DORNOCH.

Mrs. Geo. Jones, also Mrs. Geo. Jones, Jr., both of Chatsworth, spent the week-end with the former's daughter, Mrs. E. Lueck west of the burg.

Mr. E. Lueck had a bee on Friday, cutting shingles, after which a large number of the young people spent a most pleasant evening in music, games, and the dancing of the many fantastic whirls. All report an excellent time.

Mr. R. Douglas of Durham delivered some pumps to several of the people in this vicinity. Mrs. D. Quirk of Toronto is spending a few weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Jas. Vasey, and is also renewing old acquaintances around this village.

Miss V. McKnight entertained Misses L. McIntosh, Ruby Smith and Miss M. Trafford, on Wednesday of last week.

The sudden death of Mrs. Henry Harrison of Sullivan, on Saturday, was a great shock to all of the community. While driving with her daughter from her home in Sullivan to Williamsford, the deceased took a stroke, and died in less than an hour afterward. Mr. Harrison was sent for, but arrived too late. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. T. Mills on Monday. The funeral took place at one o'clock to Shiloh cemetery, north of Williamsford. The deceased was a member of the Presbyterian church here. The sympathy of the community is with the bereaved family.

The annual meeting of Dornoch Women's Institute met at the home of Mrs. Dargavel on May 12, to appoint new officers for 1915. Twelve ladies were in attendance. The president, Mrs. Dargavel, resigned, and Mrs. John Parke was elected in her place. The rest of the officers were re-elected. Miss Warnock gave a paper on "Woman's relation to the schools." Mrs. Alexander gave a reading on "What your boy is worth to you on your farm." The rest of the members gave quotations from favorite authors.

THE WESTERN FAIR, LONDON.

September 10th to 18th.

The Western Fair of London, Ontario, will maintain its reputation this year as being one of the best Live Stock Exhibitions in the Dominion of Canada. Live Stock exhibitors are always loud in their praises of the treatment they receive at London and the amount of business they do there. Buyers are always plentiful, surrounded as London is by the best agricultural district of Canada. Although large cash additions have been made to the prize list for the past three years, this year will surpass them all, when $2,000 will be added to the Live Stock and Poultry departments. This has been possible through the generous assistance given by the Dominion Government. The amount has been distributed throughout the different classes and some new classes and sections added, which will be of special interest to the farmers and live stock breeders. The prize lists will soon be ready for distribution. Send to the Secretary, A. M. Hunt, London, Ont., for prize list or any information regarding the Exhibition.

The Red Cross Column

The Canadian Red Cross Society have received an appeal which has been issued by the Serbian Red Cross Society. This appeal, which is signed by Madama Grouitch, wife of the Serbian secretary of state for foreign affairs, who is president, and Lady Boyle, treasurer of the society, points out that Serbia is surrounded by hostile and impoverished countries and her people have not been able, as the Belgians have done, to take refuge in neighboring friendly states. Relief can only be given by sending supplies and material help and this work can only be continued by donations both in money and comforts of all kinds.

The correspondent of The London Times wrote recently: "The town the name of which has been deterred by the censor, has been transformed into one huge camp of wounded. All adaptable buildings, cafes, halls, school rooms, have been rapidly commandeered for hospitals. Sometimes there are beds, more often rudely made mattresses, for little Serbia worn out by too constant wars, is ill equipped to meet the onslaught of a great power. In the streets, what misery. The lame, the halt and foot, men nursing broken arms or shattered hands, men with bandaged heads, men being carried from operating shops to cafe floor, men with body wounds lying on stretchers; all with ragged blood-bespattered remnants of what were once uniforms."

The appeal points out that there is no patriotic fund in Serbia and continues: "When one leaves the organized hospitals and wends one's way through the crowd of wounded, who block the pavements, and enters a low-class cafe, the tragedy of it all fills the spectator with a sense of hopelessness. There, like cattle upon their beds of straw, lie sufferers from all manners of hurt. They remain mute and uncomplaining, just as they have been dropped down from the incoming transports. Their wounds, three, four or five days' old, have yet received no attention, save the primitive first aid of the battlefield. Blood-poisoning is setting in, limbs that prompt dressing would have saved, are fast becoming victims of the surgeon's knife. It is a heart-rending sight," concludes the correspondent, "to look upon this helpless mass and to realize that many of them have been sentenced to a painful death owing to mere lack of primitive medical attention."

This appeal cannot fail to go to the warm hearts of the Canadian people, who have done so much for gallant Belgium and for their own people, and yet who will forget another gallant ally who is suffering the most terrible agony of all the nations. The cry of poor little Serbia will not go out in vain to the people of this Dominion. Donations, however small, will be gratefully acknowledged by Sir Edward Boyle, Bart., Treasurer, Serbian Relief Fund, 63 Queen's Gate, London, England. Surgical supplies, bandages, blankets, sheets, pillows, towels, dressing gowns, pyjamas, bed jackets, surgical shirts, cholera belts, and all kinds of comforts may be sent either to 77 King St. East, Toronto, and marked clearly "For Serbia," or they may be sent to Lady Boyle, 5 Cromwell Road, Kensington, London, Eng.

RED CROSS NOTES

The following cablegram has been received by Mrs Plumtre secretary of the National Service Committee, from Mr. J. G. Colmer, secretary of the Canadian War Contingent Association: "Articles most required are socks colored handkerchiefs, and extra comforts such as tobacco, cigarettes, pipes, matches, soap, confectionery, cocoa, cake, tooth brushes stationery and sundry other useful articles. The association is supplying these regularly and will continue doing so while resources permit. Supplies of socks and handkerchiefs and money for other comforts cordially welcomed. There is no difficulty about transportation. All our consignments are sent through the military forwarding officers on this side and in France and the authorities are co-operating with us cordially."

The following articles were sent to the Canadian soldiers at the front during the month of March by the Canadian War Contingent Association: 12,364 pairs of socks, 48 cases of tobacco and pipes, 1,003 cardigans, 3,014 mufflers, 3,003 helmets, 2,606 pairs of wristlets, 98 dozen towels, 65,000 cigarettes, 14,000 boxes of matches, 1,176 boxes of confectionery, 11 sets of boxing gloves, 12 foot-balls, 41 baseballs, 12 tennis balls.

In connection with the Information department of the Canadian Red Cross Society, Colonel Hodggets, the Canadian Commissioner in London, in a recent report received by Mr. Noel Marshall, the chairman of the executive committee, says that this branch of the society's work continues with characteristic activity. The ladies are most enthusiastic and painstaking and the many workers in the different portions of the country and in France are reporting regularly to the office as to the condition and progress made by the sick and wounded.

Col. Hodggets continues: "Not the least interesting and important portion of the work is the supply of the Red Cross supplies and comforts to the scattered Canadians, the visitors reporting as to the soldiers' wants and the articles being parcelled up and mailed to the patients. Col. Hodggets remarks that he is sure that this work will appeal to Canadians as they will feel that what they have contributed to the Red Cross Society is being properly and efficiently disposed of."

In conclusion Col. Hodggets says: "I might state there is no vacancy for any applicant from Canada, nor can I hold out any hope of any lady who is venturesome enough to cross the Atlantic securing work when she arrives here as there are many on the waiting list."

Mrs. Plumtre, superintendent of Supplies, Canadian Red Cross Society, has received the following very interesting letter from Miss Edith Campbell, matron of the Duchess of Connaught Red Cross hospital at Clivedon.

"Col. Hodggets tells me he is sure you and the kind ladies who have helped so splendidly would be interested to hear from us how greatly appreciated all your efforts have been and how useful and sensible the gifts are, blankets, sheets, dressing gowns wonderful bedside bags, filled with everything a man needs, even to a pipe and paper."

"The jam, syrup, biscuits, apples etc., and lovely plum cake we gave them on Easter Sunday, all came over in splendid condition and the men enjoyed them so—a treat after the trenches. The surgical dressings, binders, slings, etc., all are so useful and saved us such a lot as we only had to make up for our first dressings for the operating room, also from supplies sent from home."

"All the little parishes round here have formed their committees and are collecting and sending to us twice a week a lot of fresh eggs, also once a week cake for Sunday tea. Poor boys, they certainly deserve all the good things of life, they are so brave and cheerful and in many cases it is only a case of getting fit and well to return to the trenches, others, of course, never van. I wish I could express their thankfulness and ours better, theirs for all they receive, ours for the joy of having such things to give and work with."

The casualty lists of the Canadian officers at the front have recently contained a number of relatives of the officials of the Red Cross Society. Both sons of Sir John Gibson in the persons of Capt. Colin Gibson and Lieut. Frank Gibson, have been wounded. Col. Ryerson, president of the society, has lost one son, Capt. G. C. Ryerson, whose name appeared among the killed in the recent casualty list, and another son, Lieut. Arthur Ryerson, has been wounded, though fortunately not seriously. Lady Drummond has lost her only son, Lieut. Guy Drummond, and the son of J. N. Young, president of the Hamilton branch of the society, has been wounded. Capt. K. R. Marshall, son of Mr. Noel Marshall, who has
