GEDDES—HOOPER.

On Wednesday of last week a very pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Abraham Hooper, Hawthorn Avenue, Priceville, when their daughter Bertha became the bride of Mr. J. Gordon Geddes, of Egremont.

At six o'clock, to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, played by the bride's sister, Mrs. Thomas Bothwell, of Alberta, the handsome bride, beautifully attired in duchess satin trimmed with pearl trimming, entered the drawing room on the arm of her father and was gracefully given away.

In the presence of about 70 guests, nearly all relatives of the contracting parties, the nuptial knot was well and securely tied by the Rev. Mr. Leese of the Methodist church. The young couple were unattended. A niece of the bride, whose name we regret has been omitted, dressed in white embroidery, and carrying a basket of white roses, strewed the bride's path as she marched to the sacred altar. The bride carried a bouquet of white roses and ferns, and looked charming under a rose-decked arch of evergreens, from the centre of which hung a large white bell.

After the ceremony was concluded and congratulations extended, all repaired to the dining-room, beautifully and artistically decorated with white garlands and bells. The table groaned beneath its load of tempting edibles, the four-storey wedding cake forming a fitting centre for the festive occasion. The dining room decorations were sent by Mrs. Herb Greenwood, a sister of the groom, and the charming arrangement gave an esthetic air to all the surroundings.

The valuable, useful and ornamental presents attest the esteem in which the bride was held, and the many good wishes show an earnest hope for the future happiness and prosperity of the young couple.

Guests from a distance were: Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Henderson of Dundalk, Mr. and Mrs. A. Fettes of Saskatchewan, the Shand family of Hopeville, Miss Robena Geddes of Holstein, Mrs. T. McDougall of Port Arthur, Mr. and Mrs. Baird of Markdale, Mr. and Mrs. T. Bothwell of Alberta, and Mr. and Mrs. Isaac of Durham. The Chronicle adds its congratulations.

CRAIGIE—MACKAY.

A quiet wedding took place yesterday afternoon at the Presbyterian manse at five o'clock, when Rev. Mr. MacBeth united in marriage Miss Anna MacKay, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Mackay of Durham, Ontario, to Mr. Herbert Craigie, youngest son of Mrs. Craigie, of Paris. Later, Mr. and Mrs. Craigie left on the 5.40 train for Buffalo and Toronto, where their wedding trip will be spent. Mr. and Mrs. Craigie will reside in Paris.—Brantford Courier, June 10.

FACTS FROM THE CANADIAN COURIER.

In regard to temperance legislation, the Liberal party's record is not as good as that of the Conservatives. There was a referendum in favor of prohibition in 1894, and another in 1902, yet the Liberals did little or nothing to improve the laws. Between 1898 and 1904 not a single amendment was made. On the other hand, the Conservatives have made the license laws more strict in almost every year that they have been in power. For example:
1905—No child to get liquor even with order.
1906—Made a first offense a first offense, a second offense a second, and a third a third. Local option by laws obligatory on a petition of 25 per cent. of the electors. Clubs must procure licenses.
1908—When local option quashed, licenses revive only on direct order of minister.
1909—Heavier fines on unlicensed persons; and constables empowered to seize without a warrant.
1910—Bars closed on Christmas Day.
1911—Percentage of bar receipts to go to Government. Local option petitions reduced from 25 to 10 per cent.
1912—Many amendments. No tavernkeeper to cash pay checks. Brewers cannot store in local option district. Being intoxicated in local option made an offense.
1913—Tavern keepers prohibited from selling bottles. Selling hours changed from 6 a.m. to 8 a.m.

1914—Bars closed on Good Friday.

These are not all, but merely samples. The laws of Ontario are now very strict, as well as being strictly enforced. Indeed, they are probably the severest set of laws in any country in the world where licenses are in force.

BEAUTIFUL HAIR—A CLEAN, COOL SCALP.

Use Parisian Sage. It Makes the Hair Fluffy and Abundant.

It is needless for you to have hair that is anything short of perfect. If it is falling out, losing color, splitting, or if the scalp burns and itches, immediately get from Macfarlane & Co. or any drug counter a 50-cent bottle of Parisian Sage—use it frequently—the first application removes dandruff, invigorates the scalp, and beautifies the hair until it is gloriously radiant.

Parisian Sage supplies hair needs—is perfectly harmless. It contains the exact elements required to make the hair soft, wavy, glossy and to make it grow thick and beautiful.

You will surely like Parisian Sage. It is one of the best and most delightful hair tonics known.

The attendance at the Canadian National Exhibition last year was one million and nine thousand. This year, with larger demand for exhibit space, better accommodation for live stock, the best bands of two continents, and everything the amusement world affords, it is confidently expected the attendance will reach a million and a quarter.

How's Business?

Advertising, backed up by the right spirit, the right goods and the right service, can rescue a sinking business and will make a prosperous business more masterful in its own community.

When John Wanamaker, the Prince of Merchants, began business, he resolved to force matters. He was not content to WAIT to be found out—he DETERMINED TO BE found out. In short, he advertised. He threw on his business, small as it was, the light of publicity, and the public of Philadelphia entered the shop on which the light shone.

In this community the public is entering those shops on which the light of advertising is falling.

A WORD TO THE PUBLIC

Be sure of this: those who are using our columns week after week do not give poorer goods or service, or have higher prices.

Shops which are illuminated by advertising court with full confidence your favor.

The Daughter of David Kerr

By HARRY KING TOOTLE

THE boss of a provincial town keeps his daughter away at school in ignorance of his doubtful civic status. She comes home unexpectedly when a packing company wants a dishonest franchise, and when an independent newspaper editor threatens the boss's supremacy. How the boss is beaten, and the independent editor wins the daughter form as graphic a story of modern politics and society as has been written.
