

Next Week We'll Tell You Where They Stand

WATCH THE PAPERS NEXT WEEK and you'll see the position of each contestant in the race. If the girl you are working for is FIRST, keep her at the top by saving your votes for her. If she is not at the head of the list do your share to put her there. There are many money-saving opportunities just now that should bring you to our store, and besides the saving to you, you will get free votes which will help to put your favorite contestant first. Remember the contest runs six months, and we are into the second month now—Put her at the top of the list and keep her there—The time is short.

FLESHERTON.
The treasurer's statement of receipts and expenditures of the Flesherton branch of the Upper Canada Bible Society for the year ending December 31, 1914, shows as follows: Receipts—Collection at public meetings, $5.25; contributions, $79.50; sales, $11.33; total $106.08. Expenditures—Local accounts, $4.89; paid Bible Society, $101.19; total, $106.08. The secretary is now placing the collector's books in the hands of those appointed to canvass for this branch for the current year, and notwithstanding the numerous other calls for worthy causes, it is hoped there will be a generous response to the needs of this ever worthy cause. The Bible Society, during the period of the war, has been doing a great work in the distribution of the scriptures amongst the soldiers in their camps and on the battlefield.

Born—On Thursday, October 21, to Mr. and Mrs. John Parker, a daughter.
Born—On Sunday, October 10, to Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Gibson, a son.
Mr. Elmer Kenny, employed at Flesherton Station freight sheds, was before Magistrate McMullen last week, charged with pointing a shot gun at some school boys who were about the shed. Mr. Kenny pleaded guilty, but stated it was only done to scare the boys. It was, however, an unlawful act, and a perilous one, from the fact that the gun was loaded, for it was a few seconds later discharged close to one of the boys who declined to leave. A fine of ten dollars and costs was imposed.
On Friday afternoon last a lengthy assault case was heard by Magistrate McMullen. The complainant was Robt. Burnside, stock dealer, Markdale, and the defendant Samuel Wright, county constable, who lives in Glenelg. The trouble arose over getting turn at the stock weigh scales at Markdale station. After hearing a number of witnesses it was not very clear that the defendant had with his own hand committed the assault charged, but it was shown and admitted that he incited an unlawful act, and was therefore found guilty and fined ten dollars and costs. The magistrate pointed out the unfortunate thing that an officer of the law, sworn to keep the peace, should be a transgressor. Mr. P. McCullough was counsel for the defendant and Mr. J. A. Boyd assisted the magistrate in taking the evidence.

Miss Florence Thurston, bride-to-be, was last week the recipient of many beautiful gifts from her friends here. At the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Phillips on Wednesday evening she was given a miscellaneous shower. On Thursday evening at Dr. Murray's, the primary class in the Methodist Sunday school, of which she was teacher, presented her with a rocking chair and jardiniere stand, and on Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Armstrong, the teachers of the Sunday school presented her with a valuable case of cutlery.

On Wednesday, the young men of this village and vicinity who enlisted, left on the noon train for Owen Sound, and were given a hearty send-off by the band, which accompanied them to the depot.
Mr. David Jamieson, an old resident of Artemesia, who lived at Portlaw before moving to Toronto a few years ago, died in the city last week, with pneumonia. His remains were brought back for burial and the funeral took place to Salem cemetery on Friday from the home of his brother, J. K. Jamieson. Besides his widow, five sons and one daughter survive.

Mr and Mrs. C. H. Munshaw and Mr and Mrs. Welton visited Mr. Welton's mother at Mt Forest on Sunday
Mrs VanDusen left on Monday to visit friends at Markdale and Chatsworth
Miss Kate Bellamy has returned from an extended visit in Toronto
Mrs W. J. Stewart was at Feversham on Sunday to see her brother, William, suffering with a fracture of the leg
Mrs Aikenhead and daughter, Ruby, of Toronto, and Mrs Goff of Thornbury, are visiting Mrs J. W. Armstrong, who continues very ill
Mr Ed Best, thresher, met with a bad accident on Monday, when crushed between the engine and separator of his outfit. Two ribs were fractured, and other severe bruises in the body were sustained

The high school students who recently gave here the play "A Regular Fix," repeated it at Kimberley one evening last week for the benefit of the Red Cross Society there.
The canvass on Trafalgar Day in behalf of the British Red Cross in this village and the township surrounding, met with good success, but returns are not yet completed so as to give the results.
The work of wiring the residences and business places in the village is now making good progress under three gangs of men on the job. It is expected the electric current will be turned on soon.
Rev. Mr. Dudgeon exchanged pulpits on Sunday with Rev. Mr. Caldwell of Shelburne, who preached here in the morning and conducted anniversary services at Meaford Road in the afternoon and evening. Rev. Mr. Madden of Eugenia supplied here in the evening. At the Presbyterian church the pastor spoke on Union and ballots for the vote to be taken were distributed. At the former vote this congregation gave a large majority in favor of union, which will doubtless be repeated.
