NEWS AROUND TOWN

This is horse fair day.

Special program on Thursday and Saturday evenings at the Star Theatre. Admission 10c.

A recount in North Bruce will take place on Friday. Wm. McDonald, Liberal, was officially elected by four.

We are pleased to know that Mr. Alex. Nevin is improving, after being laid up for the past two months with rheumatism.

Last Monday's issue of London Advertiser was in the nature of a Development Number, and totaled 32 pages. It is a most creditable issue and sets forth the great future possibilities of the Forest City.

The annual garden party of the Presbyterian church will take place on the manse grounds on Friday evening, July 17. A good program is being prepared and the Band will be in attendance. Everybody welcome. Admission 10 cents.

On Friday last, Mr. W.J. Wilson of Boothville learned of the death in Toronto of a sister, Mrs. Campbell. He, in company with his brother, Noble, and a nephew, J. R. Wilson, left at once to be present at the funeral, which took place at Port Hope on Saturday.

Special.—For two days only, on Friday and Saturday, we will sell some extra fine water tumblers at $1 per dozen, in dozen lots. These tumblers are of a fine, neat pattern, nice size, and of the best quality. Remember, two days only, Friday and Saturday, July 17 and 18.—The Variety Store.

Early in the season the peach crop was predicted a failure but recent reports from the Niagara peninsula indicate good prospects. Cherries were so plentiful, and the prices so low that many were left unpicked. The low prices didn't seem to reach as far as Durham, as prices asked here were considered high enough.

The High School Entrance results appear in this issue and it is quite in order to tender congratulations to candidates and teachers, who can now measure the fruitage of a hard year's work. Miss Mackenzie has again passed her whole class of twenty-two, twelve of whom took honors. This is the old, old story, as no failures have occurred amongst her candidates for several years.

Nine candidates for confirmation were presented by Rev. W. H. Hartley to the Bishop of Huron last Thursday evening in Trinity church. The Bishop took for his text Eph. v. i (revised version) "Be ye imitators of God as beloved children," and preached a forceful sermon, full of lucid reasoning, irresistible logic, and drove home to the hearts of his hearers some excellent moral instruction.

Last week we referred to an offer received by Principal Allan to take charge of Madoc Model school at $1500 a year. Since then the Board here has decided to increase his salary to $1500 and Mr. Allan will remain. Having his property here seems a sufficient tie to cause an annual sacrifice of $300 a year. Even at the increased salary the Board would have difficulty in filling the position by an outsider. Mr. Allan's former salary was $1200.

Mr. Wm. Nelson, an old resident of Egremont, and father of Mrs. Wm. Clark of this town, died last Thursday in Normanby, and was buried Saturday afternoon at Maplewood cemetery. He was 84 years of age and the last surviving member of the family. He was predeceased a few weeks ago by his brother John, who died at the age of 80 years. He was a quiet, kindly-dispositioned old gentleman and as he spent considerable time with his daughter here, was well known to many in town. Though advanced in years his memory and intellectual faculties were quite unimpaired, and his health, with the exception of stomach trouble, was quite good up to the time of his death.

Several from here took in the Orange demonstration at St. Marys on Monday.

Found.—In Durham, on July 11, a child's coat. Owner may have it by paying for this ad. Apply to W. Falkingham, Durham.

A couple of rinks of Durham bowlers are competing in the tournament at Mt. Forest this week.

C. Smith & Sons disposed of 11 Ford cars since opening up here three months ago. This includes the one used by themselves.

Dr. Brown, eye, ear, nose and throat, will be at the Hahn House on Saturday, July 18 from 12 to 5 p.m. Eyes tested and glasses supplied.

Hanover is getting a Government drill hall, and we hope it will be useful as well as ornamental. Durham has an armory building, but—

The Durham Band gave a good account of themselves at the Orange demonstration at Markdale on Saturday. Their many selections were much appreciated. They are becoming a good musical aggregation.

Messrs. Cox & Rabb have received notice from their landlord to vacate the premises they have occupied and used as a pool-room since coming here a couple of years ago. It is rumored that another store is to be opened there in the course of a few weeks, but the report is not confirmed. The pool-room men are looking out for other premises.

Wednesday afternoons will be observed as a half holiday by the merchants during July and August. Last week some out-of-town customers came in with butter and eggs and had some difficulty in finding purchasers. We regret that any should be put to inconvenience, but hope the new order of things will soon be understood. The open nights will be Thursday night of each week instead of Wednesday night as formerly. Saturday night, the stores will be open as usual.

The result of the Lower School Departmental examinations appeared last week, and our school has again made a good showing. Twenty of the thirty who wrote were successful in passing. Of the thirty, only twenty-four were recommended by the Principal, and on the basis of his judgment there were only four failures. The successful candidates were nearly 67 per cent. of the whole number who wrote, or nearly 84 per cent. of those who were recommended.

On Friday afternoon last the remains of the late Mrs. Robert Aljoe, Sr., were laid to rest in the Durham cemetery. At 1:30 the funeral cortege left the family home for the Methodist church, where an appropriate sermon was preached by her pastor, Rev. W.W. Prudham. The pall-bearers were William, Lorne and Alex. Aljoe, grandsons, R.C. Watson, great-grandson, and W.R. Watson and Thos. Tucker, both married to granddaughters of the deceased. It was intended at first to have the five grandsons and one great-grandson act, but Arthur Aljoe, of Hanover, was not notified in time, though he arrived in time for the funeral.

What might have been a serious runaway accident happened on the Corktown hill, south of here, on Saturday night. Mr. John Allan, son of the late James Allan, was driving home, when a big auto, presumably from Guelph, hove in sight, and though signalled to stop, paid no attention to the driver of the horse. The result was that the horse wheeled on the hill and started back towards town. In turning around, the bit broke, and the buggy upsetting, Mr. Allan was thrown out. Practically no damage was done to either rig or driver, as the horse turned at the first corner and ran into Limin's slaughter-house yard, where it was easily captured.

AN IMPORTANT NOTICE

Many of our readers are aware that The Chronicle has changed its location, having moved from the old Foundry building to the brick store in which Mr. S. Scott conducted business for the past thirty years. We bought the property, and want money to pay for it and meet our other obligations. To make a long story short, and come directly to the point, we want all who owe us to pay up. We will appreciate prompt attention. The accounts are small, individually, but the aggregate amounts to a large sum. Most people intend to pay some time, and no time would suit us better than NOW. Let us see how many will act on the spirit of this suggestion and send in their remittances during the present month.

W. IRWIN.

THE 12th IN MARKDALE

In the Orange demonstration at Markdale on Saturday, it is estimated that 10,000 were present. Fifteen hundred Orangemen are reported to have taken part in the procession and as there were 40 lodges in attendance we have no doubt the estimate was a very fair one.

From early morning, lodges and visitors from the surrounding county were making their way towards Markdale. Early in the forenoon, a train of 13 crowded coaches pulled in from Owen Sound and intermediate stations, and shortly afterwards 15 crowded coaches came in from Orangeville and Durham. The town was then, and for the rest of the day, a veritable hive of humanity and all seemed to be out for enjoyment.

The first thing that strikes the eye of the visitor to Markdale on all occasions is the exquisite taste shown by the C.P.R. agent, who is known and noted far and wide for the excellent way in which the station grounds have been kept. The spic and span appearance of the station and its surroundings is certainly creditable, and makes a very wide contrast with the shaggy and unkempt appearance of many other stations in similar and even larger places. The decorations of the town were neat and attractive. Instead of erecting arches as in most cases, the committee decided it better not to obstruct the highway by arches or anything that would have a tendency to frighten horses and cause a general street litter. They put up bunting instead and at many places the streets were spanned with red white and blue streamers, while flags and patriotic emblems were everywhere in evidence.

To feed the multitudes would seem like a big undertaking, but in this the plans were so complete that the very best service was rendered and no person would experience difficulty in having his wants supplied. The hotels had all they could handle and all had a big patronage and rendered excellent services under the circumstances. Besides, the ladies of the Presbyterian church provided for any reasonable emergency at the Armories at meal times, and were largely patronized. The Methodist church too made extensive preparations and served meals in the church basement and in Jackson's implement shop down town. Numerous nooks and corners were also provided with lunch counters and no person had any need to delay long before his inner cravings could be fully satisfied.

About two o'clock, the forces began to line up in the agricultural grounds, and the march to Riverside Park was soon commenced in the following order:
