TOWNSHIP MUST PAY

Judgement for 1,400 damages has been awarded by Mr. Justice Masten in favor of Mrs. Sarah Jane Linstead against the township of Whitechurch for the death of her son, Walter Linstead, who was killed by the collapse of a bridge on the Fogarton road on August 1st, last. He was taking a traction engine weighing 17,075 pounds, and a threshing machine across the bridge at six o'clock in the evening, when the bridge gave way, precipitating him ten feet to the bottom of a shallow stream. He was scalded to death. The bridge was built some seventeen or twenty years ago, it is held that there was negligence in not keeping it in a state of repair.—Telegram.

TRAVERTON

Mr. Wm. Paylor got a big, fat wad of bills for thirteen head of stockers disposed of to Mr. O Heffernan, last week. Mrs. George Furneaux of town, is visiting at the homes of her brothers, Councillor G. E. and J. J. Peart. Ivan Edwards arrived here on Monday night after three months spent out west, at Loreburn, Sask. On the way home, he and his brother, Elmo, spent a few days with their auntie, Miss Emma Edwards, at Pt. Arthur, a day or two with kindred in Toronto, and came around by St. Helens, enjoying a week at Uncle George Henry's, whose better half accompanied him home to spend some weeks with us. Rev. E. S. Moyer conducted the most successful missionary service in Zion's history on Sunday last, judging from results. It was a treat to the big crowd present, who seemed most willing to contribute. The municipal pot is just beginning to simmer in Glenelg, and will be bubbling up lively in the next three weeks. Seems quite possible, there may be quite a bunch of new aspirants for office. We cannot add much to the obituary of the late Thomas Connelley, which appeared in last week's issue of the Chronicle owing to lack of information; but we know he was a pioneer of nearly fifty years, and during those years of ups and downs, proved a helpful, obliging, cheery neighbor. The funeral took place to St. John's on Thursday morning. Rev. Father Flahaven officiating. There should be a big crowd at the Township Hall on Friday evening to hear the two, talented institute speakers. There is to be sweet music and some good singing as well. Mr. White, of Pricerville was a guest of the Anderson homes on the 6th con. the first of the week. An event that brings honor to Townsend's Lake school section and to Mr. Colin McArthur's home where four score of the parents and pupils gathered, took place on Wednesday evening of last week, when their former teacher, Mr. Angus McIntosh, of Dornoch, was presented with a most complimentary worded address, a fine Gillett safety razor and a very handsome toilet set. One of his former pupils, Archie McArthur, decoyed him to the home under the guise of a party, hence it was a genuine surprise, but in grateful words he thanked them for their generosity and appreciative words, and branching out in eloquent phrases made one of the best speeches of his life. An impromptu program of songs, music and recitations was presided over by Mr. Wm. Baker, then, a big repast and a few happy social hours closed one of the most pleasant and happy gatherings ever held in connection with the school life of the neighborhood. LETTERS FROM THE BOYS IN KHAKI

A LETTER FROM SALONICA It will be seen from the following letter received by Dr. and Mrs. A. C. Wolfe, that their son, Cecil, of the Army Veterinary Corps, has been transferred from Alexandria in Egypt, to Salonica in Greece. and now our young townsman is nearer the centre of activities, and will likely soon learn the real hell of actual warfare. He writes to his parents as follows:— Dear people at home:— I haven't received any letters from you, and I have had no opportunity of writing one, or sending one off if I had it written as I left Alexandria a week ago to-day, destination unknown, until we were two days out at sea, and then learned we were headed for Salonica in Greece, where we have arrived now safely. We had a very rough passage, which didn't help me very much, as I had a lot of sickness among my animals aboard, but have not lost one so far, although my own little mare has not decided yet this morning whether to live or die, but I believe she will live. We had a very lucky trip as regards submarines, although we were pretty anxious for a day or two. A transport a few miles behind us was sunk with troops aboard, and so far no survivors have turned up. We expect to dock to-day, and disembark our animals and wagons, and go to the camp where the other English soldiers are. The French are landing troops here, too, and as soon as the Division is completely landed we expect to make a triumphal march up through Greece, and smite the Bulgarians and Turks hip and thigh. We have simply taken this part of Salonica from the Greeks, who are still wavering on the fence as to which side they will join, but dear help the Greeks in Salonica if they join the wrong side, as there are Russian, Italian, French and English battleships lying side by side in the harbor here who would, in a day's bombardment make the existence of the city of Salonica a thing of the past. We have little to fear from them here, but if we move up and they come in against us and cut off our line of communication we will be caught like rats in a trap. I was ashore with another officer yesterday, and we did not think much of the place. The city is built in a hollow, surrounded by mountains, the top of which you can only see when the sun is shining bright, as the low clouds hang over the top and shut out the view. The city itself is like all eastern cities, having narrow filthy streets, and reeks of all the foul smells imaginable. I have been compelled to put on all my heavy clothes, as it is very cold, and they have snow here next month, which is some change for me, coming from the intense heat of Egypt. The city has a population of 150,000, of which half are Jews, the remainder Greeks, Turks, Roumanians, and the language spoken is Greek, but a lot of the people understand and speak French. Now I don't know what more I can add to this at the present time, so I will close now and write again when we land. Address my letters the same as before and they will be forwarded to me. I hope you all keep well at home. With love, CECIL
