NEWS AROUND TOWN

Junior Editor Weds.

Mr. C. R. VanDusen, junior editor of The Tara Leader, was married on the 16th of November to Miss Hazel M. McGibbon, former teacher in the Tara Continuation school.

Time To Quit.

A wife asked her brutal husband to tell her truly why he gave up drink. To this he replied, "Well, dear, the last time your mother was here I came home late and saw three of her and the shock cured me."

Meaford Men Fined.

Jacob S. Ceiglen of Meaford was found guilty of selling liquor by Magistrate Greaser and fined $300.00 and costs. Angus Toby, proprietor of the Queen's Hotel, was also found guilty of keeping liquor for sale and fined $200.00 and costs.

Meaford Students Defeat Markdale.

Two basketball teams from Meaford High school, one made up of girls and the other of boys, defeated the students of Markdale on Friday evening last. The boys won by a score of 25 to 4 and the girls by 13 to 4.

Three Owen Sound Men Fined.

On Saturday last at the police court in Owen Sound one fellow was fined $5.00 and costs for using profane language in a public place, another $5.00 and costs for buying ammunition for a minor, and a third $2.00 for firing off a gun within the corporation.

Ayton Pioneer Passes.

Mrs. John Phillips died at Ayton recently at the advanced age of 95 years. She was a resident of the village since 1856 and her husband was the first postmaster. She was a Roman Catholic in religion and the funeral obsequies were conducted by Rev. Father McNeil.

Nominated for Boys' Council.

We notice by last week's Kincardine Review that Albert Kress of this place, now attending school at the lakeside town, has been nominated for the Boys' Parliament, which meets at Toronto from December 27 to 29. There are three nominees from Kincardine alone, and as only one member can be elected from the county, The Review thinks Kincardine might have fared better had only one candidate been nominated.

Moved to Orangeville.

Joseph Lee, at one time section foreman here on the C.P.R., but who has been stationed at Dundalk for the past few years, has been transferred to Orangeville. Last week he received a $25 cheque from the Company as first prize from the superintendent for the best kept section on the Bruce division. Six years ago he won the roadmaster's prize. His transfer to Orangeville is promotion.

All Invited to This Meeting.

All persons interested in the protection of fish and game are requested to attend a meeting in The Chronicle Office on Friday evening (tomorrow) at 7.30. Members of the Fish and Game Protective Association, formed some time ago, are especially requested to be present with view to reorganization. The law has been flagrantly violated and an effort should be made to have it observed, by appointment of game warden or other means.

Men's Class.

Next Sunday, December 10, the topic will be "Broken Homes." One of the most difficult social problems has been how to deal with deserted wives with children. Why do men desert their families? How should they be punished or reclaimed? What ought to be done with the home-staying non-supporter? Can we make the marriage vow binding without religion? Conversion is best preventive and corrective of family difficulties.

Coroner Meets To-day.

The coroner's jury to investigate circumstances of the death of late James Agnew, who passed away Thursday morning of last week after injuries received Tuesday at the Russell plant is in session this afternoon. The jury met last Thursday at the Kress Undertaking Parlor, and, after viewing the remains, adjourned till to-day. Coroner Hutcheon in charge of the investigation. The jurymen selected are: William J. McQueen, J. McNally, S. J. A. McLachlan, G. S. Burrows, J. J. Snell.

Recovering From Operation.

Friends here of Mrs. W. A. McGowan will be pleased to learn that she is doing well after an operation for appendicitis last Monday morning in the hospital at Kitchener.

Bereaved at Windsor.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Elvidge of Windsor mourn the loss of their infant twin son and daughter, who died on Sunday of last week. They were two weeks old and had been delicate from birth.

Hydro Patrolman Injured.

Mr. William Breen, high tension patrolman on the hydro, had his leg gashed by a broken insulator while working on the top of a pole on Sunday. It required a number of stitches to dress the wound.

Red Cross Bazaar Made Money.

The Red Cross bazaar on Saturday was a great success and over four hundred dollars were taken in. Practically everything disposed of was donated and the outlay will be very small. The proceeds go to the Hospital Fund.

Dundalk Won Out.

A delegation consisting of the Reeve of Dundalk, Warden Howie and Reeve Calder of Durham were successful in an interview with Hon. F. C. Biggs by which a Dundalk difference about road construction was satisfactorily adjusted and Dundalk will receive a refund of $400.00.

Delegation Won Out.

A delegation from the County Council waited on Hon. F. C. Biggs, Minister of Public Works, with a view of having the road from Hanover to Singhampton taken over as a County-Provincial Road. On hearing the matter presented, Mr. Biggs signified his intention to have the change made. Of this road, about 15 miles have already been completed and there are 30 miles to build. To complete the road will cost about $200,000 and will be a saving to the County of $40,000, as the Province will bear 60 per cent. of the cost instead of 40 per cent. if built as a County Road.

Deposited Fingerlings.

Last week, Dr. Jamieson had a large can of fingerling trout deposited in Wilder's Lake. The receptacle contained about 2,000 fish in all. The Dr. has now made a good start in his unique undertaking at what was formerly regarded as one of Egremont's eyesores. In the past two or three years, however, a great change has been wrought. Dr. Jamieson's summer home was but the forerunner of others, and now several of the town people have purchased plots of land and have built or will build in the near future. Besides trout, the lake is also well stocked with black bass, and in the territory in the vicinity over 3,500 pine trees have been planted to further hasten the doctor's "back-to-nature" ideals. In all there are about 250 acres and it is the intention to make a preserve of the whole tract, and we understand that an attempt may even be made to make this natural resting place a haven for wild geese, duck or other fowl in their migrations north and south.

Miss Nickawa Was Good.

Those who attended the entertainment in the Baptist Church Thursday night had a real treat in the recitals given by Miss Frances Nickawa, a full-blooded Cree Indian woman, born in the Hudson Bay District and educated at "Norway House," a mission station supported by the Women's Missionary Society. Miss Nickawa has a pleasing personality, is apparently well educated, speaks clearly and distinctly in good English and is possessed of fine descriptive powers. In her recitals of "The Legend of the Q'Appelle," "The Song My Paddle Sings," and "Canadian Born," by Pauline Johnson, her descriptive powers were excellent, but in our opinion "Hiawatha's Wooing" by Longfellow was her finest number. She has fine dramatic powers, a sharp, penetrating eye, and a fascinating stage appearance. The opening announcement was made by the pastor, Rev. Mr. Cameron, and Miss McCombe proved an efficient accompanist. The first was a double duet, pleasingly rendered by Misses Adeline Graham and Elsie Boyce, and at intervals during the evening Master Eben Cameron entertained with several pleasing numbers. There was a good attendance, notwithstanding the unfavorable condition of the weather.

Taken to Durham Hospital.

Mrs. Charles Moffat of Glenelg was taken to the local hospital last night and was found in such a critical condition that an operation was decided on, and is being performed as we go to press.

Jackson Plant Running.

Steam is up in the Jackson plant again and a gang of men is at work finishing up the balance of the photographs that were partly completed when the business was closed. Mr. J. H. Harding purchased the stock and is now putting the machines on the market at $50.00, as will be seen by his big ad. on another page.

Nominations Are Earlier.

Owing to the fact that Christmas day falls on the Monday on which municipal elections are usually held, the Statutes provide that the nomination meetings shall be held on Friday, December 22; and the elections will be held on Monday, January 1. Municipal candidates will have a couple of days longer for their canvassing campaign this year, but the printers will have to put in overtime to get the financial statements out in time.

A Good Lecture.

Rev. D. N. Abyanker, a Hindu from India who is preparing for the Anglican ministry at Huron College, London, occupied the pulpit in Trinity Church last Sunday both morning and evening. At the evening service especially a large congregation was in attendance. Mr. Abyanker at the close of the service exhibited a number of the idols in use in India and a lecture on India illustrated with a number of lantern slides was also given. He returns to India next May.

MISS MELINDA MEENAGH DIED SUDDENLY OUT WEST

Information reached here Saturday announcing the death on Friday, December 1, of Miss Melinda Meenagh, formerly a resident of this town, and a teacher in this inspectorate. Deceased was a niece of the late Mrs. Samuel Scott, and about eighteen or twenty years ago she went West, where she has been teaching ever since in the province of Saskatchewan. A telegram from Dr. A. A. Backus of Leader, Sask., was received here Saturday morning by Mr. Allan Bell. It simply announced the death and inquired the address of relatives, with whom to communicate and be advised regarding the disposal of the remains.

Mr. Thomas Meenagh, formerly of Durham, but now of Fielding, Sask., is a half-brother, and Mrs. R. R. Wilcox of Prongua, Sask., is a half-sister.

We understand that Mrs. Watson, formerly of Priceville, now of Edmonton, Alberta, is a half-sister. It was from the deceased we bought the building in which The Chronicle is now printed. We regret to learn of Miss Meenagh's death and regret also that we are unable to give fuller particulars.

Greatest of All is the Gift of Music

Greatest, because it fills a universal need of heart and home. The trend of the times is to give gifts that are useful and enduring. Here is one that has not only these qualities, but adds to them the charm of sentiment.

The Gunn-Son-ola and Concert Grand PHONOGRAPHS

The Gunn-Son-ola and Concert Grand Phonographs represent the highest development of the interpretative musical instruments, because they are so built that they reproduce not only the tones of the artist, but the subtle inspiration which makes their efforts. They are rich and resonant in tone, pure, sweet and vibrant. All mechanical sound is absorbed—only the voice of the singers or tones of the instruments are heard.

Noteworthy, too, are the beautiful cabinets which house these temples of harmony. The Gunn-Son-ola Company have always been recognized leaders in the Phonograph art, and each Phonograph of their make shows superlative craftsmanship.

The Gunn-Son-ola and Concert Grand Phonographs are sold to you at the LOWEST they CAN be sold, on terms to meet your reasonable convenience. A small deposit down and monthly payments until paid. Our cabinet machines are from $39.00 to $400.00.

Call in. We are open evenings till 10 o'clock.
