WHITNEY'S WORK FOR TEMPERANCE

Liquor Licenses Reduced From 2814 to 1600 in Ten Years

ROWELL UPHELD ROSS

During Notorious Era of Liquor Law Frauds, Liberals Twice Defied Temperance Sentiment

Mr. Rowell bases his hope for victory on the seductive power of a single campaign cry. That the electors of Ontario may be blinded to the other great issues seems the chance of success into which he is throwing all his efforts. The Whitney Government's request that the electorate express their opinion on the Workmen's Compensation Act, the highways improvement proposals apportioning $30,000,000 to new roads, and the Hydro radicals legislation, excites Mr. Rowell only to an expression of agreement, or the most meagre criticism. Even upon the single issue which he has selected, the Government of Sir James Whitney is doubly willing to have the judgment of the electors. Placed side by side the records of Sir James Whitney and Mr. Rowell in regard to temperance are precisely as follows: Rowell Upheld Ross Mr. Rowell supported by his votes and numerous platform appearances

HON. SIR JAMES P. WHITNEY, K.C.M.G., Prime Minister of Ontario

the long era of Liberal rule in Ontario during which two Liberal Governments pledged themselves to enact the largest measure of prohibition in their power, although upon receiving large majorities favoring prohibition deliberately disregarded either promises or plebiscites. Mr. Rowell stood shoulder to shoulder with his party in those twin fiascos. The notorious administration of liquor laws by the Ross Government brought from him no word of condemnation, even though the laxity of law enforcement and the misuse of the licensing power excited distrust throughout the ranks of Liberal electors, and caused in part the downfall of that administration.

With that as his political past, Mr. Rowell resurrects in 1914 the old Liberal device, the promise of partial prohibition trusting that memories may not recall the dismal associations which Liberalism has contributed to the cause of temperance in Ontario. Against Mr. Rowell's third-time offer of the Liberal sudden-cure, Sir James Whitney and his Government place the demonstrated facts of an enormous advance towards real temperance since the term of their administration began.

The Ross Government left the province with 2,814 liquor licenses in 1904. In ten years under the Whitney Government's plan of constantly strengthening the hands of the temperance forces, no less than 1,214 licenses were cut off. In the past eight years the number of municipalities under local option has increased from 96 to 347, while the taxes placed on the liquor trade have been exactly doubled. Only by the strictest and non-partisan enforcement of the license laws, and by over two-score important amendments to the Act, has such striking progress been possible. The ill-working local option bylaws of the old government were rendered practicable and clear, the power of the municipal councils over local option votes was cancelled, and the expressed will of the people was otherwise made supreme and easy of application.

Unsolicited Testimonies

Testimonies to the Whitney Government's achievements in the interests of temperance have come from all quarters. The Pioneer, the organ of the Dominion Alliance, said on Nov. 11th, 1910: "One of the best forms of local option is in force in the province of Ontario."

General Booth, on Ontario's management of the liquor traffic: "In this respect Ontario leads the world."

The Pioneer, March, 1910: "The liquor laws are carried out in a manner that reflects credit upon the Government in general and in particular upon the gentleman at the head of that department."

Mr. Joseph Gibson, President Ontario Alliance: "You did your duty. You said at the start that you would make the license holders keep hotel, and you did."

TRAVERTON.

We regret that the longest days of the season are over. It has been an enjoyable summer so far.

Friday's rain did a world of good to the hay, grain and pasture, but the heavy frost the same night blackened many a vegetable plot and blasted many a field of promising corn.

Zion's Sunday school picnic is to be held on Saturday afternoon of this week in the Peart Edwards grove. There's a welcome to everybody at this happy annual event.

The groundhogs make their wills when they learn that Mr. Ed. Embury of Toronto is coming up for a visit. He is a guest at the home of Mr. W. J. Cook and in three days despatched 22 fat rascals.

Miss Muriel Cornell of the Queen City arrived at the Edwards' homestead on Saturday evening, to spend a fortnight's holidays.

Mr. Wm. Firth took the train last Wednesday for M. Lancton to visit his brother George. He just got away in time to miss shovelling in the gravel pit.

It is a pleasure to see Mrs. William Anderson home again from Toronto, much improved in health by her visit.

Basid Davis disposed of a fine five-year-old mare at the horse fair on Thursday last.

Statute labor is being performed right along these days, and we notice that most of the pathmasters are raking off all the loose stones. You can tell easily where it is not done by the stubbed toes of the barefooted urchins on their way to school.

McCullum deserves great credit for first practicing "raking the roads."

Mrs. McIvema of Estevan, Miss Carley of Oxbow and Wil Smith of Hamilton were guests at Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Blair several days last week.

The first annual Sunday School Association of the town of Durham and Township of Gleneig was held in Zion on Thursday afternoon and evening of last week and was a splendid success.

Four urban and seven rural schools comprise the union and all were well represented. Among those we noticed from rural schools were: Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Watson, Mrs. A. Tacker and Mr. Ford from Ebenezer; Mr. and Mrs. J. Chard and Miss Clara from near Markdale; Mr. and Mrs. S. Putterbaugh and Mrs. J. McKechnie from the Rocky; Mr. A. Beaton and a quartette of McGillivray girls from Gleneig Centre; Supt. W. J. Ritchie, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Ritchie, Misses Valeria and Maggie Edge and a dozen others from Edge Hill; Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Barclay of Muloch and a score or more from the 10th con. Baptist church; members of the Weir and Atkinson families from No. 9, and a score or more of Durham's brightest maids and matrons under the protecting care of Revs. W. W. Prudham and W. W. Wylie. South Grey's Co. Pres., Mr. John Taylor of Hanover, and the Rev. J. W. Rae of Toronto were present, the former giving a good summary of the work already done and encouraging words, while the latter gave three most inspiring and eloquent addresses. It was Rev. W. W. Wylie's first appearance at Zion and his earnest, thoughtful address at the evening session won him warm praises.

Mrs. J. A. Graham had a glowing report of the work done in the Cradle Roll Dept. She is a clever and affable speaker. Miss Valeria Edge has done excellent work in the Home Dept. and had a promising report. Mrs. W. W. Prudham has set the missionary machine at work in several of the schools and is meeting with marked success.

Between the sessions the crowd were supplied in Mr. A. G. Blair's commodious implement house, where the fair ones of Zion had a bountiful supply of dainty edibles, and where a most-splendid hour was spent. It has a wonderfully helpful influence, this meeting and mingling of so many earnest Sunday school workers. Rev. W. W. Prudham had charge of the nominating committee and gave valuable help all through the sessions. The officers elected for next year are: Pres., R. T. Edwards; Vice Pres., W. R. Watson; Sec.-Treas., Thos. Allan; Elementary do., John Weir; Adult do., S. Putterbaugh; Teacher Training Dept., Rev. W. H. Hartley; Temperance do., J. A. Graham; Home do., Miss Mary A. Edge; Missionary do., Mrs. (Rev.) W. W. Prudham. The collections at both sessions amounted to $10.25, which defrayed the expenses of the representative from the Provincial Ass'n. and a snug balance in the Sec.-Treas.'s purse. The Association was most successful and harmonious throughout and will prove a strong incentive to all Sunday school workers.

A departmental committee which has been going into the conditions of agricultural credit in Ireland find that the indebtedness of Irish farmers has been increasing at the rate of $5,000,000 a year since, under the Wyndham land act, they commenced to settle on their own land.

Jas. Leblond, aged 64, is dead at his home at the foot of the inclined railway, just above the upper steel arch bridge at Niagara Falls. He conducted a souvenir stand at the foot of the railway for many years, and up to the time of the ice bridge tragedy had from one to three shacks on the ice bridge from year to year, in which he sold souvenirs and intoxicants.
