Lesson I.—First Quarter, For Jan. 2, 1916.

THE INTERNATIONAL SERIES.

Text of the Lesson, Acts i, 1-14-Memory Verses, 10, 11-Golden Text, Eph. iv. 8-Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

Luke tells us that in his former treatise, his gospel, he had written of all that Jesus began to do and teach. and this book, which we begin today, might well be called the record of that which Jesus continued to do and teach through His apostles, notably Peter and John and Paul and the evangelists Stephen and Pailip. Note the order of the words "do and teach" and the many places where the order is the same or the parallel words "seen and heard." The doings are seen and the teaching is heard (Mark vi. 30; Acts iv. 20; I John i, 3). We cannot properly teach what we have not first learned to do. The day in which He was taken up carries us back to the taking up of Enoch and Elijah and onward to the taking up of all true believers at His coming to the earth for His people (I Thess. iv, 16-18). In the forty days between His resurrection and ascension He showed Himself alive at least ten times and after his ascension twice to Paul, also to Stephen and John. The same Holy Spirit who controlled Him before His death spake by Him after His resurrection and, as always, concerning the kingdom of God (verses 2, 3). Note how this book, like the whole

Bible, begins and ends with the kingmeans dominion over all things on the whole earth, given to Christ by the Father and by Christ shared with His redeemed. It was at hand and preached by John the Baptist and the Lord Jesus and the twelve and the seventy. but being violently rejected and the King crucified it was postponed till He shall come again, according to Luke xix, 11, 12; Acts iii, 20, 21. The disciples understood, and rightly, too (verse 6), that the center of the kingdom will be a restored Israel, for apart from a righteous Israel and the throne of the Lord at Jerusalem the long predicted kingdom cannot be. The kingdom being rejected and postponed and the 11. time of the King's return known only to God. He is gathering from all the world an elect people who shall reign with Him when He shall come again 20. A special war tax of one mill on to set up His kingdom. This is the mystery hidden in the ages past and revealed specially to Paul (Eph. iii, 27. Carrie Davies, acquitted in To-3-6). To this end the Holy Spirit has been specially sent to testify of a risen and glorified Christ, who is waiting at the Father's right hand for the building of His body, the church, His Eve, who shall share with Him the dominion as truly as Rebecca and Ruth shared with Isaac and Boaz all their wealth.

The disciples were to wait for the 15. special power for this service and, witnessing the power of the Holy Spirit, then bear witness for the Lord from Jerusalem unto the uttermost parts of the earth.

The great testimony is that Jesus Christ is risen and alive forevermore at the right hand of the Father and gladly receiving all who come unto God by Him and are willing to live in the 22. Fifty miners were killed when power of His resurrection life and help to gather from all nations His holy

Mere human wisdom cannot grasp His purpose, nor can the best scholarship 24. understand or be of any use to Him apart from the only power and the only | 23. teacher, the Holy Spirit. When He had spoken His last message to them, while they beheld He was taken up (verse 9), or as it is written in Luke xxiv, 50, 51, "While He blessed them, He was parted from them and carried up into heaven." With what utter amazement they must have seen Him ascend from their midst and how steadfastly they must have gazed upon Him until the cloud hid Him from their sight! We do not know that any one said he was swept away in a whirlwind with horses and chariot of fire. This was a quiet, visible taking as He talked with them and blessed them, suggestive of the fact that He is still blessing or ready to bless. As they, in wonder and awe, watched the cloud that hid Him from their view two men stood by them and said very plainly that as He had gone so He would come again in like man-

One result of this message was that they worshiped Him and returned to Jerusalem with great joy and continued in prayer and praise (verse 14; Luke xxiv, 52, 53). There is no more joyful topic than that of the coming again of the Lord Jesus to the earth to welcome His people and then back to Olivet with His people to set up His Kingdom, with the throne of David as its earthly center (Zeph. iii, 14, 15; Zech. xiv. 4. 9; Luke i. 32. 33). These heavenly messengers may have been 27 angels, for angels are sometimes called men, as in Gen. xviii, 2, or, for aught we know, they may have been Moses and Elijah.

But it is the message of the heavenly envoys that should hold us and be earnestly proclaimed. "This same Jesus shall so come in like manner"-not death, nor the destruction of Jerusalem, nor even the coming of the Holy Spirit as another Comforter, but this same Jesus Christ
