MT. FOREST DISTRICT METH-ODISTS' ANNUAL MEETING

It is some time since an annual district meeting of the Mt. Forest District of the Methodist church, has been held in Durham. The gathering of last Thursday and Friday of ministers and laymen to review the year's work and plan for the future, was of the happiest character. Despite some decreases in membership, the reports showed splendid progress.

Thursday's session was taken up with a review of ministerial efficiency and the examination of candidates for the ministry. One new candidate was recommended. Mr. Bertram Neunham of Damascus. In the evening, Rev. C. L. Poole of Grand Valley, preached Between the lines of this short letter you an able sermon on 'Christ Our Example.'
