THIS TRAGIC LETTER—

How would you answer it?
Between the lines of this short letter you can read grim tragedy. If its awful words made to you, personally, how would you answer it? Suppose you held the power to receive this poor woman or to turn her away, which would you do?
"Will you kindly give me information concerning admission of a very needy woman near me. Her husband is dead, and she is in consumption. She has two small children, at present in an orphan's home, as the mother is not able to care for them, and their only income is what an aged mother earns. They live in one small room."
It is easy to say, "Why, of course, I would offer relief, if it were in my power!" But, think! Are you sincere when you say that? Are you in earnest? Do you really want to help poor, suffering consumptives? Then here is your chance to prove your sincerity.
Contributions to the Muskoka Free Hospital for Consumptives will be gratefully acknowledged by W. J. Gage, Chairman Executive Committee, 84 Spadina Avenue, or R. Dunbar, Secretary - Treasurer, 347 King Street West, Toronto.

OBLIGING.

"Have you obliging neighbors?"
"We have. They are obliging us to move by the infernal racket they keep up nights."

FLESHERTON.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Cairns, recently married, were given a pleasant surprise at their home on the west back line on Friday evening last, when the Presbyterian choir, of which Mr. Cairns has been for many years a member, presented the young couple with a handsome piece of silverware in the form of a baking dish. The good wishes of the choir were expressed by the pastor, Rev. Mr. McVicar. The ladies served refreshments and an enjoyable evening was spent.

Word was received here last week of the death of Mr. Joseph Strain, who died on the 7th inst., at Bow Island, Alta., where he had been living for a number of years. For two years he suffered with heart trouble. The deceased, who was a brother of the late Mr. Wm. Strain, formerly of this village, was for many years a resident of Artemesia, near Inistioge. He was a kind-hearted and very highly respected man; for many years a faithful member and local preacher in the Methodist church. We regret to learn that Miss Clemma Strain, who lived with her brother, is an invalid from a paralytic stroke, with which she was seized a year ago. Miss Strain also formerly lived at Inistioge, where she was very highly esteemed. Her friends here deeply sympathize with her in her affliction and present bereavement.

At the annual meeting of the Methodist Sunday school last week the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Superintendent, W. H. Bunt, Asst. T. Clayton, Secy., E. Wright, Treas. and Librarian, T. Clayton, Organist, Miss Maud Boyd. The former staff of teachers were re-appointed.

At the Quarterly Official Board meeting of the Methodist church on Wednesday evening last, the following were elected stewards for the ensuing 12 months: R. Walker, W.A. Armstrong, T.A. Blakely, R. Richardson and W.H. Bunt, Recording Steward, who was also appointed representative to the district meeting. Messrs. Lundy Johnston and Howard Graham were re-elected stewards for Meaford Road appointment. A unanimous invitation was given the pastor to remain a second year. At the close of the regular church service on Sunday morning the congregation elected society representatives on the Quarterly Board as follows: R.J. Sproule, J. Blakely, T. Clayton, I. Sinclair, S. Hemphill, F.G. Karstedt.

At a congregational meeting in the Methodist church on Thursday evening last there was an excellent review of the work done during the past conference year. Reports were presented from the various organizations of the church, all of which showed progress in work, and the finances in a very healthy condition. Over 80 new members were added during the year. Some discussion took place about providing a new parsonage and a committee was appointed to confer with the Trustee Board. Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting, and an enjoyable social time spent. The chemical fire engine here on approval was given another trial last week and did very good work, but so far we have not learned the mind of the council respecting a purchase.

Died.—At Toronto, on May 14, Mrs. Lydia Fuller, in her 98th year. The News contained an excellent photograph of the deceased on Friday last. The esteemed old lady, who was a zealous member of the Methodist church, resided here for some time with her son-in-law, Mr. Thos. Hill, general merchant.

Mrs. Geo. Bellamy received word last week that her brother, Mr. Fred Rutledge, C.P.R. agent at Woodbridge, was ill with scarlet fever in Winnipeg Hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Rutledge lost their only child recently with the fever, and after quarantine went to the west on a visit.

The junior baseball team here went to Kimberley for a match on Saturday but were defeated. About a dozen young ladies accompanied the boys, and all picked up Eugenia.
Mr. Dyer, an Armenian student in Victoria College, Toronto, preached in the Methodist church on Sunday evening and gave a very interesting address on The Mohammedan Church and Christian persecution. He speaks again this Monday evening under the auspices of the League.

Last Sabbath being Peace Sunday throughout the world, it was fittingly observed in the Presbyterian church, the pastor preaching an excellent sermon appropriate to the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Matheson of Belleville, are visiting the former's aunt, Mrs. W. A. Armstrong. Mrs. Matheson gave a sweetly rendered solo in the Methodist church on Sunday morning.

Mr. Geo. Strain of Gore Bay visited old friends here on Friday. Mrs. W. Trimble left last week to visit her sister, Mrs. Rev. Edmunds, at Walton, and friends at Blyth.

Mr. and Mrs. P. Quigg are spending a week with their daughters in Toronto.
Mr. Robt. Bellamy, bank clerk, Toronto, is home on two weeks' holidays.

Mr. John White is visiting his son in Toronto.
Mrs. Fred Matheson visited the past week with friends at Hamilton, Toronto and Newmarket.
Mr. Ed. Sloan of Kimberley, spent part of last week with relatives here and left on Monday to join his brother in California.

At the Guild meeting in the Presbyterian church last week, Mrs. Dr. Carter took the topic, "Health hints for better living" and gave an excellent address, which was very highly appreciated.
The present High school staff, Principal White and Miss Hulse, have been engaged for another year.

Mr. Robt. Thistlewaite returned to the city on Monday, after a few days' visit at his home here.

Mr. John Thistlewaite has gone to Toronto for the summer to ply his trade of bricklaying.

Another of the early settlers of Artemesia has passed away in the person of Mrs. Ann Wright, relict of the late Mr. John Wright, who died at the home of her daughter at Stouffville, on Monday, May 18, in her 89th year.

The remains will be brought to Flesherton for interment in the family plot, where her husband was laid over 11 years ago. The deceased was born in Ireland, but when quite young, came with her parents to Canada, settling at Port Credit, where in 1856 she was married to Mr. Wright and came to Artemesia, settling in this village, which then contained but very few houses. She was a good woman, a kind mother, and ready ever to sacrifice for her children, by whom she will long be held in loving memory. In religion she was a Methodist and from her early days a faithful member of the church. An esteemed family of four sons and one daughter survive, viz., John, bailiff, Flesherton; William H. barrister, Owen Sound; David T. principal of Dundalk High school; Robert, principal of Leamington High school and Mrs. Frank Forsythe of Stouffville, formerly a teacher, and by whom she was nursed the past year.
