FLESHERTON.

111111

The Methodist Ladies' Aid had a very successful garden party on the agricultural grounds on Tuesday of last week. The large crowd witnessed two interesting baseball matches between the teams of Markdale and Vandeleur, the former winning by 3 to 1, and the girls of Dundalk and Flesherton, the score being 17 to 15 in favor of the former. Flesherton band furnished music. The proceeds were $120.

and Rock Mills Flesherton baseball teams played a good match here on Thursday evening, in which the former won. Score. 15 to 11.

at the Women's Institutes, gave a good address at the meeting here on the 9th inst., which was well attended.

At a public meeting in the town hall, presided over by Reeve McTavish, on Friday evening, Mr. Rian, organizer for the Canadian Patriotic Fund, was present, and in a short address explained the object and work of the organization, after which branch was organized here, with officers as follows: President. Rev. R. C. Kerr: vice-pres., D. McTavish; secretary, F H. W Hickling; treasurer, G Mitchell; committee, Rev A. McVicar, H. S. White, R G. Holland, W. H Thurston and W. L. Wright. A special canvass, with the object of raising $500 was arranged to take place on Friday with Geo. Mitchell and F. H. W. Hickling as captains

Miss Clinton, who is about to leave the village, had a sale of her household goods on Saturday, conducted by auctioneer Sproule. Miss Josie Richardson and Miss Edna Fisher were delegates last week to the Baptist Association's annual meeting at Chesley.

Mr. T. J. Fisher has been at London for a few days, visiting his sister.

Constable Hales is recovering from his recent injuries and able to be moved about some.

Mr. Robt. Bellamy is home from Toronto on two weeks' holidays. Mrs. T. A. Blakeley is spending a few days in Toronto with her daughter, Mrs. Miller, who is to

Fencing

The "Red Front" Hardware Store is Headquarters for All Kinds of

Fencing

Take a look at our Frost Fence, especially the

Five Strand

Eight Strand

Nine Strand and Eleven Strand

All Number Nine Wire

Poultry Fence injunction to those who still proceed on shoe leather. in Abundance undergo an operation in the hos- | PEG O'MY HEART | Mrs. Joseph Blackburn visited her sister in Toronto over the week-end. Miss Irene Orr is spending couple of weeks with friends the city.

W. Black

Mr. H. S. White is at Priceville plest-that we have." this week presiding at school examinations, and will preside here at Entrance exams. next week

Mr. R. G. Holland is presiding here this week at junior matriculation and lower school exams. and will preside next week at entrance to Normal exams.

Rev. Mr. McKay of Toronto occupied the Methodist pulpit here on Sunday in the interests of the Dominion Alliance.

Rev. A. McVicar exchanged pulpit's with Rev. Geo. Kendell of Miss Helen McMurchy, lecturer Dundalk on Sunday. Mr. Kendell eyes. preached an able sermon and those present who heard him here before were pleased to hear him saw him cry but twice in his lifeagain. Your cor. was pleased to receive a visit from him, after a lapse of 14 years

> Miss Pentland, who visited her sister, Mrs. Henry, motored to Lucknow on Saturday in the Henry car, accompanied by Miss Maud Richardson, who visited her sister, Mrs. Tate over the week-end. The Misses Henry, who were visiting in Lucknow, returned home with their brother.

Mr. Wm. Sharp was at Meafor ! over the week-end visiting daughter, Mrs. Sinclair, who, with two children, accompanied him home for a week's visit.

Dr. and Mrs. Webster of Toronto, and Mr. and Mrs. Irwin of Orangeville, motored up and werc week-end visitors at Mr. M. K Richardson's.

Hon. and Mrs. I B Lucas, son Kendall, and Mr. and Mrs. John Lucas, were in town on Sunday.

Mr. Mark E. Wright is spending a week with friends at Toronto and other points.

Fisher-Lyons.-The home of Mr and Mrs. Lyons, Port Law the scene of a quiet wedding on Wednesday, June 9 when their daughter, Islay Muriel, was married to Mr. Samuel Wesley Fisher, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thos Fisher of Rock Mills. Rev. R C Kerr of Flesherton conducted the ceremony and Miss Pearl Lyons of Proton Station played Lohengrin's wedding march. The bride, who was given away by her father, was prettily gowned in white crepe de chine and wore a bridal veil caught up with orange blossoms. Miss Mildred Lyons of Proton, was bridesmaid, and wore a dainty gown of white voile. The bride's brother, Mr. L. F Lyons was best man. After the marriage a choice wedding dinner was served and an enjoyable time was spent. The young couple went to their new home at Rock Mills, followed by many good wishes for their future happiness. Mr. Austin Shackleford spent rou." last week on a holiday in the city. Mis. Beatrice Thistlewaite, primary teacher in the public school, has tendered her resignation to the board, with the purpose of attending Normal school in the

Mrs. Garnett of Toronto is visiting her mother, Mrs. Murphy. Mr. C. H Minshaw is about again after being laid up for week with rheumatism.

Mrs. John Gibson, who had been ill for some time, died at her late home near Ceylon at midnight on Monday, aged 49 years. The remains were taken to Toronto on Tuesday for interment. Besides her husband, three children sur-

AUTO ROAD HOGS

The phrase "making them step lively" is the slogan of too many men who drive motor cars. In fact it becomes more and more apparent that car owners regard those who travel afoot, whether through inclination or otherwise, as a great herd to be "shoved" out of the way like so many chickens by the scream of a "warning" signal.

The blatant "warning" signal is too often a "command" signal, a sort of make-way-for-the-rajah

While the majority of motor owners are considerate and unwilling to force a path by fear of death, there are many persons who should not be trusted bèhind a wheel. It makes them impertinent, and causes them to affect a superiority that is not at all warranted. They try too much to "make them step lively."

The man afoot has more than an Red Front Hardware equal ownership of the streets with the man in the car.-London Advertiser.

Continued from page 6.

joesn't like it enough. Nayther do L. We've never had very much to like. in , but we've seen others around us with plenty, an', faith, we've been the hap-

She only stopped to take breath before on she went again:

"There have been times when we've been most starvin', but me father never lost his pluck or his spirits. Nayther did I. When times have been the hardest I've never heard a word of complaint from me father nor seen a frown on his face. An' I'm sick for the sight of him. An' I'm sure he is for me-for his 'Peg o' My Heart,' as be always calls me."

She uncovered her eyes as the tears trickled down through her fingers. "Don't do that," he said softly as he felt the moisture start into his own

"I don't often cry," she said. "Me father never made me do it. I never once when we made a little money an' we had a mass said for me mother's soul an' we had the most beautiful candles on Our Lady's altar. He cried then, be did. An' when I left him to come here on the ship-an' then only at the last minnit."

In a moment she went on again: "I cried meself to sleep that night, I

"I don't often cry," she said. fid. An' many a night, too, on that "An' I wish I hadn't come-that I lo. He's missin' me every minnit-an' I'm missin' him. An' I'm not goin' to be happy here ayther.

"I don't want to be a lady. An' they won't make me one, ayther, if I car belp it. 'Ye can't make a silk purse out of a sow's ear,' that's what me father always said. An' that's what I am. I'm a sow's ear." She stopped.

"I'm afraid I cannot agree with

She looked up at him and said inlifferently:

"That's what I am. I'm a sow's

"When the strangeness wears off you'll be very happy. You're among friends."

Peg shook her head and said bitterly: "No, I'm not. They may be relations, but they're not me friends."

He turned to Peg and said: "When they really get to know you, Miss O'Connell, they will be just as proud of you as your father is-as-I would be."

Peg looked at him in whimsical astonishment: "You'd be? Why should you be proud of me?" "I'd be more than proud if you'd look on me as your friend." "A friend is it?" cried Peg warfly, "Sure I don't know who you are at all," and she drew away from him. She was on her guard. Peg made few friends. Why this man calling himself by the outlandish name of Jerry should walk in out of nowhere and offer her his friendship and expect her to jump at it puzzled ber. Who

"Who are ye at all?" she asked. "No one in particular," answered Jerry between gasps.

"I can see that," said Peg candidly. "I mean what do ye do?"

"Everything a little and nothing really well," Jerry replied. "I was a soldier for awhile; then I took a splash at doctoring, read law, civil engineered in South America for a year; now I'm farming."

"Farming?" asked Peg incredulously. "Yes. I'm a farmer."

Peg laughed as she looked at the well cut clothes, the languid manner and easy poise.

"It must be mighty hard on the land and cattle to have you farmin' them," the said.

"It is," and he, too, laughed again. She started up the staircase leading to the mauve room.

Jerry called after her anxiously: "No, no, Miss O'Connell! Don't go like that"

"I must," said Peg from the top of the stairs. "What will I get here but to be laughed at an' jeered at by a lot of people that are not fit to even look at me father? Who are they, I'd like to knew, that I mustn't speak his name in their presence?"

Continued next week.

News of the U.S.A.

In one day 226 persons were tried in the automobile court at attended the barn raising at Mr Chicago.

Chicago's police chief will hold week. patrolmen responsible for dirty alleys.

Portland, Oregon, in a recent week planted 31,000 rose bushes.

Brooklyn suffragettes put their ages on sealed slips for the census man.

The Illinois Legislature killed Chicago's home rule bill by 75 to 55 votes.

Fred Spencer, murderer, "honor prisoner," at Sing Sing, escaped in the night.

Billy Sunday was given $25,332,-69 for his seven weeks' mission at Patterson, N.J.

Roosters gave an alarm to Alec Sarni at Newark, N.J., and saved him from thieves.

J. N. Richards has run ten times for marshal of Grass Valley, Cal. Defeated regularly.

The publishers of "100 Ways to Make Money by Writing," of New York, are bankrupt.

to insist on all its teachers being with Mrs. C. Ritchie residents of the city.

Students of the University Wisconsin spend $14,120 yearly a Madison, on malted milk.

Chicago streets will soon bear this sign to autoists, "Slow Down. School, Look out for Children."

Convicts at Auburn, N.Y. gave an uplift drama, written by an inmate called "The Higher Judge."

To commemorate Frisco Fair, U. S. gold pieces will bear the face of a laborer on a special issue.

Massachusetts inspectors seized 50,000 milk bottles at Worcester for not being properly stamped.

The Muskogee, Oklahoma, Electric Traction Co. will call in every street car and operate utneys instead.

Former Magistrate Higginbotham, of Brooklyn, once a political power, died a pauper in a hospital.

Chicago authorities are happy over the escape of their leper, Angelo Lenardi, from Highland Park lock-up.

Fred Rogers, farmer, of Sherburne, N.Y., claims to have trained six hedgehogs to dig potato trenches.

In sixteen minutes a jury was got and John Strobl, of Chicago. tried for murder and sent to the asylum.

Edward Overton of Chester, Pa. blind since his birth, had a fatal fall at 70, after making $100,000 out of a store.

The electrical batteries at San Francisco Fair will be bought for permanently illuminating Niagara

The Kansas Bankers' Association has organized a correspondence school for bank clerks, with free text books.

Alonzo Weed, aged 82, is walking from Los Angeles to Stamford Conn. He was arrested at Chicago but released. The list of "titled" Americans just issued shows 454 women to have married foreigners of title or prominence. Chicago is warned of a series of one dollar bills being altered to the value of "four dollars." Judge Paul Little's comment on laws around Port Smith is that human life in Arkansas was "cheaper than hogs." New York health commissioners are investigating conditions under which clerks work in downtown office buildings. Twenty-five dollars was the fine on two saloonkeepers of Chicago who were discovered selling liquor on election day.

The retail liquor dealers of Philadelphia are gathering evidence against the big hotels for infractions of the laws.

The will of Jeremiah Dingman of Richland Centre, Wis., showed that he waited until his 100th birthday before making it.

Chas. S. Dove of Middlebrooke, Md., was ordered to be lashed 15 times for beating his wife: sheriff cheerfully obeyed.

The Oxford ocunty council has approved a proposal to subscribe $200 of the county funds toward the $500 purchase price of a field ! kitchen for the 34th Battalion.

DARKIES' CORNERS.

Mr., and Mrs. Robt Lindsay, also Mr. and Mrs. Andy Lindsay, Archie Park's, Bentinck, last

Rev. and Mrs. Whaley visited around the burg on Wednesday and conducted prayer meeting in the evening to a well-filled school.

Sorry to report the accident which happened Wednesday to Mrs. James Atkinson. While she and Mr. Atkinson were driving horse shied at some water on the pecting something pretty good. well as a bruised face, while Mr. C. Ritchie's.

ed with Mrs. C. Ritchie one day while assisting to shingle it. last week.

visited last week with Mr. and den is on the mend. Mrs. John McGirr.

Mr. Robt. Lindsay, Jr, is engaged with Mr. Harry Smith, near Hanover, building silos. Mr. and Mrs. Will Atkinson of town, are spending a few weeks at Mrs. Jas. Atkinson's

Misses L. Mortley, G. Campbell Philadelphia school boards want and Mrs. J. Vessie visited Sunday

> We regret to learn of the serious illness of Mrs. Archie Camptrouble. Mrs. Campbell is a sister of Mr. Robt. Lindsav of this place Green Grove beefring starts this Thursday. As Mr. John McGirr action is surprising.

ease. Perseverance, with Ze Buk, means cure: Why not this ? AR Drugglets and M.

FOR ALL SUMMER

home from Mr. John Weir's, the puts in the first beast, we are exroad, throwing them out, Mrs. At- | Rev. Mr. Whaley was a welkinson having her arm broken, as come visitor Monday last at Mrs.

Atkinson came off with a severe | We extend our sympathy to Mr. shaking up which he will not soon Austin Hann, of Egremont who was seriously hurt by a fall off Mr. and Mrs. John Collier visit- Mr. John Lawrence, Jr's barn

Glad to report that at time of Miss Nina Noble, Hutton Hill, writing, Master Freeman McFad-

DURHAM DRUGGIST PLEASES CUSTOMERS

Macfarlane & Co. report customers greatly pleased with the QUICK action of simple buckthorn bark, glycerine etc., as mixed in Adler-i-ka. This simple remedy drains the old foul matter from the bowels so THOROUGH that ONE SPOONFUL relieves albell of Invermay Sask., from lung most ANY CASE of constipation, sour or gassy stomach. It is so powerful that it is used successfully in appendicitis. Adler-i-ka never gripes, and the INSTANT

Call at E. A. ROWE'S

For all kinds of Bakery Goods Cooked and Cured Meats.

OYSTERS AND FRUIT IN SEASON

E. A. ROWE

Confectioner and Grocer

Ladies and Gentlemen

If you've not already ordered your

Spring Suit and Coat

now is the time to do it. while our stock is complete. Fit and Satisfaction Guaranteed.

Everythiug New and Up-to-date in Men's Wear always on hand. Large shipment of Spring Hats and Caps just arrived, which you ought to see before buying elsewhere.

G. C. Rife

Ladies' and Gent's Tailor DURHAM ONTARIO

Liberal-Conservative ANNUAL MEETING

The Annual Meeting of the Liberal-Conservative Association of South East Grey will be held in the Town Hall, Durham Friday, June 18

At the same time will be held a Convention to select a Candidate to contest the Riding at the next Dominion Election.

A full attendance of delegates and others from all parts of the Riding is requested.

MEETING TO COMMENCE AT ONE P.M.

At the close of the business meeting A Public Meeting will be addressed by Hon. W. T. White, MP., Hon. I. B. Lucas, M.P.P., R. J. Ball, M.P. and others.
