MODERN KING CANUTE GOES TO MAKE PEACE

Henry Ford of Automobile Fame With His "White Feather" Accomplishes Saits to Oblige Kaiser

Amid scenes almost beyond belief, Henry Ford's Peace Ship, Oscar II, backed out from its pier in Hoboken on Saturday bearing a strangely assorted company that has proclaimed that it will stop the war. In all, a careful count of the passenger list shows that 142 sailed in the first and second cabins, which are reserved exclusively for the Ford party, and decorated with stuffed doves and olive branches. There were speeches galore on the dock and aboard the ship, where nothing less than pandemonium reigned. There was the band playing, "I Didn't Raise My Boy to be a Soldier," there was Mr. Bryan acting as witness to a hasty marriage whose altar lights were banging flash lights; there was a Swedish steward rushing about with a squirrel in a cage, and finally forcing it into Mr. Ford's stateroom, there were belated arrivals, including many college students, forcing their way past everyone and trampling aboard, their trunks upon their shoulders.

As it was at the beginning of the Ford peace ship plan, so it was at the pier. Nobody knew where to go, nobody was in charge of anything, nobody knew anything except that here was a ship that Henry Ford was taking to Europe to stop the war, get the boys out of the trenches by Christmas, and lots of other things. An intoxicated young man with a German accent shouted "Gott strafe Heinrich Ford," women cried hysterically, "God bless Mr. Ford, God bless M. Bryan," the ban played "Onward Christian Soldiers," and changed to "The Star Spangled Banner," a man said to be a movie actor dived into the water after the receding ship and still the crowd cheered and laughed and waved flags. Despite the regulation governing passports, Henry Ford is determined to cross German territory on his way from Copenhagen to The Hague, where the peace conference is to be staged. Mr. Ford's passport authorized him to visit only neutral countries, not to stop at or pass through any of the belligerents, and some of the passengers are apprehensive lest he and his party be arrested if they attempt to set foot on German soil.

Roumania Wakes Up

All Ships Commandeered Showing That Something is About to Happen

Roumanian military authorities have announced that all steamships, barges, tugs and other craft in Roumanian ports will be commandeered "in the interest of national defence." The Premier has declined to discuss international relations in the Parliament for the same reason. Diplomats here profess to see in these developments an indication that the nation will abandon its policy of neutrality, but the British press, with the experience of Bulgaria and Greece to refer to, show little disposition to accept this view. They prefer to withhold comment until some actual and committing step has been taken. Exchanges of communication between Bucharest and Petrograd have been frequent during the last few days, obviously with the object on the part of Russia of reaching such an understanding with Roumania as the French and British obtained from M. Venizelos relative to the movement of troops through Greece.

Von Bissing Refuses Whitlock

American Consul Famous in Cavell Murder Not Wanted Back by Huns

The Amsterdam correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph Company sends the following: "Advices from Rosendaal (Holland) state that Belgian newspapers under the German censorship have been ordered to announce that Brand Whitlock (United States Minister to Belgium) will not return to Brussels. The news has been received with consternation throughout Belgium. It is believed that Gen. von Bissing (German Governor-General of Belgium), desired to have Mr. Whitlock ousted and that he is also pressing for the immediate removal of the American and Spanish Legations from Brussels to Havre, where the Belgian Government is."

German Factory Blown Up

Destruction of a large ammunition factory at Halle, Prussian Saxony, by an explosion, with the loss of several hundred lives, is reported by Reuter's correspondent. Discontented workmen are suspected, the message says, of having caused the explosion. It is said a similar disaster was narrowly avoided at Bogden, Silesia. The ammunition factory there, it is reported, was saved by the discovery that it had been undermined. According to this account, arrests have been made at Bogden.

Serbia to Fight to the End

The Journal: d'Italia in Rome prints an interview with M. Ristich, Serbian Minister to Italy, concerning a rumor that Serbia might capitulate. The Minister is quoted as follows: "I can absolutely deny that there will be any capitulation in Serbia. There the people either win or die. The Serbian people are determined to fight to the bitter end. Serbia will be loyal to her last man. In a short time Serbia will have a fresh army of 200,000 men, full of enthusiasm, to throw on the flank of the enemy."

British Still Air Raiding

The following official communication from Field Marshal French was made public: "On the second, an air raid was carried out against Don station and buildings in its vicinity. An ammunition store is believed to have been blown up and the railway was hit near the station. Some fires were observed in Don after the raid. All the machines returned safely, although several hostile machines were met and engaged. Mining activity continues on both sides."

CONSTANTINE OF GREECE DEFIES THE ALLIES

Repeals Demands Made—Says Greece Will Protest to the World—Will Remain Neutral to the End

Constantine I, King of the Greeks, received the correspondent of the Associated Press at Athens and has given him a message for America on the attitude which Greece has assumed in the world war and has been followed by the policy which has been followed by the Greek Government. After declaring that the Anglo-French forces were inadequate and that participation in the war by Greece would only result in Greek territory being laid waste by the enemy, King Constantine said: "If the Entente will assure me that when they are driven back into Greek territory they will consider the Balkan game ended, re-embark, and leave Greece, I will guarantee with my whole army to protect their retreat against the Germans, Bulgarians, or anybody else and give them time to embark without being endangered. Then I would be legitimately protecting my frontiers, and it would not involve Greece in further risks. More I cannot do."

Demand Too Great

"The Entente's demand is too much. They try to drive Greece out of neutrality; they come into Greek territory and waters as though they were theirs. At Nautila they destroyed tanks of petroleum intended to kill locusts on the excuse that they might be used by German submarines. They stop Greek ships; they ruin Greek commerce; they want to seize our railways, and now they demand that we take away the troops guarding the Greek frontiers, leaving my country open to invasion or any lawless incursion. I will not do it. I am willing to discuss reasonably any fair proposals, but two things I will not concede: Greece shall not be forced or cajoled out of her neutrality; Greece will maintain her sovereignty and her sovereign rights to protect herself in need."

"And if that is not necessary—if coercive measures are used by the Entente powers?" the King was asked.

To Protest to the World

"We shall protest to the whole world that our sovereign rights are violated. We shall resist passively, as long as we humanly can, being forced by any measures whatsoever into a course which we know will be prejudicial to the liberties and happiness of our people."

"And when you cannot hold out longer?"

"We shall have to demobilize our armies and await the march of events. What else can we do?"

KAISER WHINES FOR CESSATION OF WAR

Peace Rumors Becoming More and More Certain Daily—Week's Fighting Shows Little Change

The momentous decision reached by the German Government to permit the discussion of peace in the Reichstag is regarded in London as the clearest indication that Germany is prepared to lay down her arms if acceptable conditions can be obtained. The entire world is awaiting eagerly the speech of the Imperial Chancellor. Meanwhile, the wildest rumors are current. The latest of these, coming from The Hague and obviously from a German source, is to the effect that the Kaiser intends to proclaim peace shortly. It is asserted on the "highest authority" that the Kaiser will send a letter to President Wilson urging him to accept the role of mediator.

Bulgarians Wearying

It is officially announced that only German, Austrian and Bulgarian officers have entered Monastir, no troops accompanying them, says a Reuter despatch from Athens. Athens says: "It is reported from Florina that the Bulgarian troops remain camped in the vicinity of Monastir at a place named St. Kiriaki. A delegation of the inhabitants went out to the Bulgarian outposts to notify the troops that they could enter the town. Bulgarian deserters arriving at Florina say that the great majority of the Bulgarian soldiers think that the war has been ended by the occupation of Macedonia, and do not want to continue fighting in the interests of the Germanic powers."

German Offensive Shattered

On the Russian front an attempted German offensive in the region of Dvinsk, near Schischkuo farm, northwest of Lake Sventen, broke down under rifle fire. Earlier reports state that the repulse on the left bank of the Sty southwest of Rafalovka was regained later. Serious losses were inflicted on the enemy above Czar-torsk, causing them to flee in disorder.

Italians Make Many Prisoners

The following statement concerning the progress of hostilities was given out by the Italian War Office: "There were encounters between detachments in the Tonale zone, and we repulsed enemy troops near Sanbar, Tolmino, Hospite, and in the Ledro valley, where the enemy delivered an attack on our positions north of Pre, which we recently captured. On Thursday night after concentrated artillery preparations with guns of all calibres dense masses of infantry, advancing like waves, charged our trenches in the Mrzli redoubt on Monte Nero. Notwithstanding the destructive effect of our accurate and rapid fire, parties of the enemy penetrated our lines in a few places, from which they were driven out after violent hand-to-hand fighting. After a desperate fight the enemy was compelled to flee, leaving, in addition to five hundred dead on the field, 181 prisoners, including three officers."
