FLESHERTON.

The Methodist Ladies' Aid gave a good concert in the town hall on Friday evening last, the pastor, Rev. Mr. Dudgeon, presiding. An excellent program was given, on which a leading part was taken by Mr. Bert Petch, elocutionist, of Toronto, a former Flesherton boy, who appeared here for the first time in the role of entertainer and was accorded a very hearty reception. He has a good stage appearance, possesses a fine voice, and vividly portrays the picture in his mind. His numbers, dramatic and humorous, were given with good effect, and the pleasure of the audience was indicated in the hearty recalls he received. Bert is a pupil of Mr. Elwood Genoe, and is a rising artist in his profession. We were pleased to receive a call from him and he favored us by his splendid portrayal of "Down by the Rio Grande." Miss Maud Boyd and Miss Reta Buskin gave two pretty duets, and responded to hearty encores. A little tot, Miss Laura Boyd, was very cute and taking in a song sweetly sung. A solo each by Miss Irene Wilson and Mr. H. Sullivan, a duet by Miss Trimble and Mr. Jones, a trio by Miss Richardson, Miss Trimble and Mrs. Blackburn, and a chorus by six boys, were pleasing numbers, and encores were responded to. Mr. Leslie, teacher at Kimberley, gave two splendidly rendered solos, in both of which he was recalled in the most appreciative manner. The National Anthem was the closing number. The proceeds were $34, of which a good donation will be given the Red Cross Society.

The Red Cross Society held a cake sale and served ten cent tea in the town hall on Saturday afternoon at which $33 were realized.

PRICEVILLE.

We are here yet, although a good many have passed away from the scene of action since we last wrote.

This 14th of November, 1914, sounds dreary. The winds blow from the east, and the weather was blustery during the past week. Ploughing was suspended during the last two days. This was a fine fall for ploughing, and a large acreage was turned over during October and November.

The business men of this town are preparing for the cold season by having a lot of necessaries attended to.

It is said that timbering will be no good this winter, as there will be no call for lumber to send away to foreign countries, on account of the war. However, in this part of the county of Grey, timber is pretty well taken out.

We hear the reports of guns every day in the neighboring swamps. If there were as many out 50 or 60 years ago with their muskets the early pioneers would not be so scared to travel through the woods on account of coming in contact with wild animals. The young people were not as fond of being out after dark as they are nowadays, for fear of meeting a bear, or a wolf, or some other wild beast.

Mrs. Robt. Shortreed met with a painful accident a couple of couple of weeks ago. Her son, a boy of 13, was coming from the field with a three-horse plow. The horses became uncontrollable and ran away. The mother, seeing them coming at a furious speed, attempted to stop them, and was trampled under their feet, besides some severe bruises, he sides some broken ribs. She was attended by Dr. Lane of this place and is now considered out of danger, and we hope to see her around again in a few days.

There were several deaths in this little town, which were not reported to The Chronicle. Mrs. Brown, an old and respected lady, who it was said, reached the century mark died a couple of weeks ago. She was one of the pioneers of Egremont, but a resident here for over 20 years. She was buried in the graveyard in this village.

Mrs. McArthur, relict of the late Donald McArthur, died a few days later, another of the old pioneers, at the age of about 80 years. She also was buried in the small graveyard here. Rev. Mr. Matheson officiating at both funerals.

On Friday last, the 13th of November, Mrs. McRobb, nee Hariet McDowell, of Egremont, was laid to rest in this town. She died suddenly on Wednesday of last week from heart failure.

The entertainment held lately in favor of the Belgian sufferers was fairly well attended, considering the unfavorable weather, but all who attended thought it a duty to help the cause. It is said that Rochefeller is giving a million a month for six months to aid those in want. Well, out of his hundreds of millions he is not doing any more than the poor man who gives ten cents a month for the former gives out of his abundance while the latter gives out of his poverty.

We saw Mr. Jos. Black of Toronto, son of the late Neil Black of Scotchtown, on his way to see his aged mother and brothers. He was driven by his cousin, Joseph Black of this town. The aged mother would rejoice to see her son come. Continued on page 5.

ZAM-BUK

MRS. A. SAICH, of Cannington Manor, Sask., Writes:—"My brother suffered severely from eczema. The sores were very extensive, and burned like coals into his flesh. Zam-Buk took out all the fire, and quickly gave him ease. Within three weeks of commencing with Zam-Buk treatment, every sore had been cured."

This is but one of the many letters we are constantly receiving from people who have proved the healing powers of Zam-Buk. For eczema, piles, sores, burns, cuts and all skin troubles there is nothing like this wonderful balm. No skin disease should be considered incurable until Zam-Buk has been tried.
