THEY ARE OFF. The Big Race has started and the first mile post has been passed. Thirty-six have crossed the line and made a splendid start. We publish the standing by number only. If your favorite is last, she would not like it known. If she's first she will tell you. Everyone has a number. They know their number, and they know by this list exactly where they stand. Twenty-five of these contestants have permitted us to solicit your votes and influence for them. The other eleven do not like their names to be known, so they will have to take their own chances. Look over the list which has been arranged alphabetically. Pick out the one you want to win. Vote for her, work for her and put her at the top—yes and keep her there. Taking the names as they are arranged in the list, we might mention that Mrs. Armstrong is making a splendid run. Mrs. Geo. Brown has many friends north of Durham who will be glad to help her along. Miss Maud Cuff is out after her friends and is showing well in the list. Miss Angelina Davis has surprised a great many by her splendid showing. Little Gladys Douglas, the youngest of the bunch, has made them all sit up and take notice. Mrs. J. Ford turned in a bunch of votes that surprised us all. Miss Ida Gibson is sure to be a winner if she keeps up her present pace. Miss Maud Hamilton has her own circle of friends who will keep her up on the list. Little Hilda Harvey is some runner, Hilda wants everyone to save their spare votes for her. Miss Dorothy Heather has made a splendid showing and should win out. Mrs. Geo. Lawrence, of Egremont, has a host of friends that are boosting her up near the top. Mrs. Jack Lloyd has been the biggest surprise in the race. On Saturday night she handed in a bunch of votes that came mighty near making her head the list. Mrs. Hannah Mightou does not come often, she has twelve miles to drive, but when she comes she goes some. She told us on Saturday night that the Piano was as good as hers now. Watch Mrs. Mightou, Mrs. Thos. Mountain does not say much, but she's sawing wood all the time, look where she stands, it's not down near the tail-enders, and she's out to win. Miss Jean McFarlane has made an excellent showing. Friends that she does not see are leaving votes here at the store for her. We take off our hats to Mrs. Robt. McGillivray, she didn't know she had so many friends until the contest started. She looks like a likely prize-winner to us. We would like to tell you where Mrs. Albert Noble stands, it's right up within the money circle, pick her for one of the winners. Mrs. Jas. Park, of Normanby, increased her standing Saturday by a big bunch of votes, part of which were left here for her by good friends. And then comes Miss Clara Ritchie. You leave it to Clara. She is right out after the votes and she's getting them too, but she wants yours. Miss Carrie Scheuermann wants you to know that she is in the race to stay. She is doing some hustling. When we say Gladys Search everybody listens. Don't ask us please, we're not supposed to tell. Enough for you to know that she's within the money circle. Mrs. Harry Williams, of Glenelg, is well up on the list. Give her your support and keep up her standing. Mrs. Ben Woods has done well too, she has a lot of good friends that should help her to win one of the prizes. Last, but by no means least, comes Irene Whittaker. It was said by a customer in our store last week that "she would make them all step," and do you know, she almost did it. Saturday night she turned in a bunch of votes that kept some of us home from church on Sunday to count them all. Keep your eye on Irene. Get busy—Everybody—Boost your favorite. There is an envelope here for each one and you can leave the votes here for your friend. They all want your help—RIGHT NOW. We give one vote for every cent you spend in this store, and produce counts the same as cash. We're into the second month now. The time is short.

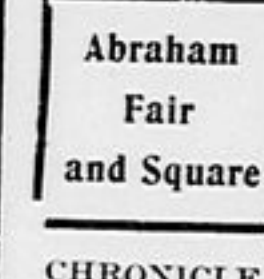

THE J. D. ABRAHAM CO.

CHRONICLE

FLESHERTON
Another of the few remaining old residents of Flesherton has passed away in the person of Mrs. J. W. Armstrong, relict of the late J. W. Armstrong, Esq., who after a brief illness passed peacefully on Friday evening last, in her 81st year. The deceased, whose maiden name was Elizabeth Jane Wilson, was born in Enniskillen, Ireland. When quite young she came with her parents to Canada, and some time afterward moved to Grey county, settling at Inistioige, where she grew to womanhood, and in 1855 was married to Mr. Armstrong, who died here 20 years ago. After ten years' married life at Inistioige she came with her husband to this village, where she has resided for 50 years. She was a kind-hearted and very highly esteemed woman, a devoted wife and mother. From early in life she was a faithful member of the Methodist church, and her religious experience deepened as her years advanced. The funeral took place to the public cemetery on Monday afternoon, an impressive service being held in the Methodist church, which was appropriately draped, and filled with a large congregation. The pastor, Rev. Mr. Dudgeon, who preached a comforting sermon from Ps. 17:15, was assisted in the service by Rev. Mr. McVicar and Rev. Mr. Kerr of this place, also Rev. J. R. Aikenhead of Toronto, who paid a touching tribute to the memory of the deceased, whom he had known from his childhood. An obituary, prepared by Mr. M. K. Richardson, an old friend of the family, was a very fitting tribute to the memory of the departed. Dr. Murray, R. G. Holland and H. Sullivan, sang Tennyson's "Crossing the Bar," and the choir sang, "Gathering One by One." The pall bearers were sons and nephews. The floral tributes from the Ladies' Aid, the family, and friends, were most beautiful and numerous, literally burying the casket. A special coach conveyed a number of relatives and friends from the city. Four sons and four daughters survive their mother, all of whom were present at the funeral, viz., William A. Flesherton; Wesley, Toronto; Rev. Bert. Meaford; and Dr. Ern. Cobalt; Mrs. J.D. Clark, Ottawa; Mrs. T. E. Aikenhead, Toronto; Mrs. F. H. W. Hickling, Flesherton, and Mrs. Rev. F. D. Goff, Thornbury. The deceased's only brother, Rev. Andrew Wilson, of Decatur, Ill., also survives her. Mr. J. D. Clarke and daughter, Dorothea, of Ottawa, Mr. James Aikenhead, Misses Jennie and Ruby Aikenhead, Mrs. Wes Armstrong, Mrs. Berry, Mrs. Rev. Shilton, and Fred and Joseph Armstrong, Toronto; Rev. F. D. Goff, Thornbury and Mr. and Mrs. Powe, Dundalk. The township council sitting adjourned to attend, and the public school was closed out of respect to the departed.

Mr. W. J. Caswell, Toronto line, who has been giving attention recently to the profits of stock raising, marketed part of a car load in the city a few days ago with good success. For a 16 months' old Durham calf weighing 1,170 pounds he realized $93.60. The young animal was much admired by the stockmen. Who can report anything better than this?
The demonstration cars of the Farm Special which visited Flesherton Station on Thursday were visited by many of the villagers and farmers of the surrounding country, who were pleased with the exhibits made of horses, cattle, sheep, poultry, wheat, oats, corn, clover seed, weed seeds, etc. The delegation of demonstrators gave instructive talks and answered many questions. One of the number, Mrs. Parsons, of Cochrane, came to the town hall under the auspices of the Women's Institute and gave a splendid Red Cross patriotic address. It was unfortunate the audience was so small, for the address was an inspiration and one of the finest given here.

On the charge of using indecent language to a lady, Jas. White of Porton Station came before Magistrate McMullen last week and pleading guilty, was fined $5 and costs. Charged with assault by Robt. Burnside of Markdale, Samuel Baines was also before Magistrate McMullen last week and acknowledging the offence, the penalty was $5 and costs. This was the sequel to the stock-weighing jangle we reported last week.
Dr. Ern. Armstrong of Cobalt is to be congratulated upon his military promotion to Lieut.-Colonel.
A quiet but pretty autumn wedding took place at the home of Editor and Mrs. W. H. Thurston at high noon on Wednesday, October 27, when their eldest daughter, Florence Estelle, was married to Mr. N. Havelock Durrant of Mitchell, Ont., the ceremony being performed by Rev. Jas. Dudgeon, pastor of the Methodist church. The bride, who was unattended, looked sweet in a gown of cream silk crepe, with pearl trimmings. She carried a beautiful bouquet of bride roses and lily of the valley. The house and table decorations were very pretty, that in the parlor being done in yellow chrysanthemums, smilax and palms, and that in the dining room being in pink and white carnations and smilax. After the ceremony and congratulations, a choice wedding breakfast was served and later the young couple left by auto for Durham, taking the evening train for Toronto, visiting at Orillia, Sunderland and other points before returning to their new home at Mitchell. The bride travelled in a military costume of blue gaberdine and black velvet hat. The bride, who received a large number of beautiful wedding gifts, was one of Flesherton's most popular young ladies. She will be very much missed, especially in the Methodist church, where she was a very active worker. We join in the many good wishes for her future happiness. The guests from a distance at the wedding were, the bride's aged grandmother, Mrs. J. M. Thurston and Miss Thurston, of Chicago, her sister, Mrs. R. W. Shaw, of Lion's Head, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Thurston and Miss Dell Thurston, Toronto, Mr. and Mrs. Foster, of Tara, and Mr. and Mrs. Wallace, of Kimberley.
Rev. Mr. McVicar will exchange pulpits with Rev. Mr. Phalen of Markdale next Sunday.
Mrs. W. Trimble has returned from an extended visit with her daughter at Cadillac, Mich.
Mr. and Mrs. Mark Wilson were at Glenelg on Friday visiting the latter's mother, who is ill.
Principal Holland resumed his duties in the public school on Monday, after two weeks' illness. Mrs. Conley of Proton Station visited friends here over the week end.
Miss Bessie McVicar visited over the week end with Miss Jean Wright at Vandeleur.
Mrs. Walker has had her residence reshingled.
Mr. W. A. Gibson moved his family to Mrs. Pedlar's residence on Monday.
Mrs. Charlie Ottewill and little son, of Toronto, are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wilcock, and other relatives.
Dr. Murray, W. H. Bunt, and T. Chard, motored to Owen Sound on Saturday, and Elwyn Jamieson accompanied them home to spend the week end.
Messrs. Geo. Mitchell, Geo. Richardson, S. Pedlar and J. W. McKee left on Saturday on their annual hunting holiday in Parry Sound.

Mr. Chas. Mosier, who worked the past summer at Severn Falls, is spending a week with friends here.
Mr. Ed. Watts of Owen Sound is on a short visit with his son-in-law, Mr. Price Teeter.
The Young People's Society, recently organized in the Methodist church, gave a free Halloween social on Monday evening, which was very enjoyable.
Halloween passed over without any disorderly pranks. The boys were on good behavior.

week to organize a Red Cross sewing circle. We expect and hope that the people of this vicinity will do all they can to help this cause along, as it is so needful, and be among the Red Cross sewing band that is doing such a great work in the country to-day.
Mrs. Hugh McLean of Durham spent a few days with her mother, Mrs. Henderson.
Mr. Tom Bradley, who is drilling and studying for an officer in the army, came down from Owen Sound and spent over the week end with his mother at Allan Park.
From another Correspondent.
Messrs. Will Hunter and David Gilmour and families motored to Chesley recently.
Mr. John C. Kerr left on Friday for Woodville, where he has accepted a position in the Standard Bank.
Mr. Thos. Bradley of Owen Sound training camp, spent over the week end with his mother.
Miss Isabella Marshall commenced studies at the Durham high school on Monday morning.
Messrs. James, Norman and John, and Mrs. Kerr, spent Sunday with Hanover friends lately.
Messrs. John Henry, Alex. McLean, Thos. Derby and Mrs. Derby visited with Mr. Jas. Geddes, Dromore.
The youngsters and would-be youngsters created quite a lively time for themselves on Halloween. When a neighbor's road gate is substituted with a horse rake, it may be considered a pretty fair deal.
The Ayton anniversary services were largely attended by the Hampden people on Sunday last. The ladies of Hampden church are holding a meeting on Wednesday afternoon for the purpose of organizing a Red Cross Society branch here.
