THE DURHAM CHRONICLE

W IRWIN, Editor and Proprietor

DURHAM, JULY 22, 1915.

THE TOWN COUNCIL HAD SPECIAL MEETING

A special meeting of the town council was held on Monday night when the agreement regarding the town lighting between Mr Catton and the Council was adopted unanimously, with the exception of Mr. Calder, who voted against it.

During the meeting the reeva advised the council that the two livery men expressed a desire to be placed under license, in order to prevent certain opposition now working against their interests Twenty dollars a year was the proposed license fee and this, we presume, would apply to auto owners using their machines for business purposes, as well as to livery men proper. There was no action taken, but it will likely be brought up at an early meeting of the council, when livery men. auto owners and others, will have an opportunity to express their opinions. In discussing the power station and the wisdom, or otherwise, . of having it at the cement works Mr. Calder was its strongest ad vocate, and condemned, to a considerable extent, the letter from Mr. Catton, which appeared last week in The Chronicle. He view ed it as an effort to cause contention between the manufactur-· ing concerns of the town, and regarded the letter as erroneous in Council to understand that the Hydro plans and specifications for installing the work in town were now about complete and any change would involve a vast amount of labor and cost. There was no action taken, however, but a promise was given that Mr. James, the engineer, would be here in the course of a week or two, when he would express his views and permit of discussion av the ratepayers.

Priceville Patriotic Concert

The Patriotic Executive wishes to make the following statement: To the Patrons of the Patriotic Concert held in Priceville on June 29, 1915:

That whereas the Toronto University Base Hospital has not been established as a unit in either England or France, we have been advised to hold the money till the hospital is proper ly established as such, which will be in the near future.

That the money, amounting to $160 10, is deposited in the Pank in tion work was being done for the the name of the Treasurer, Joseph Commission of Conservation, who Black.

That the statement of proceeds is as follows:

Reserve Seat sale, 314 at 35c..... $109.90 Rush seats sold by N. Mc-Kinnon..... .18.20 Refund by Miss Irwin, of Durham

The original reserve seat plan is still in our possession, marking all reserve seats sold, and is ready for inspection by any wishing to see same.

That the entire expense, as regards payment of moneys, was defrayed by Dr. and Mrs. Lane as patriotic gift.

That the committee feel most grateful to all who gave their assistance towards getting the sheds arranged for the concert. especially, too, at the eleventh hour, and to Mr. Aldcorn for the free use of his piano: also to W.G. Watson for the seats.

That the Committee also feel deeply thankful to all those who patronized the concert and made such large proceeds possible for patriotic purposes.

Signed:

Thos. Nichol, President. P. F. McArthur, Secy . Jos. Black, Treasurer. Officers of Patriotic Committee

Mamot Gikby, a Turk, is in the following a war argument.

Three hundred British and Rusand Austrian laborers. A ten per the case of a female, "soltan friends appreciate the money he cent. re luction in wages precipi- teynen." tated the action.

Sir Robert Borden: "I came over to see how Canada can still further serve the Empire"

FARMERS' GARDENS.

Sufficient Attention Is Not Paid to Vegetables For Table.

Fresh vegetables make up a very small part of the diet of many families on farms. It is impossible to estimate the value of the vegetables which may be grown in the home garden, but it is safe to say that a well-kept garden will yield a return many times as great as the return several particulars. He gave the from an equal area devoted to general farm crops. There is great satisfaction in having an abundant supply of fresh vegetables, where they can be secured at short notice. Vegetables and fruits furnish a large part of the salts required by the human system, so that they are valuable medicinally as well as for food. If more succulent food were available, less money would be spent in doctors' fees and for medicines.

garden are not subjected to exposure in marketing, are not liable to infection and are of a much better flavor than vegetables that have been gathered for some time. The home vegetable garden deserves greater attention from the average farmer.

recommended wherever possible, and, where the work is to be done by means of horse tools, the garden should be so arranged that the rows will run lengthwise. It is often a good plan to grow vegetables for the table in the same field with corn or root crops. Two or three rows in this field, on the side close to the house, can be planted to tomatoes, radishes, cucumbers, cabbages, peas, beans, etc., and will supply fresh vegetables for the table during the growing season. They can be easily cultivated and kept clean when the corn and root crops are being attended to with the horse implements. One lady in Prince Edward Island, on one of the farms where illustradesired to go into the poultry business, moved the garden out to the field and had it attended to as above suggested. This plan worked so well that it has been continued and gives excellent satisfaction. There is no reason why the same thing cannot be done on many farms; it will mean that a better and more abundant supply of vegetables will be obtained, and, also that the woman's work on the farm will be considerably lightened. Every pound of $160.10 food supplied from the garden means and opened conversation. that there will be more of the other products of the farm for sale .-F. C. N. in Conservation.

Employs Ten Devils.

Among the Klondyke Indians the medicine "man" likely as not, is woman. As a matter of fact, says ner he was quite troubled lest she a writer in The Wide World, the most celebrated medicine "man" in a proposal of marriage, but about but failed. It was reported that at the Alaska at the present time is of the feminine sex. The lady rejoices in the name of No-ha-de-lan. Her name, literally translated, means "The woman who never came back." Where, or how she got this curious cognomen I was never able to learn, but the old lady is very proud of it.

No-ha-de-lan lives at the mouth of the Koyukuk river, a tributary of the Yukon, and has been the head of her tribe for many years. To obtain the post of witch-doctor it is necessary, according to tribal lore, that the applicant should have some peculiar physical or mental development. Hunchbacks are in great demand, and a childless woman is looked upon as a certain possessor of supernatural powers. Anyone afflicted with palsy or St. Vitus' dance also can obtain a first-class job. It would seem, however, from the view point of an impartial observer, that the witch-doctors, besides these abnormalities, are generally the possessors of a few more brains than their compatriots. Relying upon a Brantford hospital with two brok- few old tricks and their own native en ribs, the result of being struck intelligence, they manage to fool with a lead pipe in the hands of their neighbors and lead a nice easy of an Armenian fellow-worker, life, accumulating for themselves a as the Indian understands them. It might be as well to explain, by the way, that the terms "witch-doctor" sian laborers in the steel mills at and "medicine man" are synonythe Canadian "Soo" struck last mous. The Russian word "shaman" week. The laborers had been is often used in Alaska to describe a medicine man, but the Indians threatening to strike because themselves always address him by they were working with German the reverent term "teynen," or, in

PLAYING A PART

By WILLIAM CHANDLER

"Mr. Kenworthy," said Mrs. Middleton when that gentleman appeared for her dinner party, "before we dine I wish to speak a word to you about Urged on by a similar impulse, Mr. the young lady I have assigned to you Kenworthy proceeded to see how far for a dinner companion. She has a he could talk "soft" to the monomaniac mild form of insanity, or rather monomania. She fancies that every man she meets is in love with her, and no matter what he says she considers it a proposal of marriage. But don't be Fresh vegetables from the home alarmed; the next day she forgets all about it."

Kenworthy assured his hostess that he would excuse the young lady for anything that might occur between them, and she left him to attend to other matters connected with her din-Horse cultivation of the garden is ner party, without giving him any other information about the young lady he was to take out to dinner, not even mentioning her name.

At the last minute the sudden indisposition and regrets of an invited guest rendered a change in the arrangement of the couples necessary. When dinner was announced Kenworthy had not been presented to the lady that had been assigned him for a dinner companion. The procession had started for the dining room when a sister of the hostess hurried toward him and, leading him to a young lady sitting by herself, introduced him. He bowed, crooked his arm, and the two formed the last couple to take their seats at the table. Among the changes made was Mr. Kenworthy's dinner companion, and in the hurry the card bearing the name of Miss Bliss, beside whom he was to have sat, had not been changed for that of Miss Steele, the lady who had been assigned him in her stead. Miss Steele glanced down at the card on taking her seat, and a strange look came over her face. Then the corners of her red lips quirked upward, and a mischievous look came into her eyes. Kenworthy, too, gave a quick glance at the name take, he took up the glass of wine before her and sipped it, remarking at the same time that it must be a different brand from what he was drinking, for it tasted far sweeter. The supposed Miss Steele dropped her eyes, but said nothing. This started a succession of delicately turned compliments on the part of Mr. Kenworthy, to all of which the lady listened with apparent emotion.

For three hours the guests regaled themselves with Mrs. Middleton's table delicacies, and Miss Steele had ample time to win Mr. Kenworthy's good opinion, to say nothing of his admiration. During the early part of the dinforth certain tests. Pretending a mis- as that.

It is the nature of the small boy to see how near he can skate to an air hole in the ice without breaking in. without making love to her. The basis of his investigations was curiosity. If he had become infatuated with her in so short a time he was not aware of it. The dinner came to an end, and on retiring from the table Miss Steele led the way to a window seat quite apart from the other guests.

"Mr. Kenworthy," she said, opening and shutting a fan she held in her hand as though struggling with some deep emotion, "I confess that the period of our acquaintance has been very short. Nevertheless I believe in quick love. I have always felt that I could recognize my mate instantaneously and my mate would recognize me as quickly. The flattering words you have spoken to me have convinced me that I am not mistaken in believing that you have honored me with your love, and I am sure you would not have given me to understand that you love me without proposing marriage." Mr. Kenworthy had skated too near the edge of the air hole and had tumbled in. At the same moment Mrs. Middleton approached the couple with a young lady beside her.

"Mr. Kenworthy," she said, "I wish to present you to Miss Bliss, who was to have been your dinner companion had not regrets from one of my invited guests caused a change at the last mo-

Kenworthy alone noticed the twinkle in the eye of Miss Steele as she gave place to Miss Bliss and walked away with the hostess. The next morning Miss Steele received a note from Mr. Kenworthy regretting the interruption of the night before and begging permission to call upon her for the purpose of making arrangements for their wedding. Miss Steele laughed heartily and replied that she had no remembrance of anything that had occurred to warrant Mr. Kenworthy's assumption, but she would be happy to see him as a valued friend.

Mr. Kenworthy spent a year trying should construe something he said into to induce Miss Steele to marry him, the time the game was served he be- time of Mrs. Middleton's dinner party gan to think that he wouldn't mind it she was as good as engaged to the much if she did. Then he became cu- man she married, but friends who rious as to what she would consider a heard the story of her playing monoproposal, and lastly he began to put maniac said she was not quite so mean

CLEVER PEOPLE.

Mulrooney is A clever chap, He understands The weather map.

-Youngstown Telegram. Mulrooney has Nothing on James,

He can pronounce Those Polish names. -Sharon Herald. McFadden is

A chap more able, He understands A R. R. table. -Warren Tribune.

They've not a thing On Cousin Kate; She knows just when Her hat's on straight. -Yonkers Statesman.

Some one has said that "Time is money," but somehow a man's spends with them more than the

PA'S LATEST.

Ma hides a smile behind her hand An' grandpa chuckles soft an' low:

"How sweet her looks!" says sister, and "Get him a cane," says Uncle

Joe. "Six-fifty, picked right off the shelf," Says brother Jack, "the belt to boot!" An' all because pa's bought him-

A Palm Beach suit.

"It seems to me he's gettin' vain, Says grandma, heedless of his frown.

"He looks just like," says Mary Jane, "An ice cream cone turned upside down."

There's merriment that none can hide, Although he's mad enough to

Because pa's tucked himself inside | W. J. REID, President A Palm Beach suit.

PERSONAL

Mrs. Ayers of Toronto is visiting her son. Mr. W. H. Bean.

Miss Olga Howitt of Meaford is the guest of Miss Clara Aljoe

Mrs L. A. Rogers, of Owen Sound, visited her mother, Mrs

Currie, last week. Mr. E. A. Rowe was in Owen Sound yesterday at the Pastor

Russell lecture. Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Bretz of Shelburne visited the latter's parents here for a few days. Mrs. A. C. Wolfe left Tuesday to spend a couple of months with her daughter in Winnipeg.

Miss Annie MacKenzie, teacher on the public school staff, is visiting friends in Hanover. Misses Muriel and Martha Hoig of Chatham, are spending a couple of weeks as guests of Miss Bessie Telford. Mrs J. P. Whelan, and daughter

Norma, returned to Hamilton, after spending a couple of weeks with friends in town

Mr. Robert McLachlan of Manitoba is visiting his brother, Alex. here. It is thirteen years since his last visit.

son, Robert Stiles, of Buffalo, are | ingly grateful to 'Fruit-a-tives' for such guests of her brother and sister, relief, and I hope that others who Mr. T. C. Cauldwell and sister, of suffer from such distressing diseases Bentinck.

Mr. N. E. Zimmerman of Owen Sound is relieving at the Royal Bank during the absence of Mr Hughes, who is taking a couple of weeks' holiday.

Mrs. John Crutchley and Mrs. George Moore, of town, and their sister, Mrs. Sanford, of Toronto are spending a couple of months with their brother, Mr. Thomas Hopkins, of Carman, Man.

Dr. Gun, Mrs. Gun, and Mr. D. B. McFarlane went round the "belt'

MARKET REPORT

1
	DURHAM JULY 22, 1915
H	Fall Wheat
	Spring Wheat 1 10 to 1
	Milling Oats 55 to Pood Oate 55 to
	Peas 1 50 to 1
	Paulov 00 to
	Hay13 00 to 15
	Butter 21 to
3	Eggs 19 to
	Potatoes, per bag 45 to Dried Apples 3 to
	Flour, per cwt 3 50 to 4
	Oatmeal, per sack 3 50 to 4
•	Chop, per cwt 1 50 to 1
;	Live Hogs, per cwt 8 50 to 8
•	Hides per lh
t	Sheepskins 35 to
1	Wool
	Tallow 5 to r	11 +0
-	Laru
-

Restored To Health By "Fruit-a-tives"

MDE. ROCHON

Rochon, P.Q. March 2nd, 1915. "I have received the most wonderful benefit from taking 'Fruit-a-tives'. I suffered for years from Rheumatism and change of life, and I took every remedy obtainable, without any good results. I heard of 'Fruit-a-tives' and gave it a trial and it was the only medicine that really did me good. Now I am entirely well; the Rheumatism has disappeared and the terrible pains Mrs. Lyman M. Smith and grand- in my body are all gone. I am exceedwill try 'Fruit-a-tives' and get well".

MADAME ISAIE ROCHON. The marvellous work that 'Fruit-atives' is doing, in overcoming disease and healing the sick, is winning the admiration of thousands and thousands. 50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size, 25c. At all dealers or sent postpaid by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

by Collingwood, Meaford and Owen Sound the fore part of the week Mrs. Gilbert McKechnie and Miss Nan Gun, who are spending a couple of weeks at Go Home Bay, accompanied them as far as Collingwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas O'Neill and Mrs. Margaret O'Neill, all of Kenilworth, Mrs. Lenahan and daughter Helen, of Owen Sound Mr. and Mrs. J. Lavelle and two children, of Stratford, and Miss Lola Lavelle of Toronto, are visitors at the O'Neill homestead in Glenelg.

器

The question of providing work for prisoners of war at Kingston will be looked into immediately. It is understood they will be used it road-building, provided it does not interfere with labor conditions 14 in the city.

Concerning Your Eyes

Have You Clear Vision for Reading and Distance? Fare You Troubled with Headaches or Eye Strain?

If so you should consult a good optician, as headaches in the majority of cases come from the eyes and by having Glasses Properly Fitted will cure it.

We use the most modern Test known to-day namely "The Shadow Test" and guarantee satisfaction.

NO GLASSES PRESCRIBED UNLESS NEEDED

Duncan C. Town Watchmaker, Jeweler and Optician

Western Fair London September 10th = 18th 1 1915

$30,000.00 in Prizes and Attractions

Prizes increased this year by $3,000.00.

Excellent Program of Attractions Twice Daily.

Fireworks Every Night. New Steel Grandstand. Midway Better Than Ever.

Two Speed Events Daily.

Music by the Best Available Bands

SINGLE FARE OVER ALL RAILWAYS West of Toronto, and Fare and One-Third from outside points

> Prize Lists, Entry Forms and all information from the Secretary

A. M. HUNT, Secretary