HOLSTEIN.

The Methodist Sunday school picnic was held in the park last Wednesday and was quite a success. The pupils of the school and others entered heartily into the various sports and many a proud winner displayed his badge of red. A tempting lunch was afterwards served, and the afternoon's outing was ended.
The Presbyterian Sunday school picnic was held also in the park on Monday afternoon. The prospects were bright for a splendid time. The competition in the sports was keen. This being ended, all were preparing for lunch, when the western sky began to darken. Dr. Marsh said "a storm is almost on, we had better repair to the basement of the church" but ere that was accomplished the rain descended and drenched nearly all. Thus ended the programme.
Mr. and Mrs. Misner, Mr. and Mrs. Robb and Mr. Jones packed their trunks at Troy and autoed to Holstein last Saturday and stopped at the parsonage over Sunday, when they commenced the return trip.

Mrs. W. B. Sutton and family spent a few days lately in the Queen City.

The anniversary services of the Yeovil Methodist church will be held on Sunday and Monday, the 6th and 7th inst. The services on Sunday will be conducted by the pastor, Rev. T. H. Ibbot, Ph.D. On Monday an old-time tea-meeting will be held. A splendid program is being prepared. Rev. Dr. Marsh, Revs. B.E. Newham and B.M. Smith will give addresses. Dr. Ferguson of Holstein will be in the chair, and all they ask for all this is 25 cents for adults and 15 cents for children. Could you have a good time for less?
