Corner Concerns.

Mrs. Janet McMeeken visited Toronto friends a week ago and enjoyed the sights and doings of the city.

Miss Dell Macintyre ate Thanksgiving dinner with her parents at Dundalk.

Miss Myrtle Allan was home from Toronto for the holiday.

Mr. Peter Black has been confined to his bed for the past ten days with a threatened attack of pneumonia, but a cheerful spirit and a little medical attendance is bringing him around again.

Our teacher has handed in her resignation, to take effect at Christmas and intends to fill a position in The Dundalk Herald office with her father.

Messrs. William Aljoe of St. Marys and brother Bert, are visiting friends in this part.

The work is progressing speedily on the bridge down at the river. We presume there is no trouble to get teams to do the work. There is a much better picking on the road these years than in the fields. Farmers will neglect the home almost any time for a job on the road; in fact, there is almost strife amongst the farmers as to who can get their team on where there is work to be done.

St. Paul's Sunday School entertainment will be held in the school-house Friday evening, November 17. The admission is only 15 cents, but let no one imagine because it is low it is going to be a cheap affair. There will be a splendid programme. Much of it has been under preparation for some time and the tea and eats will be as good as of yore, in fact, a special effort is being put forth to make it a most enjoyable affair.

The tax notices are out and the taxes much higher than before. We expected they might be as high as last year owing to the contention of some of the candidates at the last nomination that the 1921 Council had used up a large balance on hand as well as last year's taxes and the contradiction was not very convincing. But who is to blame will best be seen when the financial statement is issued. No matter who is the cause, they have been mounting up year by year until the people are out of patience.

We notice by the Toronto papers that Mr. Filshie carried his bridge case against the Township to Os-goode Hall and it was heard on Friday but judgment was reserved.

Traverston.

The death of Mr. Thomas Nelson on Monday of last week was a deep shock to the neighborhood, as his illness was brief. The deceased was the third eldest son of the late Paul Nelson and was born near Paris 56 years ago. When quite young, the family moved to Lot 10, Concession 5, which has been the old home ever since. Suffering from a hurt, he always was lame, in one leg, but he turned his attention to bees and so closely studied their needs and ways that he became most successful in the management of them, and in caring for and producing the very finest honey. He accumulated quite a snug fortune. He was skillful as a mechanic and evidence of his workmanship was shown in the buildings he erected for storage, workshop, etc. He was a staunch Liberal, a regular attendant at Zion and quite generous in his support of the church. The funeral took place on Wednesday and was a very large one. Rev. Mr. Cole gave a most comforting message and conducted the service in the home and at the graveside. The pall-bearers were his brothers, Paul and Will, from Galt; his nephew, Rob Jackson, and his two cousins, Messrs. Rob and John Nelson were present from Egremont, and Will, from Holstein. His niece, Winnie (Mrs. Philip Harrison) was a great favorite with him and during the closing days she remained with him.

On-Friday last Mr. Alex. Morton finished work on the new barn for Mr. Hugh Macdonald. Just a month from the day that the barn was taken down on Mr. Henderson's farm at Crawford, it was raised on the farm of Mr. H. Macdonald. With willing hands and favorable weather the work was accomplished, none working harder or more willingly than Mr. James Macdonald, our young man of 74 years, who even did his share of shingling on the high roof. We wish them the best of luck with their new barn and hope each succeeding year will see it filled to its capacity.
