheel of the best ship in the bestest storm. Continued next week.
