

HONOR ROLL FOR DECEMBER

NO. 9, GLENELG.

Sr. IV—J. Bell, L. Aljoe. M. Haley. Jr. IV—V. Ritchie, M. Atkinson. Sr. III—M. Davis, O. Bell and M. Whitmore equal, A. Ritchie G. Bell, A. Lindsay. Jr. III—K. Davis, J. McNabb A. Horst, R. Davis, H. Sills. II—G. Lindsay, M. Aljoe M. Mighton, D. McInnis, I—J. Bell, M. Bell. Sr. Primer—S. Lawrence and H. Ritchie equal, E. Hargrave. M. Horst. Jr. Primer—E. Hunt, J. McInnis. E. Scott, Teacher.

NO. 5, GLENELG.

Sr. IV—J. Edwards, E. Cook. R. Peart. Jr. IV—K. Edwards. Sr. III—E. McClocklin and W. Jackson equal, J. McGillivray. M. Beaton. Jr. III—C. Cook, R. McClocklin. W. Gray. Sr. II—E. Cook, J. B. Haley. H. Firth. Jr. II—M. Beaton. Sr. I—E. McRae. Jr. I—W. Edwards. C. Robson. W. Anderson. Sr. Pr.—M. Haley. Jr. Pr.—G. Firth, C. Anderson, M. E. Anderson. W. R. Wallace, Teacher.

BORN.

KEARNEY.—At Sheridan, Mont. December 26, to Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Kearney, a daughter.

MARRIED.

REID — AUGUSTINE. — At the Methodist parsonage, Regina, by Rev. Mr. Thomas, on Wednesday, December 23rd. Mr. Joseph T. Reid, son of Mr. W. K. Reid, Durham, Ont., to Miss M. Eileen Augustine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Augustine, of Port Colborne.

DIED.

ATKINSON.—In Hamilton, at the residence of her grandson, Wm. T. Cooper, on December 14 1914. Hannah Stonehouse, relict of the late Thomas Atkinson.

Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills

are made according to a formula in use nearly a century ago among the Indians, and learned from them by Dr. Morse. Though repeated attempts have been made, by physicians and chemists, it has been found impossible to improve the formula or the pills. Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills are a household remedy throughout the world for Constipation and all Kidney and Liver troubles. They act promptly and effectively, and

Cleanse the System

CORN CHOP AT SPECIAL PRICES

We have a good stock of CORN CHOP on hand that we are selling in Ton lots at about the same price as Oats, and every Feeder knows that Corn is better feed than Oats for feeding stock. If you want heavy feed get our prices on this feed, as it is good value for the price we are asking for it.

We have other good Feed on hand all the time, at prices as low as we can make them.

Our terms on Feed are strictly Cash, or Grain at market price. We do not give any Credit.

If you have Grain of any kind to sell we will pay highest market prices for any quantity of Oats or other Grain at our Elevator.

We want empty feed sacks, if you have any bring them in and we will pay you FIVE Cents each for all you bring.

We Are Paying from 45c to 50c for Oats at our Elevator

PHONES 4 and 26

The Rob Roy Cereal Mills Co. Oatmeal Millers.

MOTHERS

Listen to This

16 Boys' Suits

worth $4.50

on Sale To-Day

$3.25

19 Boys' Suits

worth $6.00

Marked Down to

$4.75

18 Boys' Suits

Sold Everywhere at $7.00

Yours For

$5.50

9 Boys' Suits

worth up to $8.50

Your Choice

$6.75

Come Now for First Choice

The J. D. ABRAHAM Company

Large Sales

Small Profits

McKECHNIES' WEEKLY NEWS

Christmas Bargains

Notwithstanding the great advance of the prices of Dry Goods, we, through careful buying at the right time are enabled to offer Special Bargains from now till Christmas.

Flannelette Blankets, per pair $1.40

Scotch Blankets, per pair $3.00, 4.00 4.75 and 5.50.

Unbleached Table Linen, per yard 25c, 40, and 50c.

Bleached Table Linen, per yard 25c 50c and 7 c.

Linen Towels, per yard 5c.

A pretty assortment of Handkerchiefs Fresh Groceries are continually arriving. We sell them at popular prices

Ladies' Coatings $1.50 per yard double fold.

Flannelette from 9c per yard.

Linoleums 12ft wide $2 00 per yard.

Rugs from $7.75 to $25.00.

A fine display of Sweater Coats.

The newest designs in the neatest patterns of men's Neckties.

Boots, Shoes and Rubbers

The stock is large and varied, made in the newest designs and good fitters.

Don't Forget the House Furnishings on the second floor

THE HIGHEST CASH PRICE FOR PRODUCE

G. & J. McKechnie

Departmental Store

Durham

"Briscoe has stopped giving people checks."

"Why?" "The banks wouldn't let him waste any more blank check books."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

She had a lovely bathing suit. Composed of gauze and net. And really it looked very cute until she got it wet. —Kansas City Journal.

"Father, this gallant young man rescued me from drowning." "So? He ain't quite so good looking as the chap who saved you last summer, is he?"—Detroit Free Press.

The selfish are a bunch of glums. A poor, sad lot, my brothers. For they know not the joy that comes in sharing things with others. —Cincinnati Enquirer.

"Jane's husband gambles at the races." "Ah, I see! He is her better half."—Baltimore American.

Come into the garden, Maud. And wear your skirt with silts. The birds don't mind the scarecrows now. But you will give them fits. —Judge.

Damaged Goods. Artist—The idea of that fellow offering me $5 for that landscape! Why, the canvas alone cost me $4. Model—Ah, but that was before you covered it with paint.—Chicago Examiner.

You should look forward, that is true. But you should be discreet. Don't look so far ahead that you Trip over your own feet. —Cincinnati Enquirer.

"Did they really want a home?" "Did they? They sold their automobile to get one."—Baltimore American.

Deny it, however one strives. We men are such glutinous elves That unless we're attached to our wives We are sure to be stuck on ourselves. —New York Sun.

Gentleman Farmer (buying a barometer)—But what I don't understand is how to set the thing when you want it to rain.—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

Two black face artists quarreled. One called the other "pup." Next day they glowered darkly. Though they had both made up. —New York Mail.

"Jiggs says he has the greatest respect for your judgment." "He ought to have. I advised him not to marry Mrs. Jiggs."—Buffalo Express.

Her charm subdued him Ere they wed. But now her tongue Does it instead. —Boston Transcript.

He—It was fearfully hot at the game this afternoon. She—Why didn't you get one of those baseball fans we hear so much about?—Boston Transcript.

My love's not like the red, red rose. Her nose toward heav'n doth mount. She's pigeon toed and crosseyed too— But, oh, her bank account! —Judge.

"That umpire stands for a lot of gab from the players," observed the thin fan. "Yes," replied the fat fan. "He's a married man and he's used to back talk."—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Give me the land of pure delight That knows no bound'ry fence. Where war dogs neither bark nor bite And censors never cense. —Cleveland Plain Dealer.

"I understand the new arrival, Mrs. Blower, expects to do a great deal of entertaining." "The neighbors were entertained when she moved in."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

The silly season comes each year. And yet each year seems strange. For styles in silliness appear Like other styles to change. —Washington Star.

"How is the new man?" "Oh, he works some. He has to work some in order to be able to quit when the whistle blows."—Houston Post.

Man wants but little here below. Yet thinks he wants a lot. And, in the bean, some men don't know How little they have got. —Indianapolis Star.

Dad—The kind of wedding you want, my child, would cost $2,000. Daughter—Then what is to be done, papa? Dad—You will have to be married without my consent.—Boston Transcript.

Husbands, be on your guard. A wife does not prefer The kind that works so hard He has no time for her. —Louisville Courier-Journal.

Wille—Paw, what's dumb luck? Paw—That's the good fortune that comes to a man who has sense enough to keep his mouth closed, my son.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Teacher—Now, Wille, mention one of the customs at Christmas time. Pupil—Running in debt.—Life.

"Our interests lie in different spheres." She said. He sighed, poor man! 'Twas so—she was a golfin' maid And he a baseball fan. —Boston Transcript.

"My dear, what sort of firing do they do in these war balloons?" "I guess they have parachutes."—Baltimore American.

Old times were cheap, but these times jar. You can't make money last. A dollar won't go half as far. But it goes twice as fast. —Cincinnati Enquirer.

TRAVERTON.

Everybody is glad that the weather has turned milder.

Miss Mary Peart spent a week with kindred in town. Her auntie, Mrs. Geo. Furneaux, accompanied her back, and spent some days with her brothers, Geo. E. and J. J. Peart.

Mrs. J. H. King, accompanied by Master Harold and Missy Zella, are holidaying with her kindred the McLaughlin brothers.

Misses Lily and Leona Goodwill have returned to their home in Owen Sound after visiting school-mates around the lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm McNally formerly of the 9th concession, arrived home from the west lately and are spending the winter at the old homesteads.

There were three funerals to St. John's cemetery last week, and another on Tuesday morning of this The names of the deceased are as follows: Miss Callahan. Mr. Wm Webster. Mrs. Miles Darcy and Mrs. O'Hanly, the latter being the mother of the well known O'Hanly brothers, John, Malcolm and Murt.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Blair ate the New Year's feast with Mr. and Mrs. L. Froom of Proton. The homes of W. J. and Mrs. John Greenwood was made much livelier during New Year's holidays by the presence of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Robertson of Molesworth.

Mr. and Mrs. John Cook and daughter, Muriel, who are spending the winter at the parental homes in Markdale, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Cook this year.

We wish the fellow who took the loan of our lantern from Zion at Christmas time would return it, as it takes three or four to do our crowd these times.

Mrs. Miles Darcy, a pioneer mother of this neighborhood, passed away very suddenly on Wednesday morning of last week. She was born 77 years ago, near Malton, in Peel county, and at the age of 19 was wedded to Mr. Miles Darcy who died four years ago. Nearly 50 years ago, they moved to lot 12, on the 9th concession, which has ever proved a happy, hospitable home since. Ten children blessed the union, nine of whom survive, namely, Mrs. Malcolm Black of the 7th concession, Peter, of the 9th, near the old home. James of Wolseley, Sask., Mrs. John Cliffe of Durham Mrs. Jas Lacey of Chepstow, Edward, Miles and Katie, on the homestead, who have been devotedly attentive to their mother. She also leaves one brother, Dr. Rowan, of Chicago. Deceased was a wonderfully active and strong woman, a most kindly and obliging neighbor and a believer of the Roman Catholic church. The funeral took place to St. John's on Saturday morning, and a big crowd of neighbors gathered to show their respect and sympathy. Rev. Father Ferguson celebrated a most impressive requiem mass. Among the friends from a distance besides the members of the family were, Mr. Pat O'Hagan of Bruce county, and Mr. John Chutes, a nephew from Toronto.

One of the happiest and most pleasing incidents of municipal life took place at the home of Mr. J. A. McMillan on Monday afternoon. For upwards of two score years he has been connected with township affairs, and withdrew this year, owing to ill health. Those who have been closely associated with him in the past, and members of the present council, led by Reeve Nichol, met at the cosy home and presented him with a beautiful Morris chair, and a most complimentary worded address. Mr. John McNally acted as chairman. D. Edge, treasurer, read the address, and Reeve Nichol made the presentation. Kindly speeches were made by these and others, who were able to be present, among whom were Messrs. E. Arrowsmith, Geo. E. Peart, R. Lindsay, W. Weir, W. J. Ritchie and others. Among those who sent messages of goodwill and greeting were Dr. D. Jamieson, Clerk J. S. Black, Mr. Geo. Binnie, and your humble scribe. J. A. McMillan has had the happy faculty of making friends and retaining them, and they all unite in wishing him a recovery of his old vim and cheeriness. Mrs. McMillan and members of the family entertained the guests right royally with music, song, and rich feasting. The words of the veteran official, who has come through so many conflicts, were most manly, and emotional, and the afternoon hours there will never be forgotten.

HYMENEAL

Continued from page 1.

The evening was pleasantly spent in music, games and dancing, the music being supplied for the occasion by Misses Lee, Kerr, Mountain and Allan on the organ, and Messrs. Eden, Gordon and Kerr on the violin.

The bride looked most attractive in a dress of white brocaded satin de chene, with silk lace and pearls. Her travelling dress was of brown whipcord with hat to match.

The bride received many useful and beautiful presents, the groom's gift being a fancy sugar bowl, with one dozen silver spoons. The bride's gift to the groom was a pair of gold cuff links. The young couple will settle down to farming on the groom's fine farm in Normanby. The best wishes of the community go with them for a happy and prosperous voyage through life.

STEVENSON—BINNIE.

A very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Binnie, Glenelg, on Wednesday, December 30, when their third daughter, Elizabeth J., became the bride of John Stevenson of Egremont. The Rev. S. M. Whaley performed the marriage ceremony.

At half-past five o'clock, the groom, followed by the bride, leaning on the arm of her father, took their appointed places to the strains of Lohengrin's Bridal Chorus, played by Miss Winnie Binnie, sister of the bride. The bride, who was unattended, wore a dress of bridal satin and carried a bouquet of white roses and ferns. A dainty wedding supper was served, and the evening was pleasantly passed in social intercourse and song. The happy couple left for the groom's home in Egremont, where they will reside. The good wishes of the community follow them.

BRAITHWAITE—MYRES.

A quiet wedding took place at the Presbyterian manse on December 30, when Miss Nellie Myres of Priceville was united in marriage to Mr. Troy Doyle Braithwaite of Sedley, Sask. Miss Amy E. Mayne was bridesmaid, and Mr. Thomas Russell Braithwaite groomsmen. All left on the four o'clock train for Priceville, where an enjoyable evening of dancing and other amusements was spent at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Myres. The young couple intend leaving for the west in a few weeks.

LAKELET BREEZES.

A quiet time reported last Monday on the municipal election. Whooping cough is reported in S.S. No. 12 Egremont.

Tartan Grange purposes having a celebration of its birthday at the next regular meeting.

Miss Jennie Hooper visited her aunt, Mrs. Wright, of Guelph, on New Year's.

Mr. W. Findlay of Dromore, Mr. Chas. Pratt of Louise, and Mr. Mortley of Dornoch, visited with Mr. and Mrs. Peter Reid over Christmas. Holiday time has its attractions.

Mr. T. Hymers of Listowel visited with Mr. and Mrs. John Hornsby at Christmas time.

We are sorry to hear of Mr. Jim Ford having got blood-poisoning in his hand.

Mr. David Daley left last Monday for his home in Alpena.

Mr. McBeth entertained with his fine gramophone, quite a number of folks last Saturday evening, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. David Hooper.

Quite a number of friends and neighbors enjoyed an excellent fowl supper on New Year's evening at the home of Mr. Wm. Wilson on the 20th of Egremont.

Miss E. Morrison of Collingwood is visiting Mr. and Mrs. A. Henry.

Mr. Will Hunter is preparing for the erection of another silo the coming summer. He has one already.

Mr. Goldwin Lawrence is confined indoors with an attack of rheumatism.

VICKERS.

Miss Martha Torry, Durham spent the holidays among her brothers and sisters in this vicinity.

Misses Janet and Marion Marshall of Durham, were guests of Miss Edna Reay last week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. McCulloch spent New Year's with the latter's sister, Mrs. Robt. Lindsay of Glenelg.