There was a family reunion of the Adams family on New Year's Day. Mrs. Urquhart and Miss Jennie Adams came from Detroit, and Mr. Robert Adams from Pinkham, Sask., while Mrs. Hostetter is a resident of the village. It is several years since Robert Adams was in the village and about two years ago was the victim of a shooting affair by which he lost his right arm. He looks in the pink of condition.

Mr. Russell Scott of Welland spent a day or so lately at the manse with his parents.

Miss Lizzie Ross of Detroit, and Mr. John Ross of Stratford were recent visitors at the home of Miss Mary Ross.

For Council, Aberdeen 264, Groat 347, McPhee 254, McDougall 333, hence the Council for Egremont for 1923 is: Reeve, G. McEachern; Deputy Reeve, Neil Calder; Council, W. Aberdeen, W. M. Groat, and Allan McDougall.

Corner Concerns.

(Our own correspondent.)

The marriage on New Year's Day of Miss Agnes Marshall to Mr. James McNally of Traverston, by Rev. Mr. West of the Holstein Methodist Church, was an event most pleasing to all as the bride is one of our most faithful and highly esteemed young ladies. The groom, we understand, is a man well worthy of just such a helpmate. All join heartily in extending good wishes.

A social afternoon was spent in the school the day before closing between teacher, parents and pupils. Besides a good program there was a Christmas tree and before closing the scholars presented the teacher with a handsome lock and an address expressing their good wishes for the future and thanks for her patience and perseverance amongst them.

Now that the elections are over, we hope that all officials will try to do their best and make our township compare favorably with the surrounding townships.

Mr. John Poole and son Lorne spent the New Year holiday with his father and sister at our home.

Miss Myrtle Allan was home from Toronto for Christmas holidays.

Mr. Wilford Barbour was home from his school for the holidays.

James Mack was delegate from St. Paul's on Wednesday on the Parochial Committee to London.

Our School Board has engaged the services of Miss Sarah McCallum of Durham for the school term. She comes highly recommended as a good, faithful girl and we trust she will have every encouragement from both parents and pupils to make the term profitable for everybody.

Both the play and box social put on in the school-house on December 20, were good good successes. It enabled our retiring teacher, Miss Dell Macintyre, to give the handsome Christmas box of $60.00 to the Durham Hospital before leaving.

The appealed case, Filshie bridge vs Egremont Township, was decided at Osgoode Hall on Friday in favor of the Township.

Mr. Lorne Allan was elected Trustee at the school meeting in place of Mr. William Allan, the retiring one.

Mr. George Wilson was so unfortunate one day last week as to have one of his horses lie down and die on the road, without either cause or provocation.

On Tuesday evening young and old turned out to start the New Year by assembling at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Campbell and presenting them with a beautiful mantle clock and purse. The crowd was far from small, yet everybody was heartily welcomed and surely enjoyed a pleasant evening in music and dancing. Following is the address that accompanied the presentation:

To Mr. and Mrs. William Campbell: We, your friends and neighbors have assembled here this evening to welcome you and your winsome bride to our midst and to congratulate you on behalf of your forward step in life and to wish you—and yours many years of health, happiness and prosperity in our midst. We trust that your door may be open to hospitality and that you may be blessed with the gift of God's own hand in the building up of a social and independent home. We ask you to accept this mantle clock as a slight token of our esteem.

Signed on behalf of your friends and neighbors.—Fred Haug, Frank Twamley, G. Goldsmith.

The annual meeting of the school section was held on Wednesday, December 27. Mr. John Wade, the retiring trustee, was re-elected, and Mr. H. Riddell resigned and was replaced by Robert Corlett for the ensuing year.

Something we would like to know: How one ratepayer can take section money which was part of the receipts from the box social and was voted by a majority of the section to be handed over to the Durham Hospital, and use it to purchase some trifling books and place them in the school. It was in order to help keep down his tax rate, we suppose.

Miss Evelyn Sharp is spending a couple of weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Sharp.

The young people of this line were kept busy during the holidays attending the different parties—one at Mr. Robert Lawson's, one at Mr. Lauchie McLean's and one at Mr. Herb. Atkinson's.

Sorry to report Mr. John Caswell as being sick. He is in bed, with the doctor attending him.

It was a great shock to the friends and neighbors of Mr. Edward Simpson when it was learned that he had passed away at an early hour on Saturday morning after five or six weeks' illness which was not considered very serious at first. The family, all but two, were at the funeral. Much sympathy is felt for the aged mother, who is over 90 years of age, and also for his wife and family.

Flesherton.

(Our own correspondent.)

We were favored last week with a very interesting Christmas letter from Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Moore, former well-known and highly respected old residents here, who moved to California twenty-five years ago. Mr. and Mrs. Moore, aged 75 and 73 years respectively, are still in the enjoyment of good health and are pleasantly surrounded by their children and grandchildren, forty-four in all. The esteemed couple, who settled here soon after their marriage, and have still a warm place in their hearts for old Flesherton, will celebrate their golden wedding soon.

By a letter received on Saturday we learn that Dr. Thomas Henderson, wife and daughter, well known here, are off on their annual holiday to spend the winter in California, accompanied by their friends, Mr. and Mrs. John A. Graham.

Mr. and Mrs. John Thistlethwaite,

H. W. HUNT

Reeve of Bentinck, who was returned by acclamation for a second term. He has already had a municipal experience of five years, two as Councillor, two as Deputy Reeve and one as Reeve. There was an election for members of the Council and Mr. Hunt being returned unopposed is an evidence of his popularity at the head of the Council.

After much suffering in a protracted illness, Mr. William J. Osborne, a well-known old resident of Osprey and Artemesia, passed away at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Russell, at Rock Mills, on Sunday night, December 31, in his 72nd year. The deceased was born in York Township from where when young he came to Osprey with his parents, who were pioneers in the Township. For a few years he lived near this village. In Osprey, where most of his life was spent, he married Miss Arnold, who died nearly four years ago. The following children survive him: William, in Wilder, Idaho; Mrs. William Clark, in Michigan; Robert, Eugenia; Henry, Owen Sound; Sam, and Fred, Rock Mills; Nelson, Orangeville; and Mrs. Walter Russell, Rock Mills. He also leaves one brother, Samuel, at Maxwell, and sisters, Mrs. Perigo and Mrs. Ottowell, Feversham; Mrs. Ross, Weston; Mrs. Hanley and Mrs. W. J. Stewart, Flesherton, and Mrs. R. Smith, Markdale. The funeral took place on Tuesday to Salem cemetery, service being held in the church there conducted by pastors Vose and Mills.

The celebration of the 60th anniversary of the Methodist Sunday school commenced on Sunday when the church service was specially for the school, which took a leading part in the hymns sung. The sermon by the pastor was fitting to the occasion. On Monday evening the usual tea was given, followed by an excellent program, conducted by the pastor. The church was filled with a large and appreciative audience. The first part of the program was given mostly by the little tots who are always pleasing. A number were very cute in their parts. The larger ones also took their parts well and were interspersed with Hawaiian music, always taking. Solos were given by Dr. Murray, Wes. Armstrong and

Mr. Holland. A patriotic play entitled "The Key of Jack Canuck's Treasurehouse" in which about forty took part was well given and was a fine closing number. The report given of the school showed a successful year. A pleasing incident at the close was the presentation by the school to Mrs. C. N. Richardson of a handsome vase of roses in recognition of her services in assisting on the program. The proceeds were $120.00.

TOM MIX IN UNUSUAL ROLEIN NEW DRAMA

Tom Mix, the dynamic Fox star, believes in giving his large and loyal public change as well as sensation in his photoplay. While each Mix picture has its distinctive tang of adventure, thrills and outdoor stuff, there is always a pleasant change of locale and some new angle or interesting twist to the story. Even Mix himself endeavors to make each succeeding photoplay fresh and new by varying his role and character each time.

In his latest production, "The Fighting Streak," which comes to the Veterans' Star Theatre to-morrow and Saturday nights, Mix will be seen in a part such as he has never played before—that of a brawny young blacksmith in a little Western town. Through the medium of this character the story takes on novel color and interest and it starts Mix off on a series of adventures that provide action every minute and give the famous Fox star another photoplay that is fairly packed with thrills and entertainment.

AN APOLOGY

Last week we advertised a New Record by Sir Harry Lauder, namely, "Bella, the Belle o' Dunoon" and "The Sunshine of a Bonnie Lassie's Smile," never thinking that the demand for this new one of Harry's would be so great. We were sold out early and we were sorry a lot of people who came to hear it were disappointed, but we will have a good supply this week. So come and hear it, for it surely is a dandy.
