AMERICANS OBJECT TO UNFAIR TACTICS EMPLOYED BY THE GERMANS

A despatch from New York last Saturday says: "Unless the United States intervenes at once, London and Paris will be attacked and fired by a fleet of German Zeppelins. The attack is not far off, and the only hand that can stay the hand of unscrupulous Germany is the United States." This statement was made last night on board the White Star liner Olympic by F. Hopkinson-Smith, the author and painter, who returned from Glasgow after a trip of five months abroad. As soon as the Olympic docked Mr. Smith mailed to President Wilson a set of resolutions protesting against the use of bombs dropped from aeroplanes and Zeppelins upon women and children. It was signed by 200 prominent passengers on the Olympic and with it Mr. Smith sent the following personal letter to the President:

To Halt the Zeppelin

"I have the honor to forward to you the inclosed memorandum, which explains itself. We earnestly beg that some steps may be taken to forestall, before it is too late, the setting free of the fleet of Zeppelins and aeroplanes which are now preparing for this deadly work. We feel it is not a question of neutrality, but a question of humanity and that any power refusing to heed your wise and humane counsel would forfeit the sympathy of the world."

The meeting which was held on Thursday night in aid of the Red Cross authorized the following resolutions:

"That a copy of these resolutions be forwarded to the President of the United States, accompanied by a personal letter, begging him in the interests of humanity, to protest, as far as lay in his power, against the continuance of this practice.

Contrary to Self Respect

"First—Because it is contrary to the instincts of all self-respecting nations.

"Second—As being sure to alienate every particle of sympathy from those endorsing such outrages, and

"Third—As not only brutal and cruel in the last degree, but without any other military advantage than the terrorizing, maiming and killing of innocent non-combatants, who are helpless against such attacks."

Mr. Smith said that few in this country realize what a menace threatens London. He predicted that there would be many innocent women and children killed in their beds and in the streets, if the United States did not step in and warn Germany.

Calls London Helpless

"London is helpless against this Zeppelin attack," he says, "and it is coming as sure as fate. The Germans are rushing their work on the air fleet, and I hope sincerely that the United States will advise them to abandon it before it is too late. I am confident that Germany would heed a warning from his Government.

"I am a disciple of neutrality. I believe firmly in the President's idea of neutrality. It has to do with legitimate warfare, but the dropping of bombs on unfortified cities by stealth in the middle of the night, when no one can defend himself, is not warfare. It is brutal treachery, and in the name of humanity it should be stopped."

He said that Germans are openly boasting that they have no desire to take Paris. They say they will set it on fire and that they will burn London, so that Berlin, the only city worth while in all the world, may be prosperous and grow.

Germany is Fighting Foully

"When I left London the city was in darkness every night. By darkness I mean that every light is out. A wealthy friend of mine told me that he had a certain light to look out for. He had assumed the responsibility for the putting out of that street light at the proper hour each night and seeing that it was kept out. It is the same everywhere.

"London knows this Zeppelin raid is coming, but the city is calmly and stoically awaiting it.

"Germany has defied the civilized world. She has gone into a fight against civilization and challenged the right of anyone but Germans to live and prosper."

Mr. Smith said that Germany was not fighting fair, and that unless some power like the United States took cognizance of her tactics she would continue to fight foul.

The bride's sister, Miss Zilla Trimble, played Lohengrin's wedding march, and while the register was being signed sang "Love's Coronation." The stately bride, who was given away by her father, looked lovely in a gown of cream broadcloth, with guipure lace trimming. She carried a shower bouquet of cream roses. The young couple were unattended and only immediate relatives present, the out of town guests being Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Crane and Mrs. Ed. Frost, Owen Sound. After the marriage a choice wedding breakfast was served, the table and house decorations being artistically done with yellow chrysanthemums and smilax. On their return, they will settle in their home at 594 4th avenue east, Owen Sound, where they will be at home to their friends after November 1. The bride, who was one of the most highly esteemed young ladies of this place, was the recipient of a large number of beautiful wedding gifts. On the eve of her marriage she was given a miscellaneous shower by her young friends in town.
