SYNOPSIS OF CANADIAN NORTH WEST LAND REGULATIONS.

The sole head of a family, or any male over 18 years old, may homestead a quarter-section of available Dominion land in Manitoba, Saskatchewan, or Alberta. Applicant must appear in person at the Dominion Lands Agency or Sub-Agency for the District. Entry by proxy may be made at any Dominion Lands Agency (but not Sub-Agency), on certain conditions.

Duties.—Six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land in each of three years. A homesteader may live within nine miles of his homestead on a farm of at least 80 acres, on certain conditions. A habitable house is required except where residence is performed in the vicinity.

In certain districts a homesteader in good standing may preempt a quarter-section alongside his homestead. Price $3.00 per acre. Duties.—Six months' residence in each of three years after earning homestead patent—also 50 acres extra cultivation. Pre-emption patent may be obtained as soon as homestead patent, on certain conditions.

A settler who has exhausted his homestead right may take a purchased homestead in certain districts. Price $3.00 per acre. Duties.—Must reside six months in each of three years, cultivate 50 acres and erect a house worth $300.

The area of cultivation is subject to reduction in case of rough, scrubby or stony land. Live stock may be substituted for cultivation under certain conditions.

THE WAR AT YOUR DOOR

The war in Europe increases in intensity and the end is not yet. The big metropolitan newspaper has never been in such universal demand as it is to-day and The Toronto Mail and Empire leads all its contemporaries in supplying the most accurate news from the vast scene of world conflict.

The Weekly Mail and Empire contains the story of the war as it progresses, while the daily edition always publishes the best daily record of the gigantic struggle.

By arrangement we can supply The Weekly Mail and Empire and The Chronicle together from now till January 1, 1916, for 25c., or from now till January 1, 1917 for $1.75. This is an offer that enables you to get the best big weekly published in Canada, along with your best local paper, at almost a half-price rate. Send or bring all orders to The Chronicle office.

THE SAFETY-FIRST CRITIC.

"Brown is a very careful critic. Isn't he?" "In what way?" "He always manages to take the sting out of his unfavorable comment." "For instance?" "His bride made him a shortcake the other day, and when she asked him how he liked it he replied, 'It isn't as good as your mother used to make.'"—Detroit Free Press.

Notice to Creditors

In the matter of the estate of William Kirk Reid, late of the Town of Durham in the County of Grey, insurance Agent, deceased. Notice is hereby given pursuant to The Revised Statutes of Ontario 1914, chapter 121, that all creditors and others having claims against the estate of the said William Kirk Reid, who died on or about the 22nd day of June, 1915, are required on or before the 5th day of November, 1915, to send by post prepaid or deliver to Edna Clara Reid, Durham, Ontario, the Administratrix of the estate of the said William Kirk Reid, their Christian and surnames, addresses and descriptions, the full particulars of their claims, the statement of their accounts and the nature of the securities, if any, held by them.

And further take notice that after such last mentioned date the said Administratrix will proceed to distribute the assets of the deceased among the parties entitled thereto, having regard to the claims of which she shall then have notice, and that the said Administratrix will not be liable for the said assets or any part thereof to any person or persons of whose claim notice shall not have been received by her at the time of such distribution.

Dated at Durham this 5th day of October, A. D. 1915. EDNA CLARA REID, Durham P. O., Ont. Administratrix of the estate of the said Wm. Kirk Reid, deceased.

FLESHERTON.

Miss Oldham and Miss Holmes spent the Thanksgiving holidays with friends in Toronto. Mrs. W. J. Boyd visited over the week end with her daughter in Toronto.

Miss Aleda Mitchell visited her aunt in the city over Thanksgiving season.

Mrs. Scott of Toronto visited her sister, Mrs. W. Buskin, last week, and motored to Owen Sound with Mrs. Buskin and daughter, Reta, who visited for a couple of days and took in the fair at the county town.

Mr. W. Somers of Calgary holidayed at his old home in Osprey last week, and visited his old friends here.

Miss Lillian Armstrong is visiting relatives at Havelock and other points east.

Miss Lillian Bunt is visiting relatives at Woodbridge and Toronto.

Mrs. G. Irwin, who visited her sister, Mrs. W. Henry, returned to her home at Dunganon on Friday, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Henry, daughter Olive, and Mrs. Mark Wilson, to visit over the week end.

Pastor Bert Armstrong was over from Meaford the end of the week visiting his mother.

Mrs. T. E. Aikenhead of Toronto is visiting her mother, Mrs. J. W. Armstrong, who is ill. Mr. Aikenhead accompanied her, returning to the city the following day.

Miss Celia VanDusen was home from Toronto visiting her mother over the week end.

Dr. and Mrs. Carter visited the past couple of weeks with relatives at Bondhead, Toronto and Woodstock.

Mr. Ray Fedlar attended Owen Sound fair last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Bellamy of Markdale have the sympathy of their old friends here in their bereavement in the death of their infant son, a twin, last week. Interment was made in the family plot here.

Mr. J. O. Dargavel of Rock Mills was called to Dornoch last week by the death of his father.

Major Hansford of Winnipeg was in Toronto last week on a short visit with relatives, before leaving for service at the front. The Major is a son-in-law of Mrs. J. W. Henderson, and has frequently visited with relatives here, who wish him a safe return to his family.

The Osprey fair at Feversham last week was well patronized from here and a number of the ladies, who added much to the hall exhibit, won many prizes.

Born.—On September 29, to Mr. and Mrs. Claudy Ekins, Toronto line, a daughter.

Born.—At Ceylon, on October 6, to Mr. and Mrs. S. Rands, a daughter.

Mrs. Ed. Thompson and little daughter, of Toronto, are on a two weeks' visit with relatives here.

Mr. Elwyn Jamieson was in Toronto over the holiday.

We omitted noting last week that fair day here was flag day for the Children's Aid work in the county and that over $40 were raised by the group of young girls directed by Mrs. Thurston.

Dr. E. K. Richardson now Major Richardson, wife and babe, of Toronto, spent Thanksgiving at his old home here. Major Richardson, who had been for some time Captain of the Field Artillery, Toronto, and actively engaged preparing men for that service since the war began, has recently been promoted to the position he now holds. Flesherton extends congratulations.

Mr. C. J. Bellamy spent Thanksgiving in Toronto.

Miss Jennie Blackburn of Mount Forest visited her cousin, Mrs. T. J. Fisher, over the holiday, accompanied by Miss McIntyre.

Miss Mary Wilson and mother visited in Toronto over the week end.

The East Grey Teachers' Convention at Thornbury on Thursday and Friday is reported a good one, with an interesting program throughout. There was a good attendance from this side of the inspectorate, among those present being: Mr. Holland, Miss Switzer, Miss Lowndes, Miss Wilson and Mr. T. Chard, of Flesherton, and Mr. Griffin of Ceylon. At the concert given in behalf of the Red Cross Fund, $96 were raised, and it was resolved that the teachers of the association each give one day's pay to the Red Cross, which will aggregate over $400, altogether a good contribution to this worthy object.

Mr. T. Chard, who has enlisted here, was presented with a wrist watch by the teachers. Mr. Petch of Thornbury, was elected president for the ensuing year, and it

LUX

Won't Shrink Woollens

BESIDES being a wonderful cleanser, LUX adds to the life of woollen and flannel garments. Keeps all loosely woven fabrics from shrinking or thickening in the wash.

LUX dissolves readily in hot water, makes a smooth, cream-like lather which cannot injure the finest fabrics or the daintiest hands. LUX—pure essence of soap in flakes—is the favourite washing preparation in homes of refinement.

was resolved that next meeting be held at Flesherton.

The Misses Lily and Beatrice Thistlewaite were home from Toronto over Thanksgiving.

A union thanksgiving service was held in the Methodist church on Monday forenoon. Rev. Mr. Kerr preached a good sermon fitting the occasion.

The Methodist congregation was without a preacher on Sunday morning. The pastor at New Fingland, for whom Rev. Mr. Dudgeon conducted anniversary service, was expected, but disappointed.

Service in the Presbyterian church will be withdrawn next Sunday, on account of anniversary services at Proton Station, which will be conducted by Rev. Mr. Dudgeon, whose pulpit will be supplied by Rev. Mr. McVicar.

Miss Wallace spent last week in Toronto with her sister, Mrs. R. McClelland, whose husband was drowned in Lake Erie on September 26, during the storm which wrecked the schooner Cheboygan, on which he was one of the crew. The body was found on Saturday last and taken to Port Hope for burial. The deceased, who was 35 years of age, leaves his widow and three children, who have the sympathy of their friends here.

The Misses Florence and Bryce Welton, and Miss Dorothy Taylor, of Mt. Forest, were visitors at Mr. G. B. Welton's over the week end.

There was a large attendance at the Women's Institute meeting last week, when the membership contest of the past three months closed. Mrs. W. Henry and Mrs. W. Moore were the captains, the former winning by 65 points. The contest resulted in a large increase to the membership, from 46 to 187. We think no other can be found to match this.

A number of sports from the village attended a shooting match at Mr. W. Wyatt's on Thanksgiving day, when a number of fine birds were won in the contest. Capt. Ern. Armstrong of Cobalt, and Mr. Wes Armstrong and
