Inspector Campbell visited our school the other day, and found the pupils making satisfactory #### progress.

Miss Winnie Greenwood is visiting this week with friends in Egremont. The Edwards brothers are at work this week building a concrete wall under Mr. A. J. Greenwood's stable on the Banks place. Miss Mary Edge was home from Drayton over Thanksgiving. She was accompanied by Miss Ellerby, with whom she is associated on the teaching staff of Drayton continuation school. Mr. John D. McFayden and sister, Miss Mary, attended the Markdale fair on Wednesday. Messrs. Whitmore and Newell were at work on Monday and Tuesday filling silos for C. H. Moffat and J. G. Firth. Men who might have something worth while to say seldom say it.

McWILLIAMS.

Threshing is now the order of the day and grain is turning out well. The weather is so wet it keeps everything going slowly. Mr. and Mrs. W. Weir of Toronto spent the holiday with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Weir. Born.—On Sunday, October 3, to Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Hargrave, a daughter. The congregation of Ebenezer church have had the inside of the church fixed up generally, the new paper and paint making it look quite clean and cosy. We tender our congratulations to Mr. Arthur McNally and Miss Bella Lee, who were married last week at the home of the bride's mother. We join with the many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lawrence in sympathizing with them in the death of their little daughter. Allie was a most beautiful child in both face and disposition, and so sweet and patient throughout her long illness. She will be much missed by both parents and grandparents. Miss Allie Lawrence of Toronto attended the funeral of her little niece on Saturday. Mr. W. Hamilton and wife of Regina have been spending a short holiday with Mr. and Mrs. David Hamilton. Mr. Will McFadden of the Lake is busy these days filling his new silo. Mrs. Sproule is this week moving back to her farm near Holland. Mr. Tom Grasby of St. Marys was up to the funeral of his little niece, Allie Lawrence, Saturday.

An order-in-Council has removed the restrictions upon exports of potatoes from Canada to the United States. Six hundred invalided Canadian soldiers have already been provided for in convalescent homes of the Hospital Commission. The department of militia will supply larrigans to the soldiers at the front and in England, as well as an extra pair of boots for each.

HYMENEAL

McNALLY-LEE.
An interesting and very pretty wedding was solemnized on Wednesday afternoon of last week at the home of Mrs. W. H. Lee of Egremont when her daughter, Isabella, was united in marriage to Mr. Arthur McNally of Glenelg. At four o'clock, the groom took his place on the lawn, and to Mendelssohn's wedding march, played by Mrs. John Queen, the bride, unattended, was given away by her brother, Arthur. The ceremony was performed with due solemnity by Rev. John Morris, and the vows made by the contracting couple with equal earnestness. The bride was charmingly attired in white ivory satin, trimmed with tulle and shirring, with a regulation veil, caught up with orange blossoms, and carried a bouquet of maidenhair fern and white asters. Her travelling suit was of navy blue serge and a white plush hat. The groom's gift to the bride was a gold watch and to the organist a gold brooch. The many beautiful and costly presents were a high tribute to the popularity of the bride, who is highly esteemed in the community where her whole life has been spent. While the congratulations of one hundred and twenty-five guests were being heartily extended, the choir lent a charm to the picture by singing a spirited chorus. At the close the large company sat down to a tasty and tempting dinner of the choicest edibles, the wedding cake, a handsome four-storey structure, being amongst the chief adornments. The relatives from a distance were the two Misses Lee from Mono Mills, and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph McNally and Mr. and Mrs. Kingston from Meaford. The evening was spent in music and other social amusements till the small hours of the morning were growing large, when all extended their happiest felicitations and left for their respective homes. The happy young couple, to whom we extend our best wishes, will still be amongst us, having taken up their residence at the groom's home in Glenelg. We wish them a long and happy life.
