DURHAM ONT.

PAISLEY ON TOP.

Paisley Rifle Association has won about the highest distinction that any body of marksmen can attain in this country on their target practice at home. They have won first place in the Dominion of Canada indoor competition with service rifle and gallery ammunition. The aggregate score of the team of ten men was 3,832 points but of a possible of 4,000 in the series of matches. Quebec city association team was second, with a score of 3,577. Paisley team also took fifth place in the team shooting with 22 calibre sporting rifles, the scores in this aggregate 3,536. With such a perfectly accurate body of marksmen on defence. Paisley would be a place to be avoided by invaders. The rifle association held their annual meeting on Tuesday evening, when steps were taken to add to the membership as largely as possible just now and give training in target shooting to all who join.—Paisley Advocate.

FLESHERTON.

At the sacrament of the Lord's Supper in the Presbyterian church on Sunday there was a large attendance of communicants. At the preparatory service on Friday evening, five new members were received, one by certificate and four young men on profession of faith.

Mr. Pliny Loucks has had a valuable horse severely injured, a stake penetrating the breast deeply.

The Presbyterian Ladies' Aid held their annual meeting at the home of Mrs. A. S. VanDusen on the 1st inst., and elected officers for 1915 as follows: Hon. Pres., Mrs. VanDusen; Pres., Mrs. D. McTavish; Vice Pres., Mrs. Price Teeter; Sec.-Treas., Mrs. J. Blackburn; Visiting committee, Mrs. J. L. McMullen, Mrs. A. Harrison, Mrs. Jos. Radley. The treasurer's statement showed the society to be in a prosperous condition, with 37 members on the roll. It was resolved that new furniture be purchased for the pulpit.

At the monthly meeting of the Women's Institute last week, Mrs. Robt. Best, delegate to the recent convention in Toronto, gave an excellent report of the proceedings. Timely subjects were taken up by Mrs. C. W. Bellamy and Mrs. R. H. Moore, the former giving a good paper on "Making Christmas cake and pudding," and the latter a short talk on "How to help our members have a Merry Christmas."

Two loads of the Methodist Epworth League members visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Parker recently married, and gave the young couple a miscellaneous shower. During the evening, refreshments were served and an enjoyable social time was spent.

On Thursday last a bunch of nimrods from the village and Toronto line south engaged in a scrub hunt, and in the evening joined a large company at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Best, where a splendid fowl supper was served and a jolly evening was spent.

Mr. Robt. Clark, who moved from near Rock Mills to Idaho a few years ago, returned with his family last week, and we learn is likely to purchase a farm and remain in the old neighborhood.

Rev. J. W. Stewart of Owen Sound, spent Monday forenoon with Rev. Mr. Dudgeon, at the parsonage.

Miss Pearl Cairns, whose marriage was reported in The Chronicle last week, was presented with a handsome cut glass berry bowl by the Presbyterian choir here, of which she was a member.

A number from here attended "The Temple of Fame," given at Markdale on Friday evening last, and speak highly of the production.

Tax collector Wright was on his annual rounds in the village last week and the ratepayers were pleased to find their liabilities somewhat lower than a year ago. Rev. Mr. Dudgeon is assisting Rev. Jones in special services in Inistioige this week.

Mr. Jos. Duncan has purchased Mr Geo. Watson's brick residence, now occupied by Mr M. E. Wright, who will not be called on to move till spring.

Mr Mark Stewart is busy making interior improvements in his residence, recently purchased from Geo. Bellamy.

Married.—At the Methodist parsonage by Rev. Jas. Dudgeon on Wednesday, December 2, Mr. Wm. Arthur Beaupre of Nottawa village to Miss Myrtle Mae Holvood of Feversham.

McDonald-Cairns.—A quiet wedding took place at the home of Mr and Mrs. Frank Cairns on Wednesday afternoon, December 2, when their only daughter, Pearl, was married to Mr. Alex. C. McDonald of Owen Sound. Rev. A. McVicar, B.A., of this place performing the ceremony. The young couple left on the evening train for Toronto and other points, on their honeymoon. They will reside in Owen Sound. The Presbyterian choir here, of which the bride was a member, presented her with a handsome cut glass berry bowl.

Mr. Jas. Hopps, of the east back line we are informed, has purchased the Geo. Thompson farm at Portlaw.

Division Court was held here on Friday, but the sitting was very short, with nothing of importance to report.

The High School Literary Society had a good meeting on Friday afternoon last. Well prepared papers on Austria-Hungary were given by Lillian McPhail and Murray Legate, and readings by Sadie Sproat.

In the recent outbreak of diphtheria, Mr. Frank VanDusen's elder daughter, Ruth, was one of the victims of the dreaded disease but we are pleased to learn she is recovering nicely. Eleven cases have been reported with only one death.

Miss Millie Henderson, a Salvation Army officer at Calgary who is visiting her father, Councillor Henderson, in Osprey, paid her uncle here a visit a few days ago.

Miss Leone Bellamy is home from the west, visiting her parents. Mr and Mrs. C. W. Bellamy.

Mrs. R. Irwin has returned from a month's visit with her husband at North Bay.

Miss Oldham visited her home in Toronto on Saturday.

Mrs. Hickling visited over the week-end with her sister in Toronto.

Mr. Wes. Armstrong of Toronto made a short visit with relatives here last week.

Rev. Mr. Jones, who has a brother with the British soldiers in France, received word last week of his being wounded in battle. The first day after returning to the ranks from the hospital, he had one arm badly shattered with the enemy's fire.

Mrs. J. M. Duncan was called to Heathcote last week by the illness of her brother, Mr. Geo. Turner, whom we learn has passed away. The deceased formerly lived near Eugenia, and was very highly respected.

Married.—At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Julian, Flesherton, on the 2nd inst., Mr. J. R. Luch to Mrs. Kelly, both of Osprey. Rev. J. Phimister of Maxwell performed the ceremony.

The stork paid a visit recently to the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. McKee, 4th line, Artemesia, to whom was born a son.

Mr. Fred Karstedt, Jr., is spending a few days in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. A. Strain of Porcupine, former residents of Flesherton, announce the marriage of their daughter, Edna on November 27, to Mr. Howard Miller of Porcupine.

Five cases of ale addressed to C. Maxwell arrived at Flesherton Station some days ago, and were seized by Inspector Beckett, waiting for the owner to call for the goods. The evidence of the inspector was taken before Magistrate McMullen on Monday, and no one being found to claim the liquid, it was confiscated. The goods came from the O'Keefe Brewery, Toronto

FINED FIVE DOLLARS.

For striking a boy on the face with a whip while he was trying to climb on a sleigh, Wm. Charlton of the north end was fined $5 and costs in the police court on Saturday. During the splendid sleighing a little over a week ago, the young lad tried to get on Charlton's sleigh to have a ride. The latter picked up a whip and gave the boy a severe cut across the face, the mark of which he carried with him on Saturday when he told the magistrate about it. "Most men," said His Worship "would have told the boy to jump on instead of hitting him with a whip. Five dollars and costs, or 15 days in jail," Charlton paid up the five odd—Owen Sound Sun.
