

Here and There

Liverpool. — Atlantic liners are finding there is a run on the ship's library. Over 1,000 books are distributed among the Canadian Pacific liners. Reading and books on board has become so popular that, in addition, a library with all the latest magazines has been installed on all the Canadian Pacific passenger steamers.

London, Ont. — John Anderson, well-known P. E. conductor, has retired. Mr. Anderson entered the service of the Canadian Pacific as a conductor in the London division on May 14, 1881, was promoted to a freight conductor in 1884 and promoted to passenger conductor on June 1, 1887, which position he has since held.

Toronto. — Remarkably quick time was made by a special train traveling between Montreal and Toronto recently. Carrying a large number of students from Dalhousie and McGill Universities the train left Windsor Station at 10:37 a.m., and arrived in Toronto at 5:35 p.m., thus covering the distance of 338 miles in 6 hours, and 58 minutes. A storm was raging during the trip.

Banff. — Probably more world famous men have played on the golf course at Banff Springs, Alberta, Canada, in the Canadian Rockies, than on any other single golf course in the whole world.

The picturesque course at Banff, situated as it is among the glaciers high up among the peaks of the Canadian Rockies, outstrips all rivals for scenic beauty and has been called the "Golf Course in the Clouds." Any traveler from any part of the world makes it certain that he sees the Canadian Rockies before completing his visit to the American Continent, and if he plays golf at all he is sure to see the scenic view with a course or two of golf on the "Rock Course in the Clouds." To tell of a list of the world famous men who have played golf at Banff is to read a list of "Who's Who" in world affairs.

The Canadian National Park Branch of the Department of the Interior reports over 5,000 persons as having played over the golf course in Banff National Park during the season recently closed, and many prominent visitors from nearly every corner of the globe went over the links. Those who golfed at Banff during the latter part of the season included His Excellency Baron Byng, Governor-General of Canada; Mr. Calvin Coolidge, Vice-President of the United States; Sir Lionel Guinness, Governor of the Straits Settlements; Baron Sanberg, of Holland; Premier Greenfield, of Alberta; and Rodney C. Wood, Chief Boy Scout Representative of England.

Cranbrook, B.C. — Children, more especially children of school age, should be warned to keep clear of railway tracks, particularly at this season of the year when the snow is deep and a slip of the foot may result in a fatal accident. Cranbrook parents should offer some advice to their offspring about their playing around the Canadian Pacific Railway tracks. A serious accident recently happened at Vernon to a child playing along the railway right-of-way. The Vernon News had the following editorial comment:

"The accident on the railway track last week was not unexpected by those who have watched with much concern the school children who so carelessly walk across and along the tracks. The little victim, however, was not a scholar and it was perhaps his first visit to the railways, having just been taken when near the tracks. Parents and teachers should give the children a lesson upon the danger of walking across or along the tracks. Time after time the children have been taken off the tracks in various ways, but some have escaped. Safety first — it should be most emphatically inculcated in boys and girls. There is no way for them to be safe but to keep their feet off the tracks.

Liverpool. — Wm. John Sergent, the superintendent engineer of the Canadian Pacific Steamships, Ltd., recently retired from that position after a sea-going career of 54 years, the major part of which was passed with Liverpool companies. With the object of showing the esteem and respect in which he is held by all those who have been associated with him for so many years, a very happy gathering took place on the C. P. liner Montcalm, at Liverpool, when Mr. Sergent was the recipient of some very handsome presents. They consisted of a combined solid mahogany bureau and bookcase, and a specially fitted-up gentleman's double wardrobe, while Mrs. Sergent was presented with a choice gold bar brooch set with diamonds. These are the gifts of the sea-going and shore staffs of the C. P. S. & Co. and the C. P. R. Co., and were presented through the medium of Captain J. V. Forster, Liverpool manager of the C. P. S. & Co. Ltd., in the presence of all the chief officials, personal friends, business colleagues, officials of the Board of Trade, and of the shipping registration societies.

After a lengthy illness, borne with Christian fortitude, Mrs. Henry C. LeGard, a woman very highly respected here, passed away at her late home in Toronto on Friday, January 12, aged 56 years. Mrs. LeGard was seized with a paralytic stroke over four years ago, from which she never fully recovered though the best medical nursing was given her by her devoted husband and family, who now feel keenly her demise, for she was an efficient wife and mother. After a service at the home the remains were brought here on Saturday evening to the home of her son-in-law, Mr. Ed. Best, from where the funeral took place on Monday to the public cemetery. Service was held in the Presbyterian Church, appropriately draped. The pastor, Rev. F. G. Fowler, preached a comforting sermon from Isaiah 43:2, and Rev. J. H. Oke assisted in the service. Mrs. LeGard was a faithful member of this church for thirty-five years and in health was active in the Ladies' Aid and other needed services.
