ORCHARD'S CORNERS

With a couple inches more snow the sleighing would be excellent. Messrs. Geo. and John Halladay have arrived home from Weyburn, Sask. The remains of their brother, Wm. who was buried out there before word could reach them will not now be brought home for burial.

FLESHERTON

At the literary meeting of the Presbyterian Guild last week a very interesting debate took place, the subject being resolved "That conscription would be beneficial to the British empire." The affirmation was led by Miss Mary Wilson supported by Donald McVicar and George McTavish, and the negative was led by Miss Holmes, supported by Frank Duncan, and C. J. Bellamy. There were excellent arguments and strong points made on both sides but the decision was given in favor of the affirmative. Mrs. Dr. Carter, Rev. Mr. Kerr, and Mr. Griffin, teacher at Ceylon, acted as judges.

BLYTH'S CORNERS

The voting in church union has been completed in Amos and Knox churches. In Knox the vote was 73 for, 8 against. In Amos 143 for, 15 against. The people in rural districts seem to be more broad minded on the subject than in the cities and towns. Mr. Jas. McIlvride purchased 10 head of stockers and a springer cow from Mr. E. Limin of Durham. Jim will improve their looks before he gets through with them. Mr. John Thompson is visiting his brother Archie of the Rocky. The annual beef ring meeting will be held on Friday evening December 10th school house No. 1. Mr. James Watson evidently has bright hopes of Henry Ford's peace party accomplishing wonders. In our humble opinion the Allies haven't a bigger enemy in the States considering his influence and he would have done better to have stayed at home and mind his own business.

ORCHARD'S CORNERS

Mr. Willie McAllister son of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. McAllister, of Poplar Hill has offered his services to go to the front. He is a plucky lad and will make a good soldier. Orchard's popular school teacher Mr. McClelland is quitting the business at Christmas, and has given notice to the trustees to that effect. Mr. Ruttle, of Orchard, has enlisted for the war, and expects to go in training at London, Ont. Mrs. Adam Keller, formerly of this neighborhood, but for the past two years a resident of Ayrton, died there on Friday last with cancer of the stomach. In omitting to state in his adv of Mr. Cornish's farm, of "Rural Mail Service," Mr. Fortune made a great oversight. It has raised the value of farm lands, makes life more cheerful, puts all farms on an equal footing and is an all round decided boon. The annual meeting of our Corn Company Limited was held at the home of Mr. Bert Watson on Saturday evening. This is the first year that finance minister James Petty has been unable to declare a dividend, in fact he bumped us up hard with direct taxation.

pathise with the bereaved family in their loss. Mr. George Richardson is spending a few days in Toronto.

A MARVEL OF TRAINING

Rose had called on her afternoon out to see her friend, Arabella. Arabella's mistress had just purchased a parrot, and Rose was much interested in the bird. "Birds are shore sensible" she observed. "You kin learn them anything. I uster work for a lady that had a bird in a clock, an when it was time to tell de time ob day it uster come out an' say 'cuckoo' jest as many times as de time was." "Go along. Yo' don't say so," said Arabella incredulously. "Shore thing," replied Rose, "and de mos' wonderful part was dat it was only a wooden bird, too."
