

THE DURHAM CHRONICLE

W. IRWIN, Editor and Proprietor

DURHAM, OCTOBER 7, 1915.

PRICEVILLE.

We are having disagreeable weather again, with rain, and turning cold. Potatoes in general are to be taken up. In many places they are nearly all a failure on account of the rot, but on light, sandy soil they are not so bad.

The Rev. Mr. Graham of Cedarville preached for Mr. Matheson here on Sunday night. Mr. Matheson preached for Mr. Graham at Espin, south of Hopeville, on the same evening.

Children's service will be held in the Presbyterian church next Sunday at the usual time. We hear that Mr. Alex McMillan of the south line is to be operated on this forenoon, the 5th, by Dr. Groves of Fergus, and some of the neighboring doctors.

Quite a number of our boys enlisted in the army during the past few days. Some fifteen enlisted from Priceville and vicinity.

Our exhibition was partly a failure, on account of the wet afternoon. However, those who came were well satisfied to endure a little wetting, as the program was a good one.

Sacrament will be observed in the Presbyterian church here in the morning of the 24th inst. The Misses Wright have completed a fine, comfortable looking stable, to accommodate their stock this winter.

Our mail carriers will soon find travelling disagreeable, but they never fail in their duty.

Some are busy cutting corn. It is poor weather for the work.

Mr. Grundy, our shoemaker, has enlisted in the army, and will be leaving soon.

Mrs. Sackett and daughter Edna are spending a while in Toronto with daughters and sisters there.

Mr. Peter Ramage and sister, and Mr. and Mrs. Burgess, all of Durham, motored out Sunday, and attended church here in the evening.

Judge Sutherland of Owen Sound, attended a Court of Revision at the township hall on Monday. Some corrections were made, and some names added to the list.

The swamps are pretty nearly as full of water as they were in the spring, and there won't be much plowing done on low land this fall unless the weather takes a change.

The ladies of Priceville and vicinity are doing their share in making supplies for the soldiers.

Miss Charlotte McDonald, nurse, was attending to patients in different places lately.

The fellow who stole Geo. Binnie's box of butter will have a winter's supply of good, fresh and wholesome butter, but we hope he won't get choked by being too greedy in partaking thereof.

The funeral of Mr. Knowles of Chicago, brother-in-law of Mrs. Mortimer of Shelburne, took place to the cemetery here a week ago last Sunday. Rev. Mr. Matheson officiated.

Public Meeting

A meeting of citizens will be held in the Town Hall on Friday evening to take into consideration the Imperial appeal for aid to Red Cross funds.

An Imperial Appeal

The Lieut. Governor of Ontario has received from Lord Landsowne, Colonial Secy. in the British Government an appeal for aid to Red Cross work.

"I beg to inform you that Lord Landsowne has sent me the following cablegram; I beg to inform you that the British Red Cross Society and the Order of St John in view of the great demands upon the resources both in France and in the near East, have decided to make an appeal through the Empire by street and other collections upon the 21st day of October next.

The money received from this appeal will be devoted entirely to relieving the suffering of our wounded soldiers and sailors from home and overseas at the various seats of war. From all parts of the King's dominions we have already received generous assistance in our work but with the increase of British and overseas forces at the front, there is a corresponding increase in our expenditure and we shall be truly grateful if you will help us by making an appeal and sending the proceeds to us for the objects which I have named.

Their Majesties the King and Queen and her Majesty, Queen Alexandra, are giving us their gracious patronage and I trust that you will also be able to see your way to help.

JOHN S. HENDRIE,

Lieutenant Governor To A. S. Hunter, Mayor.

BLYTH'S CORNERS.

The last of the earliest pioneers Mrs. Marshall, Sr, whom we mentioned in our last budget as being in a serious condition, passed away peacefully on Wednesday last, at the good old age of 89 years.

The deceased, whose maiden name was Jessie McIvride, was born in the town of Crieff, Scotland, on August 6, 1826. At the age of 20 she married the man of her choice, Mr. James Marshall, who predeceased her some 34 years ago.

The deceased was a life-long Presbyterian, and a devoted and consistent Christian. The funeral on Friday was largely attended, the funeral service being conducted by her pastor, Rev. P. M. Smith. The pall bearers were J. McIvride, D. McIvride, D. Marshall, J. Marshall, J. Schreiber and A. Marshall.

Mr. Victor Caisley got leave of absence from his regiment at Niagara and took a last flying trip up yesterday to see his many friends and well wishers. He expects to go with his regiment, the 35th Battalion to England shortly. Victor spent six years of his boyhood days with us, and proved himself a capable and trusty lad, and we have every confidence that he will give a good account of himself in "rallying" round the flag.

In face of the measly attitude taken by Mr. Ford, of the Ford Motor Co. it is almost disloyal to ride in an auto of his make, let alone buy one. Our silo men are bumped hard on the rocks, owing to an untrusty party to supply the power and the corn is considerably wasted and nothing done with it yet.

HOLSTEIN BRANCH OF THE RECRUITING LEAGUE

On Thursday evening of last week a number of members of the Durham branch of the Grey County Recruiting League made a trip to Holstein to organize a branch there.

Dr. Jamieson's explanation was clear, and the strong emphasis he places on the necessity for men, more men, money and more money, had a telling effect upon the audience. Men and money were a necessity to carry on the great struggle to a successful issue.

The other speakers were Mr. W. Laidlaw, Rev. Mr. Morris, Mr. A. H. Jackson, and the editor of The Chronicle. Pithy addresses were also made by Rev. Mr. Iobott, Rev. Dr. Marsh, and Mr. J. R. Philp.

A League was formed, consisting of John McArthur, president; Geo. Eye, vice-president; Dr. Ferguson, secretary-treasurer. An executive committee, with power to add to its members, was nominated as follows: L. E. Nicholson, R. M. Tribe, F. Allingham, F. McClocklin, D. Gillies, A. Ross.

What After Safety?

Everybody from Dan to Beersheba is now thoroughly convinced that "safety first" is the proper thing. It may not always be possible to agree upon whose safety it shall be, but considered wholly in the abstract anybody caught putting anything ahead of safety in these enlightened days of peace and good will would have to dodge anathema the rest of his life.

Indeed, so amicably and universally settled is this problem of "safety first" that many are wondering if we shouldn't now stop talking about it and commence to consider what shall come after safety. Safety, although the first thing, is not the only thing.

Inner Life in Constantinople. Constantinople has a deleterious effect upon Europeans. So at least declared a "great and highly gifted lady," mentioned by Grant Duff.

This Player "Quick Study." For remarkable memory it would be hard to outdo a strolling player of the eighteenth century, of whom Sir William Robertson Nicoll has written.

On the Safe Side. McTavish and a brither Scot, McPherson, entered the tram and took their seats near the door. Sitting up in the corner was a nice young Hielan lassie, and McTavish was always nudging his friend.

Manganese Steel. A remarkable peculiarity of manganese steel is its almost complete lack of magnetic properties. A bar of this steel balanced on a knife edge was not drawn out of balance by a powerful magnet, but when hammered into very thin foil the steel was lifted by the magnet.

Passed It On. Doctor—You have nervous dyspepsia, just the same as Brown had. His was caused by worrying over his butcher's bill. I directed him to stop worrying. Stranger—Yes, and now he's cured and I've got it. I'm his butcher.—Boston Transcript.

Fitting Mates. "So the dressmaker married the tailor." "Yes, I don't know of a marriage where there could be two more fitting mates."—Baltimore American.

Only learn to catch happiness, for happiness is ever by you.—Goethe.

Troubles have come trooping to the neighborhood the past few days. On Saturday a telegram was received by Mr. Patrick Haley Sr., announcing the sudden death of his youngest daughter, Annie, Mrs. Herman Glasser, of Niagara.

One of our most popular young men is to be wedded to one of Egremont's fairest daughters on Wednesday of this week, and a big crowd from hereabouts are invited to the wedding.

So sweet and winning in her sunny ways, so angelic in face, form and disposition, was Jessie Belle-Haley, that the whole countryside loved the child and her parents, and kindred were tied to her by bonds of affection too deep to express.

Dear, little winsome Jessie Belle! She was born ten years ago last May, the second eldest child of Mr. and Mrs. James Haley. The

The council met in regular session on Monday night, with the members all present. After reading of minutes and other business, accounts amounting to $218.36 were passed and ordered paid.

funeral took place on Sunday afternoon to Zion cemetery, the Rev. E. S. Moyer conducting a most kindly, comforting service in the home and at the grave. The latter was festooned in white and garlanded with pink and white asters, and as the lid closed over the white casket, the pastor, schoolmates and friends hope-fully and tenderly sang, "Yes, we'll gather at the river." There was a very large concourse of friends, neighbors and sympathizers from far and near, her cousin, Miss Mary Peters, coming all the way from Rochester, bringing a beautiful floral tribute with her. To the grief-stricken parents, brothers and sisters, and kindred, the deepest sympathy of a wide circle is extended. Her songs of hope, and simple childish faith and trust have been a lesson to many an older one. "A little child shall lead them."

My Kidneys resumed their normal action after I had taken upwards of a dozen boxes and I regained my old-time vitality. Today, I am as well as ever." B. A. REV. T.H. FARR LEAVES BLYTH

This week Blyth loses one of its most highly respected families in the removal of Rev. T. H. and Mrs. Farr and children to Kincardine, where Mr. Farr becomes rector of the Anglican church.

Mr. Farr has, during his five years' residence in Blyth, won the goodwill and esteem of all classes irrespective of religious denominations. He has ever had the welfare of the town and community at heart and was never lax in doing his share to better the condition of our people, socially and otherwise.

Trinity church on Sunday evening was well filled to hear the reverend gentleman's farewell message to the people of this congregation. The sermon was much appreciated and the general consensus of opinion was that it was the most eloquent heard in Blyth for some time.

It is the sincere wish of a host of friends here that Rev. Mr. Farr and family may be long spared to enjoy their new home in Kincardine.—Blyth Standard.
