Two fine solos were sung in the Methodist church on Sunday evening, one by H. A. Watson, of Priceville, who is spending a few weeks in town. The other was sung by Mr. Ernest Everett, who spent Sunday in town with his father, engineer Everett.

The Hepworth Progress has changed hands, Mr. O. M. Seim having sold out to Mr. W. R. Kinch, formerly connected with the Woodstock Sentinel-Review, Alvington Free Press and other papers. The new proprietor assumed the management last week.

General Hughes states that the Government will look after the transportation of Italian reservists in Canada as soon as they receive word from Rome, just the same as Russian and French reservists were looked after. He estimates that over 30,000 Italians may leave Canadian ports to join the colors in Italy.

If a man can't take a joke without getting angry he should never attempt to give one. To us the world would be fearfully dull if we couldn't relieve the monotony, occasionally by indulging in the innocent pleasantries that are generally appreciated. Any man has a right to resent an insult or a remark that's intended as an insult.

Under the auspices of the Varnev Grange, an up-to-date picnic will be held in Mr. Wm. Carson's bush on Friday, June 18. J. J. Morrison, secretary of the Farmers' Co-Operative Co., of Toronto, is expected to be present to give an address, possibly along co-operative lines. A live committee is making full preparations for a good jolly time. Admission free. Kindly bring baskets. Everybody welcome.

The Welsh Choir of nine singers, under the conductorship of Madame Hughes, gave a delightful musical entertainment Tuesday night in the Presbyterian church. There was a large audience and the rapt attention from beginning to end is an evidence of appreciation of the rare musical treat. The proceeds amounted to about $70 of which half goes to the entertainers and of the balance about $30. will go to the Red Cross.

The contract for the building of the High school was let on Monday night to Messrs. Hugh McDonald and Edward Kress. The building will be similar to the first plan submitted and approved but slightly modified so as to reduce the cost. We understand it will be two feet shorter than was originally intended, and the ceilings have been reduced from 13 feet to 12 feet in height. There are a few other minor changes, but nothing to detract from its general appearance or convenience. We have not learned the exact contract price, more than that it is slightly below $14,000. There were a number of tenders in and the difference between the highest and lowest did not exceed $200. The contract at the price named includes the heating, which will be furnished by J. H. Harding, our local plumber.

This is dipping time. Try Kreso Dip, 25c. and 50c. tins at Macfarlane's Drug Store

The contractors have staked out the ground for the new High school and work will begin right away. They expect to have it completed before Christmas.

Recent purchasers of Ford cars in this vicinity are: Rev. T. W. Mills, Dornoch; Rev. J. A. Matheson, Priceville; W. A. McGowan, Durham; W. Haslett, Allan Park; R. J. Wilson, Boothville

Now is your time to get your supply of sugar, as preserving time is sure to see it dearer. This year there will be no importations from Belgium, Austria or Germany and a big shortage is looked for in the output from Cuba and Java. All things considered, there seems wisdom in buying now.

On Friday, June 18, the Dorewend Co., Limited, of Toronto, Canada's foremost hair goods designers and manufacturers, will display and demonstrate a sample stock of ladies' quality hair goods and gentlemen's toupees and wigs, at the Hahn House, Durham. A free demonstration of any style is offered to anyone interested. Remember the date, Friday, June 18.

Galt was made a city on Tuesday by a private act of parliament, necessitated by the fact that the present population is barely more than 12,000, while a population of 15,000 is necessary for a town to become a city automatically. Galt was founded in 1816 by Absalom Slade, an American, and was known for a few years as Slade's Mills, when the name was changed to Galt, after John Galt, of Edinburgh, father of the late A. T. Galt.

R. R. Long of Listowel had a large number of fresh cows, calves and young cattle disposed of on Saturday at the Hahn House yards. Everything seemed to go high, one cow being run up to $83 and young calves from $10 to $17. They were well-bred Holsteins, and some of them were pedigreed, or eligible. D McPhail was the auctioneer. Another lot is coming in Saturday and will be disposed of at the Grand Trunk yards.

Don't worry! How easy it is to give advice, but how hard it is to follow this simple admonition of only two words Worry shortens life, and many a man is prematurely gray because of little annoyances that might easily be avoided. If the causes were removed the evil results would never have an existence. Plenty of sleep and proper care of the stomach will turn many a grouchy into a much happier man. Don't worry if you can help it, but you can't always help it.

To keep up the spirit of patriotism, Mr. Chas. Cochrane, Professor of Greek and Ancient History in Toronto University, was in town the fore part of the week to arrange for a patriotic lecture to be given here in the near future. It will not cost us anything more than the bare expense of the lecturer, whoever he may be and an address from a man who has studied the question thoroughly would inspire the whole community with a wider feeling of loyalty. He interviewed a number of citizens, who look with favor upon the scheme, and arrangements are being made to secure a lecturer in the course of a week or two. He had a list of about 60 available speakers, amongst them being such men as Archdeacon Cody, Sir William Mulock, Mr. J. L. Hughes, Rev. Byron Stauffer, Hon. George E. Foster, Principal Hutton, and many others. The persons named have a more than provincial wide reputation as able speakers and any one or two of them would be worth going miles to hear. The local committee will do the best they can to secure a good man, and ample notice will be given.

Mrs. Matilda Gonyeau, Norwood died on her 103rd birthday, just before the beginning of a celebration in her honor.

Col. Theodore Roosevelt broke two ribs when a new horse that he was riding on his place at Oyster Bay threw him.

Mr. Wm. Fisher of Elora has received word that his son, Pte. James Fisher, was killed in the battle of Ypres.

Twenty-nine Winnipeg hotel proprietors were given two months' extension of their licenses in order that they may either extend their accommodation, according to the act, or wind up their business.

The Choral Society was in Walkerton last Friday night and had an $80 house. They were all delighted with the appreciation of the audience and the hospitality of the Daughters of the Empire, under whose auspices the operetta was rendered.

We hear nothing of the new post office, but fear there will be nothing done with it this summer. The war has caused a general disorganization of the Government's building intentions and the Durham post office, like many other contracts, will be shelved for a time, in all probability.

According to a plan submitted to the town council and approved by them, the street lighting will consist of 91 Tungsten lamps of various powers, according to the necessities of the different localities. At present we have only about 40 lamps for street lighting. We are assured that work is progressing so rapidly that the current will be turned on early in July.

Mr. Robert Hill died yesterday forenoon at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Colin McArthur, of Glenelg. He was 83 years of age, a millwright by trade, and was well known in town. He leaves a widow and two sons, William and Peter, in town. He has not been here much for some years, as the nature of his business necessitated his absence. A fuller account has been promised us for next issue.

We congratulate Mrs. Dan Campbell, who was married on the 19th of May to Mr. Henry Metcalfe, an ex-councillor of Pentinck. Mrs. Metcalfe was a resident of this town for a number of years and is well and favorably known, and Mr. Metcalfe is one of the popular men of Pentinck. She is a sister of Mr. John Schutz of town, and of Mrs. Andrew Magwood, near Hanover.

A Hamilton firm was fined $50 last week for failing to affix wax stamps to certain articles requiring them. The magistrate sympathized with the firm, stating that only the day before he had forgotten to affix a stamp to a check and was reminded just in time. The inland revenue department, however, insisted that the fine be imposed. Fifty dollars is the minimum fine.

WHO LIED?

Last week we said that one of our citizens caught a 2½ lb. trout on Victoria Day. That was not true, and some would call it a lie. We plead innocent to the charge and want to know who lied. We published the item, and for this we are accountable. The story was told to us and we thought it was true. We gave it as an item of news, but it was false news, and we hasten to correct the error. It wasn't our fault. If we knew it wasn't true it would never appear in The Chronicle. The Chronicle isn't a Sunday school paper, but it always tells the truth, or tries to. When we make a mistake we own up to it. This time we were led astray by Ananias Hamilton, and the sin will fall on his shoulders. Poor man! We're sorry for him.

THE COT FUND IS GROWING

Up to last issue we reported contributions for cots for the soldiers up to more than $1,900. This week we have a long additional list, and more to follow. The following contributions have been made during the past week, some wholly voluntary and without any solicitation:

Collected in Durham:
James Matthews, Sr., $15. The following contributed $5 each: A. Grierson, A. McLellan, G. Arrow-smith, W. Mountain, W. J. McFadden, Jas. Webber, Sr., Mrs. W. J. Young, Jesse Hughes, $1.
The following cots were donated:

We must congratulate S. S. No. 9, Glenelg, for the very liberal response they have made to the appeal from the Red Cross Society for hospital cots. This section has now contributed the magnificent total of $265.50. In addition to this they have sent one of their gallant sons to the front, which is a gift that cannot be measured in dollars and cents.

The south line, Bentinck, the Edge Hill section, Glenelg, and S. S. No. 9, are the only country sections that have as yet made a systematic canvass of their communities, and their efforts have met with a very hearty response in all cases. We understand a canvass is at present being made in the Knox church, Normanby, section, and we hope other country sections will take up the good work. The money is badly needed and we should all be willing to do our share. Mr. S. Hughes, manager of the Royal Bank, is treasurer of the local branch and contributions may be given to him or forwarded by mail at any time.

HYMENEAL

SAUNDERS—CLARK.

Yesterday morning at a quarter to six a quiet wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Zenus Clark, when their only daughter, Florence, was united in marriage to Mr. Albert James Saunders. The ceremony was performed by the bride's pastor, Rev. Mr. Wylie, in the presence of only the immediate relatives. After a sumptuous wedding breakfast, the happy young couple left by the Grand Trunk for Toronto and Buffalo, where they will spend a brief honeymoon before taking up their residence in town. The young couple are estimable characters, and residents of this town and vicinity all their lives. Though the marriage was not publicly announced, the bride was the recipient of a number of useful presents. We join the community in tendering congratulations, welcome them as continued residents and wish them long life and a full measure of happiness.

Dan McDougall, who went to England from Ottawa with the second contingent, is now in England. He was seasick for a couple of days going over and says he was praying for the arrival of a German submarine, but none came. Just for a change he took the mumps along with a number of others and was quarantined for 23 days. The road seems clear now, but he doesn't know when something else may turn up. Dan is a son of Dan McDougall, formerly of Bentinck. We were going to say a son of "Mr." McDougall, but if we did no one would know who we meant.
