PATRIOTIC PRICEVILLE

Priceville has bills out announcing a patriotic concert, and Priceville may always be depended upon for doing the thing up well. They have always given good concerts in the past and the one on Tuesday night next will be no exception to the rule.

Dr. Macdonald, editor of The Globe, will be there, and we know him well enough to promise the audience a good fiery speech, full of patriotic fervor. Few men can do it better and all who can should hear him.

Then they have Donald C. MacGregor, who stands at the top as a baritone vocalist. Only the most chronic dyspeptic could hear him and not be delighted.

These two men are the drawing cards of the evening, but in addition they expect to have Revs. Ferguson, Smith and Whaley, Hon. Dr. Sproule, R. J. Ball, H. H. Miller and M. K. Richardson. The Swinton Park Orchestra will also be in attendance and Miss Rita Irwin as accompanist and piano soloist. Without reservation, we promise a good concert and we'll have no retractions to make.

We understand further that one private citizen is bearing the whole cost of the entertainment, and all the proceeds will be given in aid of the Toronto Base Hospital.

Will you contribute your mite to this worthy cause? Mr. Peter McArthur is chairman of the seating committee and seat reservations may be made by writing to him at Priceville.

HYMENEAL

MacKAY—BARBER.
On Wednesday, June 16, at 5.30 p.m., a pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Barber, when their second daughter, Hazel Irene, was united in wedlock to Mr. Melbourne MacKay of Durham. The wedding march was played by a younger sister of the bride, Miss Ella Barber. Rev. B. M. Smith, the bride's pastor, officiated, and only immediate relatives were present. Those from a distance were Mrs. Bert Craigie, and Miss Tressa MacKay of Paris, and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Morton, Jr., of St. Marys.

The bride was attractively attired in a white allover shadow lace dress trimmed with silk, and carried a bouquet of carnations and roses.

After the wedding ceremony the guests sat down to a sumptuous repast and after all had regaled themselves the evening was spent in music and games. The many useful and costly presents show the esteem in which the young couple are held. Mr. and Mrs. MacKay have taken up their residence in Durham. Mr. MacKay having a position with the J. D. Abraham Company.

The principal outside speaker was Aquila Lucas, international secretary of the International Sabbath School Association.

CONSERVATIVE CONVENTION

The Conservative convention held here on Friday afternoon was a great success. The hall was literally packed and many of the audience were unable to secure seats and standing room was at a premium.

Mr. Wm. Breese of Chatsworth proved himself an efficient president and Dr. Ego of Markdale acted as secretary pro tem in the absence of J. W. Tucker, who left the riding on the organization of the newly adjusted constituency in October last.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

Wm. Breese, Chatsworth, president; Dr. Campbell, Markdale, vice-president; Dr. Ego, Markdale, secretary; D. McTavish, Flesherton, treasurer; Irwin Morrison, Osprey, and W. J. Cllamy, Flesherton, auditors.

District Vice-Presidents were appointed as follows: Sullivan—J. Thompson, Desboro. Bentinck—G. Brown. Normanby—J. W. Werner, Ayton. Egremont—T. J. Gordon, Mount Forest.

Glencol—R. T. Edwards, Markdale.

Holland—J. Perdue.

Proton—W. Goodfellow, Dundalk.

Artemesia—W. McLougherv.

Osprey—W. L. Taylor.

Durham—A. H. Jackson.

Hanover—G. Bozel.

Neustadt—A. Weinert.

Flesherton—W. Boyd.

Markdale—W. Gibson.

Chatsworth—G. W. Collins.

Dundalk—S. Bell.

Markdale was selected as next place to hold the annual meeting.

The next order of business consisted in the nomination of a candidate to contest the constituency at the next Federal election. The names of the present member, R. J. Ball, and the president, Mr. Wm. Breese, were placed before the convention, and as Dr. Sproule, the representative of East Grey for the past 37 years, was about to be nominated, the secretary was asked to read a statement from the Doctor and the convention acquiesced in his desire as expressed in the following letter to the electors:

"Owing to the position I occupy as Speaker of the House, the proprieties of the situation demand that I refrain from taking part in, or attending any political gathering of a party nature, either in my own behalf or that of others, therefore my absence from the gathering to-day.

"Nearly thirty-seven years ago I was accorded the honor of being chosen the standard-bearer of the party in East Grey for the then approaching election and I have been returned as Member for the constituency from then until the present. At each succeeding election that confidence in me has been renewed. I have ever appreciated the great honor conferred and have been most grateful and thankful to the people for it, and as long as memory lasts I shall cherish the same sentiments towards the people of East Grey.

"It is pleasing to know that while honored by the confidence and respect of the people of East Grey and after many years of faithful service in the House, I have been by my peers elected to the high position of Speaker, that is the first commoner of the Dominion. I am now striving to discharge the duties of office faithfully and well, and to maintain the dignity of the chair, as exemplified in the Imperial Parliament, the only reliable guide for all Dominions.

"As the Speakership is the highest position to which a member can be elected by his peers, it is not in keeping with the dignity of the position nor the practice in the mother Parliament that the occupant of the chair should seek the suffrage of the people again for election, unless he has grounds for the belief that he should again be elected Speaker. As the practice of our Canadian Parliament at present precludes that belief,
